

F. H. YOUNG, '14 HEADS ALUMNI

Mary McAlister Gamble Is Vice-president

CAMPBELL SENDS WORD

Support of Gift Campaign Asked of Members

F. H. Young of Portland was elected president of the Alumni association of the University of Oregon at its semi-annual meeting in Guild hall, at 10 o'clock, Saturday morning. Mary McAlister Gamble, 1900, from Eugene, is vice-president.

Young's Record Good
Young, who is the son of Dean F. G. Young, graduated in 1914. He is a charter member of Sigma Delta Chi, a member of the Emerald staff for three years and yell leader in '13 and '14. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

Young has been a member of the editorial staff of the Oregon Voter, magazine of citizenship, since March, 1922. He is now associate editor of that publication with C. C. Chapman. He was Portland city chairman during the intensive period of the gift campaign last spring.

Resolutions are Passed
A committee was appointed to send a letter showing the expression of good will of the alumni and a wish for a speedy recovery to President Campbell. In the letter was incorporated the fact that the alumni are all back of the gift campaign. In putting the motion before the house, Nicholas Jauregui said, "The only thing about Homecoming that makes the grads sad is the inability of President Campbell to be present with us." A resolution passed upon was to present articles of appreciation to Grace Edgington, former secretary of the association, for the wonderful work she has done for the alumni in the success of "Old Oregon," of which she was editor up to last July.

Campaign Aid Asked
In speaking of the alumni's part in the gift campaign, Robert Kuykendall, president of the association said, "One-third of the alumni have subscribed one-half of the one million dollars, and will continue, and continue thoroughly, until the rest is raised. The response is mighty fine, and no one at the present time is opposing the campaign, although they did so at first." He urged the alumni to go back to their respective communities backing the gift campaign.

A motion was passed to have the secretary compile an alumni directory segregating the members by counties in the several states. A message from President Campbell to the alumni association was read in which he asked to be remembered to all members of the alumni and urged them to carry on and carry on again for the gift campaign. Words of commendation were expressed of the rally Friday night, to the effect that the traditions and customs of Oregon spirit were being carried on. A resolution of appreciation to Jack High and to all his able assistants was passed.

Coach has Large Turnout
One thing that Baz has this year is an exceptionally large squad from which to pick his reserves. He has at least two teams which he can switch into the fray. A lot of hard work on fundamentals and scrimmage will be in order this week to put the frosh on edge for the game.
With a number of good men out for the respective positions the competition will be especially keen this week. The rook game is the one that counts for numerals among the freshmen football men.

PSYCHOLOGY EXPLAINS ATTENDANCE AT RALLY

Dr. Raymond Wheeler Says Reaction is Natural

While several hundred students participated in the rally Monday afternoon, a small percentage of the regular 2 o'clock psychology class stayed in the room instead of joining the rosters.
Dr. Raymond H. Wheeler, the instructor, deciding it would be useless to lecture to one-third of the class, offered to dismiss the students.
A few of those not interested in the rally objected.
"Well, what shall I talk about?" Dr. Wheeler inquired.
Mob psychology was the topic suggested, and, as a result, Dr. Wheeler spent the hour in analyzing the psychological reasons why students leave their classes to attend such demonstrations.
The main motive actuating the rosters is that they think they are doing something "devilish," violating a law, according to Dr. Wheeler's explanation. If such a breach of rules had to be done individually there would be no rally, but there is strength in numbers.
"It is a perfectly natural reaction although not a particularly efficient one," Dr. Wheeler stated.
One of the secondary reasons is that the students hate to act contrary to the mob, Wheeler said. Man is ever averse to subjecting himself to criticism because he refuses to conform to mob action.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS OPENS DANCING CLASS

A class open to beginners in dancing and to those who are interested and anxious to learn the fundamentals of good dancing has recently been begun at the University of Kansas. Meetings open to the entire student body are held every Friday afternoon, the first half being devoted to the teaching of dancing and the remainder to practicing. A small sum is charged for each lesson.
"The University recognizes the fact that dancing is the foremost form of social entertainment and is anxious to give students an opportunity to enjoy dancing to the fullest extent," said the dean of women, in reply to the original petition from the men's and women's self-government organization for the establishment of the class.

DANCING ORGANIZATION PLANS SCHOLARSHIP

Winner to Attend Summer School at Wisconsin

The Orchestus, an honorary dancing organization, which was organized by Miss Lillian Stupp, of the physical education faculty, hopes every year to offer to its members, both active and graduated, a $100 scholarship, which gives them the privilege of attending the University of Wisconsin summer school, at Madison, Wisconsin.
Miss Neva Service, member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and a major in the physical education department, received the first scholarship which was offered last year. Miss Service studied under Miss Margaret N. H. Doubler, the founder of educational dancing, and also a member of the Wisconsin faculty. Such courses as pageantry, vocal expression, community recreation and dancing were taken.
It was a perfect place to spend the summer, and an inspiration to study under the first organizers of educational dancing work, said Miss Service. It was interesting to compare the Oregon campus with the Wisconsin, their method of conducting organizations and departments, and to meet so many people that are considered independent thinkers, she continued.

The Orchestus is going to have an open house the first Wednesday in December, to give the students an idea of the kind of work they are doing. In the spring a dance drama will be given, to help raise money for the scholarship.

Sunday Night Tea
Are your Sunday night teas an anti-climax to that especially good Sunday dinner? They shouldn't be, — there are so many different things that are just suited to a cosy meal for that particular occasion.
Wouldn't pickled pigs feet and graham bread and coffee taste good, — or toasted crackers and cheese, served with stuffed olives and tea and a loaf of fruit cake, — or sliced tomato salad and tea, topped with maplenuts, those crisp, maple frosted rolls?
