

ROBERT JENKINS VISITS CAMPUS HUMORISTS

Chicago Editor Makes Tour Of Nation's Colleges

Robert Jenkins, of the University of Chicago, and last year's editor of the Chicago Phoenix, leading humorous magazine of the country, is spending a few days on the campus as guest of the local chapter of Hammer and Coffin. Mr. Jenkins, who is the national representative of the Dupont Publishing company of Chicago, is making a tour of the United States and is visiting all colleges and universities where comic magazines are published.

The Dupont company publishes a magazine known as College Comics, which is cooperatively owned by the colleges that contribute to its columns. While on the campus, Mr. Jenkins has had various conferences concerning the Lemon Punch and the possibility of it being re-established.

The purpose of his tour is the betterment of college humorous magazines and the gathering of material for a series of articles which he plans to write on colleges in general. Among other positions he held last year at the University of Chicago was that of president of Hammer and Coffin.

Mr. Jenkins is spending today at the Oregon Agricultural college where he is conferring with the managerial staff of the Orange Owl, college comic publication.

TURNBAUGH DIRECTS SCHOOL AT MERRILL

Lester Turnbaugh, journalism graduate of last June, is teaching school at Merrill, Oregon, this year. As superintendent of the school he has four teachers under him. In a recent letter he said that he keeps in touch with student activities through the Emerald.

"I want to be remembered to all my friends, especially those around the shack," he writes. "I am teaching a class in typing here, and when the kids are pounding away it reminds me of the old shack about 4 or 5 o'clock in the evening when all the Emerald reporters are turning out late copy."

Turnbaugh is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Delta Chi, and Phi Delta Kappa. He served one term as president of the Cosmopolitan club. He is also a member of the local post of the American Legion.

TEN MEN ARE LISTED FOR Y. M. CONVENTION

Ten men have already signed up to attend the Western American young men's convention to be held under the auspices of the student department of the Y. M. C. A., at Asilomar, California, December 27 to January 3. Oregon's quota of delegates is 15 and the campus association cabinet will have them all selected within a short time, according to Rev. H. W. Davis, Y. M. C. A. secretary.

The following men have already signified their intentions of attending the affair: Willard Marshall, Lester Smith, H. W. Davis, C. S. Pil, O. E. McKinney, James Stewart, Dell Tedrow, Milton Simon, Maurice Spatz, and Dorion Patterson.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO HANDLE O.A.C. RALLY

The committee which handled the last rally has been asked by the yell king to handle the rally special for the Oregon-O. A. C. game on Saturday and will consist of practically the same personnel. Marion Dickey is the general chairman; publicity committee, James Leake, chairman; William Poulsen, Clifford Zehrung; attendance, Theodore Tamba, chairman; Russell Bonar, Sam Cooke, Ted Gillenwaters, William Hayden, Charles Norton and Steele Winterer; entertainment, Eddie Edlund, chairman; Roy Bryson, Jimmie Forestel, Jack Hering and Warren Ulrich.

MISS SHELLEY WILL TALK TO PHYSICAL DIRECTORS

The Oregon Physical Education association is to hold its monthly meeting at Corvallis, November 22. Physical directors from all over the state will attend the meeting, and discuss physical education problems, which have state wide significance. Miss Mary J. Shelley, of the University of Oregon physical education faculty, will give a talk on "The Place of Clogging in the Physical Education Department."

Four Strange Personages Stalk Campus Today

"Sandwich Men" Will Perform In Front of Library

Today four strange personages, effigies of a bygone day, will be seen stalking about on the campus. From the neck up, and the knees down they will resemble men. The vast expanse in between will be flat, fore and aft, and from the flat surfaces lurid messages will blaze forth.

The four strange beings will be "sandwich men" and they will perform just as their predecessors used to. In the primary days of advertising messages were carried about the thoroughfares on boards with a man between, and these days are being revived by Alpha Delta Sigma.

The walking signboards are the pledges of the W. F. G. Thacher chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity. At seven o'clock the quartet will give verbal expression to the qualities of the products advertised on their boards from the library steps.

The "copy" for the boards is supplied by the three theatres, the Heilig, the Rex, and the Castle. The Heilig sign extolls "Married Flirts;" the feature for tonight, and the next two days, while the Rex feature is "Forbidden Paradise," and the Castle "Sporting Youth."

The men will be formally initiated this evening. They are Wayne Leland, Frank Loggan, Arthur Priaulx, and Ed Koen.

DEAN SHELDON HEADS PENSION COMMITTEE

Dr. Henry D. Sheldon, dean of the school of education, was appointed acting chairman of the committee for the teachers' retirement fund, which met in Portland Saturday.

A basis was agreed upon, according to Dean Sheldon, which would provide for a minimum pension of $60 a month, but which would grade the pension above that amount. The amount of money which would be paid to a teacher would depend upon the amount of money which she had paid into the fund.

In addition, provisions to collect facts concerning Oregon teachers were made. The number of teachers in Oregon will be estimated; and the number that will likely need pensions during the next few years is to be determined.

MEMBERS OF CALIFORNIA GLEE CLUB VISIT EUROPE

University of California.—Twenty members of the University of California men's glee club spent the summer in touring the United States and Europe, giving concerts in the various towns along their route. Royalty and commoners alike came to hear the "exhibitors of the fine art of jazz." Scotland, England, Norway, Germany, Belgium and France were visited by the club. After a short vacation in Switzerland, the men returned home in time for school.

MAGAZINE ARTICLE IS SOLD BY JOURNALISM STUDENT

Margaret Morrison, a senior in the school of journalism, has sold an article to Printer & Publisher concerning Hal E. Hoss, president of the Oregon State Editorial association, and managing editor of the Oregon City Enterprise. The article was published in the November 8 issue of the magazine. This is the second article on Hal Hoss, Miss Morrison has sold, the other being accepted by the National Printer-Journalist.

FORESTRY SCHOOL RECEIVES MEASURING INSTRUMENTS

University of Montana.—(By P. I. N. S.)—The forestry school has received one of the finest sets of forest measuring instruments in the United States. These instruments consist of a device for measuring the height of trees, the diameter of trees and the volume of them. They were gathered for the school by Dr. C. A. Scheuck, one of the leading German foresters. The instruments came from all parts of Europe but mainly from Germany.

HORTICULTURE DEPARTMENT SENDS "GOOD LUCK" APPLES

Washington State College.—Horticulture department students at the State College of Washington took a box of delicious apples, wrapped each one in a tissue marked in big red letters "Good Luck Boys" and put it on the train with the football team going south to play the University of Oregon at Portland.

NEW HISTORICAL CLUB WILL HOLD MEETING

Event to Be In Commerce Building Wednesday

The new history organization, consisting of all majors in history and other interested, will hold a meeting in room 4 of the Commerce building Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. Henry Sheldon, temporary chairman of the organization, will preside at the meeting.

The two committees appointed at last Wednesday's meeting have been working hard in preparation for the meeting. Mildred Hayden, chairman of the program committee, says her body has some important points to bring up. The other two members of this committee are Elsie Dennis and Cecil S. Smith.

The committee working on membership and constitution has some important points to bring up at the meeting. A tentative constitution has been drawn. This committee is composed of Edward Robbins, chairman, Oscar Winther and Mary Griffen.

The organization will have among its aims the promotion of a spirit among historians on the campus. It will form an outlet for student opinion where they are not under the pressure of working for grades.

COLLEGE CONFERENCE MEETS IN PORTLAND, DECEMBER 12

Another change has been made in the meeting of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate conference. Because of several objections to the time set it has been found most convenient to hold the meeting Friday, December 12 at 9 o'clock in the Multnomah hotel, Portland. According to H. V. Carpenter, professor at Washington State college and secretary of the association, the conference will consider the clarification of the freshman transfer rule—and at least one case of eligibility.

Your hair will stay in place!

In college, in business—well-dressed men everywhere have learned this surprising fact about their hair.

Water wouldn't keep it in place, and was harmful besides. Old-fashioned pomades left the hair matted and greasy-looking.

But Stacomb, they have discovered, keeps the hair just as you want it all day long—smooth, lustrous. A delicate, invisible cream, non-staining and non-greasy. In jars and tubes—at your college drugstore. (Now also in liquid form).

Do You Advertise?

If you don't you are neglecting the most essential feature of modern business.

Advertising is the merchant's lighthouse by which he attracts and leads the buying public. Competition is so prominent that a business must tell what it carries, in what it excels, and in what it specializes, etc., in order to keep pace with other concerns.

Advertising, if properly placed, is sure to bring results.

The Emerald is the official campus daily. It reaches the students, faculty, and residents of the University district.

Its rates are reasonable, its service is good, and its results are appreciable.
