

THANKSGIVING DANCE WILL FOLLOW GAME

The annual Thanksgiving Inter-Collegiate Hop, an affair given for students of all northwest colleges in Portland for the holidays, will be the big social event of the week for Oregon students.

The committee for the dance includes a number of University of Oregon students, and the music will be furnished by Junior Seton's Pi-I-d Pipers, a campus orchestra which plays regularly for the grill dances at the Campa Shoppe.

The World of Nations; Britain and Sudan; Spain and French Loan

(Continued from page one) as diplomat and is no stranger to Egyptian affairs. He was Commander-in-Chief of the Egyptian expeditionary force in the Great War. He conquered Palestine, entered Jerusalem in triumph and was largely responsible for the elimination of Turkey in 1918.

Nor is the Egyptian premier, Zagloul Pasha, unfamiliar with Great Britain. He has been a lawyer, an ardent champion of the unconditional independence of his country, whose activities have caused him to be twice expelled by the British. He has spent some time in British captivity both at Malta and Gibraltar. He is reported to have profited from these periods of enforced leisure by perfecting himself in the English language.

Before rejecting the Sudanese affairs as too insignificant for our attention it may be well to recall that it is a territory about ten times as large as the state of Oregon, containing about five times as many people.

The two million copies of the revolutionary pamphlet which Vincenzo Ibanez had distributed in Spain, have left the monarch unshaken. The manifesto is reported to have been a "dud." Since, in 1910, 60 per cent of Spain's population of 20,000,000 were reported unable to read or write, it would seem that the old Russian Nihilist program of "propaganda by deed" might be more effective than propaganda by means of the printed word.

The fact that France is paying neither principal nor interest on her debt to the United States seems to have no effect on her credit with J. P. Morgan & Co. She has just completed with that firm negotiations for a loan of $100,000,000 for 25 years at 7 per cent. The proceeds are to be turned over to the Bank of France, to which institution the French government is indebted in a sum exceeding 20 billion francs. No appreciable effect is expected from the loan as it merely replaces a credit for the same amount which Morgan had extended to the Bank of France, as a sort of emergency measure last March when a panic lowered the franc to 28 per dollar. By means of the loan it has since been maintained at 15 to 20 per dollar.

"The play offers a new and funny twist to an old and serious theme. It is full of thrills and suspense, and yet there is a laugh every minute. It is a wholesome love story which brings laughter, smiles and tears. It is a comedy drama with a real 'punch,' and yet it is brimful of irresistible comedy.

Atmosphere is Human

"As the title implies, Mr. Vincent Lawrence, the author, has succeeded in bringing you constantly face to face with the unexpected in what seems to be a rather weird way at first, and yet the most serious moments suddenly become most humorous. There is a real human touch to the play, and that probably is one reason why it has been so popular.

"The leading role—that of 'The Doctor'—is one of the finest and noblest characters of the stage. You feel an irresistible impulse to step right over the footlights and tell him the real truth about the woman whom he believes to be in love with 'a memory.' The play is just that realistic and has just that strong personal appeal."

The characters for "The Ghost Between" were selected, and the company coached by Richard Carlyle, noted New York producer, who played an important role in "Seventh Heaven," the New York success which recently ran for more than a year.

Jeanne-Elizabeth Gay is manager of the play, and the business manager is Don Parks.
