

SOCIETY

Stark Evans and Dean Esterly acted as patrons and patronesses.

Quite gay and festive was the setting for the Chi Omega informal dance Friday at the chapter house. Innumerable balloons were used to make this effect, together with pierrot and pierrette caps over the lights. Punch and cakes were served for refreshments.

Mrs. Lelia Woodring, Mrs. R. J. Marsh and Mrs. J. B. Bridges were patronesses.

The twelve upperclassmen of Phi Delta Theta entertained at their house Friday from 6:30 to 12:00 with dancing. Dinner was served in the early part of the evening to the hosts and their guests who were seated around one large table. The rooms were effective though simple with a number of floor lamps for decoration.

Solos by Roy Bryson and a trio composed of George Stearns, Alan Smith and Ted Larson afforded entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foley were patron and patronesses.

BUEN RECEIVER LAST YEAR BY X-RAY STILL BOTHERS

Meryl Deming, graduate assistant in the department of chemistry, is seriously ill as a result of an X-ray burn received in the physics laboratory nearly a year ago.

Mr. Deming was seriously affected immediately after receiving the burn, according to Prof. O. F. Stafford, head of the chemistry department, but apparently had recovered by the time school opened in the fall, enabling him to resume his duties in the department. Some weeks ago the old wound became troublesome again, so that at the present time he is seriously ill.

BOOK OF STAMPS WAIT AT DEPOT FOR OWNER

Found in the lost and found department, a book of stamps.

Some time ago, a man bought a book of stamps from the University depot, stamped some letters from it, posted them, and walked out—leaving behind the rest of the stamps.

"They are perfectly good stamps," Mr. Carl Joy, mailing clerk, smiled, "and if the one who forgot them will return and tell how many letters he posted at that time he can have them."

THREE GIFTS TO LIBRARY AGGREGATE 71 VOLUMES

The recent gift of seventy-one books to the University of Oregon Library has been announced. Dr. G. W. Overmeyer of Chehalis, Washington, is the donor of nineteen volumes of history and travel, valued at $28. Fifty volumes of fiction, history, biography, and economics, valued at $63, are the gift of Mrs. James A. Miller, wife of Professor Miller, associate professor of law. W. K. Newell gave "The Picturesque World" in two volumes, valued at $20.

ECLIPSE IS TOTAL AT YALE ONLY PARTIAL AT HARVARD

Harvard.—Once more Yale gets the jump on Harvard, this time it is neither Professor Baker, nor football; but nature herself has taken a hand in favoring Eli by making the eclipse total at Yale and only partial at Harvard. Harvard, however, is making up for this by postponing the mid-year examinations so that students need not crane their necks to see the eclipse through the window of an examination room.

Are you strictly Up-to-Date?

Every day new inventions appear to save you time, money and effort. All the time new comforts, new conveniences and new pleasures are being thought out for your individual benefit.

Do you know about them? Are you up to the minute on this vital news?

The advertisements bring you information of all this progress. Read them and you will know about the very things that concern you most—things that have a very direct influence on your life and that of your family.

The advertisements tell you where to get these things, how to get them and how much to pay. For advertising is a daily directory to wise buying.

Don't rob yourself of the benefits that come from regular and systematic reading of the advertising columns. Advertising is altogether too important to be missed. Read it every day.
