

'IDEAL HUSBAND' TO BE TONIGHT

Play Second Presented by Campus Dramatic Group Since Opening of Term

COMEDY WORK OF WILDE

Darrell Larsen and Gerda Brown Take Leads; Three Performances Arranged

Darrell Larsen, as Lord Goring, and Gerda Brown, as Mrs. Cheveley, take the leading parts in the Oscar Wilde play, "The Ideal Husband" which opens tonight at Guild theatre for a run of three days. This is the second play produced during the winter term by the University dramatic company.

Florence Couch, who had the lead in "Yellow Candle Light," the last play given, assumes the role of Mabel Chiltern, a very sweet, modern young lady who falls in love with Lord Goring. Paul Krausse has the characterization of Lord Caversham, father to Lord Goring, who is most anxious to see his seemingly flighty son married to a steady, level-headed girl. Lady Markby, played by Beatrice Beeby, is a dowager to whom the author has seen fit to invest many of the cleverest lines of the play.

Jeanne Gay Has First Role
Jeanne Gay, a newcomer at Guild theatre, has as her first role, the part of Mrs. Marchmont who, with Lady Basilton, played by Margaret Booth, feels that she is forever misunderstood and unappreciated by her husband. Delbert Faust plays the part of the French diplomatist, Vicomte de Nanjac.

Sparkling Wit Merit
The greatest merit of "The Ideal Husband" lies in the sparkling wit and humor, for Oscar Wilde is, after all, among the very best of modern British humorists. The plot is, of course, subservient to the lines, but the comedy, while thoughtful, is not of the highly intellectual order. "The Ideal Husband" is the type of play by which Soutro, Milne, and Lonsdale have been influenced. The germ of the new sort of English comedy originating from Wilde.

OREGON NORMAL SCHOOL CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

PIANISTS DELIGHT AUDIENCE WITH HARMONY OF ENSEMBLE

(By Emily Houston)
A perfect ensemble and a delightful spontaneity marked the playing of the dual pianists, Guy Maier and Lee Pattison when they appeared last night in a program presented at the Woman's building. The tonal effects were excellent showing perfect control with little effort. The interpretation on the two pianos was so perfect in harmony and rhythm that neither instrument could be distinguished. "Danse Macabre" by Saint-Saens was perhaps the most enthusiastically received but others bringing rounds of applause were the "Scherzo," Op. 37 by Saint-Saens and the "Afternoon of a Faun" by Debussy. The Andante and Variations by Schumann showed the soft tonal effects with a delicate yet firm touch. Compositions of the artists themselves, the "Wedding Waltzes" from "The Veil of Pierette" by

Feathered Sage Heard From Tower Of Old Villard

Wisdom in its feathered form has found a haven at this institution. Surely no more appropriate setting than the venerable shelter of Oregon could be found for this messenger of discreet erudition. And the tale is this: A dark night, a knight of learning stumbling homeward in the misty fog of Oregon night. "Wh-o-o-o. Wh-o-o-o-o!" And the seeker of knowledge clutched his voluminous notebook, and uttered not an answering cry. "Wh-o-o-o. Wh-o-o-o-o." "What's that?" The shaky tones had lost their masculine confidence. "Wh-o-o-o" answered him again. And it came to pass that an owl has established headquarters in Villard hall.

TRIANGLE DEBATERS TO MEET THURSDAY

Idaho and Washington Send Competing Teams

Tomorrow night the University of Oregon debate teams will meet the University of Washington and the University of Idaho in a triangle debate. This event is the largest and most important one of the season for Oregon, states Oscar E. Brown, debate coach.

Sol Abramson and Lincoln Erwin, the negative group, left today for Seattle, to uphold their case against the Washington affirmative Thursday night. The affirmative team consisting of Benoit McCroskey and Ralph Bailey will meet the Idaho negative group in Villard hall at 8 o'clock.

The question for discussion is: Resolved: "That the constitution should be so amended to enable Congress to re-enact by a two-thirds vote, legislation overruled by the Supreme Court." The popularity of this subject is evidenced by the fact that it has been used many times this year by debating teams of various colleges throughout the country. It is also pertinent politics, even at the present time.

ACTIVITY AWARD DAYS WILL BE INAUGURATED

Roy Bryson and Ted Gillenwaters have been appointed by Randall Jones, president of the student body, to investigate the presenting of awards for student activities. Under their consideration will come the inauguration of award days for athletes and those participating in forensics to receive their awards, immediately upon the close of the respective seasons, so as not to be held over for a term or more, as has previously been the case.

Oregon Places Thirteenth
The first eight teams in the Ninth Corps match will represent the district at the national inter-collegiate rifle meet to be held some time in April. The local R. O. T. C. department, entered two teams in the Ninth Corps match in 1922-23 and both placed in the first eight so were allowed to enter the national match. Of the 38 college teams, Oregon, which entered only one of its two teams, placed thirteenth.

The year 1922-23 was one of the best for Oregon from the standpoint of the rifle team. Besides placing fifth, eighth, and thirteenth in the Ninth Corps area, and entering the national competition, Oregon fired against 23 schools in separate dual

College Side Inn Is Scene of Crawl Starting at 4 Today

All paths should lead to the College Side Inn this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Why? That's where the dime crawl is going to be. From 4 to 5:30 today every one on the campus can dance, if they wish, and if they're able, for ten cents a couple.

The men are expected to bring their own girls. Funds derived from the affair will be turned in to the Women's League foreign scholarship fund.

Chick Rosenberg, Cliff Zehring, Tom Mahoney, Carl Dahl, Steele Winterer, Paul Krausse, Bob Mautz, Bob Gardner, Al Westergren, Basil Burke, Bill Peek, Truman Sether, and Rodney Keating are the pep committee, and from all reports, they are going to make the dance a success.

LIFE OF LINCOLN TOPIC OF CLARK P. BISSETT

Collector and Author On Washington Faculty

To those who are acquainted with the campus celebrities at the University of Washington, the picturesque figure of Professor Clark P. Bissett is familiar. He maintains the old Southern tradition of broad hat, cane and gloves, and his charming, hospitable manner completes this picture of the Southern gentleman.

He has made a hobby of collecting books of Lincoln, and this collection is nearly complete with all that has ever been published about Lincoln. It is noted as the best of its kind west of the Mississippi.

Further proof of his enthusiasm for his subject is the volume, "A Life of Abraham Lincoln," of which Professor Bissett is the author. It is because of this enthusiasm for, and knowledge of, the life of Lincoln, that Professor Bissett has been chosen to address the assembly tomorrow on this subject. Former Washington students and members of the faculty who know Professor Bissett declare him capable of handling his audience as well as his subject.

The position that Clark Bissett holds on the faculty of the University of Washington is that of professor of law, which he has held for thirteen years. Previous to that, Professor Bissett maintained his own law practice. His knowledge of law and its application has distinguished him on various occasions. Besides his Lincoln hobby and law profession, Professor Bissett has been interested in Italian literature and culture. Recently, in recognition of meritorious services to the Italian people, he was decorated as a Chevallier of the Crown of Italy by the King.

JUNIOR VOD-VIL PLAY WRITTEN

One-act Musical Comedy Scheduled for May 8, 9; Title, Authors not Given

DATE SET FOR TRY-OUTS

Qualifications Are Listed for Those Desiring Part in Acts; Judges to Be Named

The one-act musical comedy which will be presented for Junior Vod-Vil, May 8 and 9, has been written, according to an announcement made Tuesday by Paul Krausse, Vod-Vil chairman. The title of the comedy and the names of the authors will be revealed at a later date.

The try-outs for the various acts will start February 16, and will be held in the College Side Inn. The announcement of the schedule will be made within a short time, and any one enrolled in the University who has some talent is asked to take part in the try-outs.

Good Looks Unnecessary
"Good looks aren't necessary, but good acting will count," Krausse said yesterday. "There are some excellent character parts in the musical comedy."

The exact nature of the try-outs have not been determined yet, but aspirants will probably be given a popular song to sing, or possibly only a few measures. Others will have to read, and the lines may be selected from the musical comedy. For those who are presenting acts, no costumes will be required. It is not necessary to have the parts learned, but must have the idea of the act well in mind.

Five Acts Submitted
Kate Pinneo, who is on the campus this term, will probably carry the heavy comedian role in the musical comedy. Miss Pinneo, whose ability as a comedian has been shown in various campus productions both last year and the previous year, was selected because of the success with which she has carried roles similar to the one in the musical comedy.

Up to the present time, about five acts have been submitted to Krausse, but others may be turned in any time before the try-outs. Two members of the junior class, possibly majors in dramatics, will be chosen to serve as judges in addition to Krausse, will be announced soon.

The game was featured by the close checking of the Washington States and the fast break of the Aggie offense.

Last night's game throws O. A. C. and Oregon into a tie for the leadership of the coast conference.

NEW EXHIBIT TO OPEN TODAY IN ART GALLERY

Etchings and Water-colors Shown in Portland

Lithographs, etchings and water-colors by Childe Hassam and Joseph Pennell will be exhibited today in the art gallery of the Fine Arts building. The collection of over a hundred pictures arrived after an extended stay in Portland, where they caused much comment in art circles, and where several of the etchings were sold to enthusiasts.

The two artists are widely known throughout the country and are ranked with our foremost painters. Childe Hassam is famous especially for his water-colors, but he contributed nothing but his etchings and lithographs to this collection. Joseph Pennell on the other hand is a splendid etcher, but only his water-colors are shown.

The etchings in the collection are interesting because they are shown first as original drawings for etchings and then as the finished product. A great many portraits of women and girls are included in these.

The water colors by Pennell are largely landscapes and marine views. Mr. Pennell made the sketches on his travels in Europe, South America and the United States, and some of the scenes may prove familiar to persons who have visited these places.

The exhibit will remain here for several weeks and will be followed by another one later.

SOUTHERN UNIVERSITIES URGED TO PATCH QUARREL

University of California, California, Stanford and the University of Southern California were urged to re-establish athletic relations in a resolution in the state senate last Friday. The resolution calls upon the three institutions to "patch up their quarrel and get together on an athletic program," and states that the break in relations has retarded athletic standards, as well as tending to sectional ill-feeling.

NEW ACHIEVEMENTS IN SCIENCE RECOUNTED BY DR. H. B. TORREY

Notable scientific achievements which were noticed by Dr. Harry Beal Torrey on his trip east are being recounted by the latter upon his return to Eugene. Dr. Torrey recently returned from a meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, held at Washington, D. C.

After leaving Washington, Dr. Torrey visited Wistar Institute, Philadelphia and inspected an exceptionally fine rat colony which is maintained for experimental purposes.

When in New York City, Dr. Torrey saw Dr. Alexis Carrel of the Rockefeller Institute. Dr. Carrel with Dr. Ebeling and others is conducting a notable series of researches to determine the characteristics of cells and tissues which are cultivated on slides. Tissues, isolated from the chick embryo more than ten years ago, are still growing rapidly. As the tissue grows, part of it is transplanted. The original tissue is still growing.

MAT MEN MEET O.A.C. SATURDAY

Welterweight Berth Open On Oregon Squad; Davis, 135 Pounder, May Fill

VARSITY OUT FOR TITLE

Aggies' Team Built Around Last Year's Lettermen, Nixon, Russell, Selfridge

The actual strength of the Oregon wrestling team will be determined when they meet the strong O. A. C. aggregation next Saturday afternoon in the men's gymnasium. Although the varsity scored a win over the Idaho grapplers, Coach Widmer does not know how his men will rate against an experienced squad.

Robin Reed, Aggie mentor, has three letter men around whom he is building his team. Russell, 125 pounds, Captain Nixon, 135 pounds, and Selfridge in the 145 division are all experienced men. Selfridge holds the Pacific-Northwest title at 145 pounds.

Ford to Battle Russell
In the Vandal meet the varsity wrestlers showed considerable improvement over last year. Ford in the 125 class is a letterman and will "lock horns" with Russell, of O. A. C., who defeated the local man last year. Russell is depending on the wristlock while Ford's hold is the figure-four scissor.

Coach Widmer is undecided as to who will uphold the lemon-yellow colors in the 135 pound class. Against Idaho, Wingard performed well but is not as experienced as Davis who entered in the 145 pound class. An experienced man in the welterweight berth is needed and Peterson or Davis may wrestle at this weight. Davis is a 135 pounder but managed to win from Ross of Idaho in the 145 pound weight.

In meeting Nixon, in the 135 pound class, and Selfridge at 145, the Oregon mentor realizes that he will have to enter the best men he has in these two weights.

Title Chances Good
Harry Leavitt has been training hard for the Aggie meet and will be in good shape by Saturday. Although defeated in the Vandal contest he put up a game fight and displayed considerable speed. The O. A. C. opponent has not been named in the 158 pound weight. Cartwright, Oregon 175 pounder, in the first meet showed that he will be able to hold up the light heavy-weight burden.

If Coach Widmer's grapplers are able to cop the big end of the score from the Aggies it will mean that the varsity has an excellent chance to win the conference title. O. A. C. has been undefeated for the past four years and are out to repeat. The officials for the meet have not been selected.
