DR. MIRIAM VAN WATERS TELLS OF JUVENILE COURT'S PURPOSE

Few people really understand the function of a juvenile court. The idea is apt to prevail that it is a replica of the ordinary police court constructed on a smaller scale, or that it is an institution which in some mysterious manner converts wayward boys and girls into model children.

Dr. Miriam Van Waters, referee of the juvenile court in Los Angeles and a nationally recognized authority on juvenile delinquency, brushed aside both popular conceptions in the course of an interview yesterday, in which she characterized the court as aiming at a "better understanding of human nature." The institution, she averred, is not a court whose sole function is to mete out punishment to wrong-

Planetary Bodies Used in Decoration For Frosh Glee

"The Garden of the Moon," was the idea carried out by the class of '28 at their Frosh Glee last Saturday night in the Woman's building, although the effect was not distinctly brought out.

The orchestra was located on the left side of the floor, and the stage at the end of the hall was devoted to huge, grotesque figures of creatures probably inhabiting the lunar regions. On either side of the stage were brightly lighted moons, one green, evidently carrying out the cheese myth, and the other white with the silhouette of two young people in amorous embrace, depicting a honeymoon scene.

The walls were hung with blue curtains and from the ceiling hung stars, moons and other planetary bodies.

The punch was delicious and the programs, drawn by Hal Westphal, were hand-painted and showed considerable work. A large crowd attended the dance.

RABBI JONAH B. WISE TO ADDRESS ASSEMBLY

Interesting Talk Promised Campus Audience

Jonah B. Wise, rabbi of the Jewish synagogue, Temple of Beth Israel, in Portland, will speak at assembly on Thursday, the last meeting of this term. He is well known throughout the state as a public speaker, and he is especially prominent in Portland as a leader in social welfare movements. He is also a member of the board of higher curricula of the state of Oregon.

Rabbi Wise is a graduate of the Hebrew Union college of Cincinnati, which was established by his father. He has attended the University of Berlin. He is national president of B'nai B'rith, and editor of a Jewish paper "The Scribe," published in Portland.

The Rabbi is reputed to be a great lover of books, and has a wonderful collection of them. Among the very old Hebrew manuscripts which he possesses are some which have been handed down in his family for many years. Others he has picked up at odd, out-of-the-way places.

Almost every year Rabbi Wise appears before the student assembly and his keen wit and charming personality have made him one of the most popular of the speakers who are regular visitors on the campus.

PROPOSED PAVILLION MAY PAY FOR ITSELF

The proposed basketball pavillion to be located on the campus will cost $20,000 it is estimated. By utilizing the earnings, the committee plan to make the building pay for itself.

Funds for the erection of the structure, however, must be raised by the student body, and the committee is considering methods by which this may be accomplished. According to tentative plans, the proposed building will provide three practice floors extending across the room and one floor extended lengthwise. Movable beachers will take care of the crowds in important contests when the single court is to be used. The building will be of wooden construction strongly reinforced with steel girders and designed to meet the needs of the University for the next 15 or 20 years.

The committee will meet tomorrow to continue the work on plans for the proposed building. Members are: Edwin C. Taper, chairman; Mary Skinner, Victor R. Risley, Kenneth R. Stephenson, L. H. Johnson, Karl Onthank and Virgil Earl.

AGGIES TAKE TITLE BY ONE-POINT LEAD

David Again Slays Goliath; Hoop Game Is Scene of Fray

Goliath — enormous, gusty throated Goliath—sat back after shaking the heavens with an enormous "Hail Beavers."

David answered with a defiant "Oskie" from the galleries. The giant roared forth in spontaneous glee when getting the best of the fray; groaned mournful murmurs of consternation and dismay as he received an unguarded blow, or muttered dire epithets of remonstrance when the judge of battle ruled against him.

The signal to cease combat sounded. David shouted in victorious glee.

Goliath lay prone, speechless. Thus was the picture presented at Corvallis Saturday night as Yell King Martin's small band of faithful Oregonians, stubbornly withstood the mighty onslaught of Aggie vociferations.

GUILD HALL PLAYERS TO GIVE 'RAGGEDY MAN'

Miss Banfield to Appear in Last Campus Role

A glimpse into the life of the country domestic of old India will be revealed in the Guild hall play, "The Raggedy Man," which is making its second appearance on the campus starting Wednesday night and running for four evening performances with a Saturday matinee. The play, a combination of comical situations in the life of the country folk of Indiana years ago, is based entirely on the various poems of Riley's noteworthy collection. Such characters as "Old Aunt Mary," "Raggedy Man," "Orphan Annie," and others enrich the cast with their recognizable personalities and their popular characterizations of Riley's poem people.

The cast of characters utilizes every member of the dramatic company, including Miss Charlotte Banfield, who is making her farewell appearance in this production. Miss Banfield leaves the campus at the end of this term to be married and the play is being produced to honor her in the part of "Grandmother Squeers" which she made so popular two years ago.

Miss Kate Pinneo, recognized as Guild theatre's leading comedienne during the past three years, has returned to the campus and will again portray the part of the gossipy post-mistress of Griggsby station, who of course never reads the post-card. Other campus dramatic stars are cast in amusing roles.

The seat sale for "The Raggedy Man" starts today. Tickets are being sold at 75 cents for reserved section and 50 cents for open section. Doors open at 8 o'clock, and the curtain goes up at 8:30.

A number of members from O. A. C. are expected to be present at the meeting which will be presided over by Dr. O. F. Stafford, of the University chemistry department. The meeting place, to be definitely announced later, will be in the Woman's building or in Deady hall.

Varsity Defeated, 27-26, In Hardest Hoop Battle of Year

Half Ends in 13 to 13 Tie; Stubborn Fight Put Up By Both Quintets; Gowans High Scorer With 10 Points

By George H. Godfrey

Salem, Ore., March 9.—A lone figure, tired almost to exhaustion after 40 minutes of gruelling battle stood up to shoot a foul tonight, with the score lacking one point of being tied, and missed. The miss was not the result of an erratic shot brought about by nervousness, but merely a trick of fate which caused the ball to bounce a fraction of an inch the wrong way. Thus the final Oregon-O. A. C. game ended tonight with the Aggies victors by a 27 to 26 score.

It was by far the hardest fought contest ever engaged in by either an Oregon or an O. A. C. team. The playing of both teams was nearly on a par, with Oregon having a shade better most of the time.

The first half, almost as fiercely fought as the second, ended in a tie, 13 to 13.

Oregon led most of the second period, but the Aggies crept ahead near the end, two converted technical fouls on Oregon giving them the lead. Just as the gun ended the play, Baker fouled Westergren, who narrowly missed. Gowans was high point man of the game with 10, four of them from two brilliant long field baskets. Ridings, O. A. C., was held to three field goals and two fouls. The lineup and summary:

Oregon	O. A. C.
Hobson.....	F.....
Gowans.....	F.....
Okerberg.....	O.....
Westergren.....	G.....
Jost.....	G.....

Oregon scoring: Field goals, Hobson 1, Gowans 5, Westergren 2, Okerberg 3, Jost 1.

O. A. C.: Ridings 3, Baker 2, Brown 2, Steele 2, Stoddard 1.

Free throws: Oregon, Okerberg 1, Westergren 1. O. A. C. Ridings 2, Baker 2, Diwoy 1, Steele 2.

Referee: Nig Borleske. Umpire: Sam Mulligan.

GAME PLAY BY PLAY

Both teams took the floor at 7:15. The gym is packed, with hundreds outside unable to get in. So vociferous is the crowd that every time a basket is shot in practice the gang goes wild.

The lineups for the start of the game—Oregon: Hobson, Gowans, forwards; Okerberg, center; Westergren and Jost, guards. O. A. C.: Baker, Ridings, forwards; Brown, center; Steele and Stoddard, guards.
