

CAMPUS VISITED BY MANY ALUMNI

Former Students Arrive From Various States

WALTER COFOID IS GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. F. Beller Stop Enroute to Seattle

Eugene has been a Mecca during the past two weeks for alumni who have returned from various states for short visits. Mildred Burke Fletcher, ex-'25, left last Wednesday for her new home in San Diego after two week's visit with her sister Noreen, a freshman on the campus. Mrs. Fletcher is a Chi Omega and visited the chapter house while here.

Mr. and Mrs. "Ned" Fowler were here last week-end. Mr. Fowler, '20, has just graduated from Harvard Medical school and will make his home in Astoria. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi. Mrs. Fowler (Marguerite Gross), '17, is a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

Betty Smith, ex-'25, came down from Portland to the Alpha Phi house last Saturday. She is working at the Federal Reserve bank, but expects to come back next fall for her senior year.

Walter Cofoid, ex-'22, and "Shad" Martin, '21, visited the Beta Theta Pi house over the week-end.

Zelma Arrasmith, ex-'25, who has been teaching in Los Angeles, arrived in Eugene last Saturday and expects to remain here for a week. She is affiliated with Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Beller visited here on their way from Portland to Seattle where they expect to live permanently. Mr. Beller, ex-'22, is a former baseball and basketball star. He belongs to Kappa Sigma and Mrs. Beller (Lillian Manerud), ex-'24, is a member of Chi Omega.

Josephine Baumgartner, '22, who has been employed at the State House in Salem stayed in Eugene Saturday night on her way to Roseburg. She visited the Tri Delt house of which she is a member.

Francis Linklater, '24, spent the week-end in Eugene at the Phi Kappa Psi house.

Ex-'25's Campus Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Melville Jones, both ex-'25, arrived in Eugene Saturday from Oklahoma and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benefiel for two weeks. Mrs. Jones (Esther Booth) is a Chi Omega and Mr. Jones belongs to Delta Tau Delta.

SEVEN LAST WORDS GOOD FRIDAY FEATURE

On Good Friday evening, April 10, will be heard Theodore Dubois' "Seven Last Words of Christ," a sacred cantata, which will be given by the University choir, directed by John Stark Evans. It is a yearly tradition on the campus to give the "Seven Last Words of Christ" on Good Friday, as at Christmas time the "St. Cecilia Mass" is given.

There will be no dances that evening or campus activities of any kind due to the observance of Good Friday. The cantata will be given in the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church starting at 7:30 p. m., and will be concluded by 8:30.

Soloists will be Madame Rose McGrew, soprano; Richard Adam, tenor, and Aubrey Furry, baritone. The theme of the cantata centers around the crucifixion and the seven last words of Christ which were: "Father forgive them; for they know not what they do; Verily thou shalt be in Paradise with Me today; Here behold, Oh Woman, thy son beloved; God My Father why hast Thou forsaken Me; I am athirst; Father in Thy hands I commend My soul; It is finished."

Woven around the theme are beautiful duets, solos and chorus work. Rev. H. W. Davis will preside at the service.

GERMAN CLUB MEETING TO BE HELD THIS EVENING

The first meeting of Weimar-Bund for the spring term is to be held tonight, room 101. Oregon building, beginning at 7:15. Dr. F. G. G. Schmidt, of the German department, will give a paper on Weimar, the city after which the club was named. The paper will give a description of the town, together with historical anecdotes relating to it. The business meeting will be short, so that the program will be over at 7:45 o'clock.

MORTAR BOARD TO GIVE JITNEY DANCE APRIL 11

Mortar Board will give a jitney dance at the Campa Shoppe next Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:00. The purpose of this dance is to raise funds for the entertainment of delegates to the Women's League convention who are members of Mortar Board and to defray the expenses of the entertainment of Miss Florence Jackson, vocational guidance expert who is coming to the campus the first of next week.

GREEK SCULPTURE TOPIC OF INSTRUCTOR IN LATIN

J. E. Ainsworth Johnstone, instructor in Latin, will give an address, "An Account of the Development of Greek Sculpture," before the members of Collegium Augustale tonight. The lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides. The meeting is to be held at the Y. W. bungalow, and will begin at 7:30. Roman archaeology, also illustrated by lantern slides, will be presented at the next meeting of the club. Professor Frederic S. Dunn will speak.

DAVID STARR JORDAN ILL, UNABLE TO COME

Stanford Scientist Sends Note of Deep Regret

Slow recovery from influenza and fatigue will prevent the appearance of David Starr Jordan, April 28. Dr. Jordan, after a trip to Arizona, was attacked by the influenza, and under the advice of physicians has notified the committee on lectures that he will not be able to appear before the student body.

Dr. Jordan in his letter to Dr. Warren D. Smith of the geology department expressed deep regret that he could not appear. He had wished, he says, to renew acquaintance with some of his former students and Stanford alumni.

Dr. Jordan was to speak on Peace, a subject for which he is well qualified since he was the winner of the $25,000 Herman Peace prize. This subject was suggested by the committee. It is possible that Dr. Jordan would have discussed the question of evolution during his visit. His interest in this phase of science is intense, and he has done much in dispelling false notions concerning evolution. At present he is sponsor for a new league of science which is attempting to explain what evolution really is.

Dr. Jordan was the first president of Stanford university. He is chancellor-emeritus of Stanford at present. As an authority on fishes, both ancient and modern, this scientist is recognized all over the world. Since his retirement from the university he has been active in lecturing and in public work. He keeps up his scientific research, despite his 74 years.

His autobiography, "The Days of a Man," is in reality a history of education of the United States, with particular reference to the education of the Pacific slope.

Dr. Jordan hopes to appear on the Oregon campus next year.

COSMOPOLITANS STAGE PAGEANT OF NATIONS

Grave Princes and Laughing Lassies Make Merry

Varied and in all ways opposite from one another, were the scenes put on by the students from foreign lands, at the Cosmopolitan club pageant held Saturday afternoon and evening at Guild hall. From the calm reserve of the courtiers of the Chinese prince to the laughing friendliness of the Scotch lassie, who danced the highland fling, pictures of the countries from which Oregon's foreign students have come were presented before the students and townspeople.

Lily Hing, University student, gave a Chinese dance. A conventional Chinese sword play, accompanied by Chinese music, was performed. The back drop for the scene was painted by Chinese art students. The costumes were brought from Portland.

Among the musical selections given was "Au Clair de la Lune," from the opera by the same name. A Pierrotte and Pierrot dance added to the daintiness of the song. This was the representation given France. Rose and Helga McGrew, in a German folk song, gave several duets in German.

The romantic part of the program was presented by the Philippine and Hawaiian students. Several Hawaiian guitar solos were given. Especially striking was the lighting effect for the moonlight scene of a serenade in the Philippine islands. In the Philippines, it is the custom to have several instruments in one serenade. After the serenade, the leader of the little group danced the "Dance of Night in the Philippines," with the lady to whom the love songs were addressed.

The art of using chop sticks was demonstrated in a scene in a Japanese household. Sumie Yamamoto, of McMinnville, gave a reading of Madame Butterfly, the dramatic part of the program. An explanation of some of the tricks of jiu-jitsu wrestling was made.

A Swiss herdsman song, sung by the shepherds when the flocks return to the mountain pastures, represented Switzerland.

Several dances, some group and some solo, were given. The Russian dance, presented by Janet Wood, was especially colorful. "Morris Dance," an English country dance, "Sevillona," a dance of old Spain, and a Greek dance were put on by students of the physical education department. Ireland was represented by a jig.

Chants, unaccompanied, as is the custom in their native countries, were given to represent Korea and India. Virchand Rayner showed the audience several Hindu magic illusions. The finale brought together people of all the nations, showing the brotherhood that exists between all peoples, "world brotherhood."

Frolic Plans are Listed by Committee; Houses Must Report Cost of Acts Soon

Ice cream bars will also be sold at that time. Prizes of $5.00 and $2.50 will be awarded to the two girls having the most original costumes. A new cup, donated by the Laraway Jewelry store of Eugene, will be given for the best house stunt. These acts will be judged on their originality, artistry, and presentation.

The affair is sponsored by the Women's League. Proceeds will go towards the foreign scholarship fund, which is maintained each year by the League.

Bill Will Take 16 Men on Southern Trip; Fast Time In Tryouts Pleases Coach

real track weather. There seems no possibility of an Oregon victory, but the men promise to show up well in some of the events and a few firsts are pretty sure to be won. The Cardinal squad is the strongest team seen in the south for some time. They have already gone through two regular season meets and have reached their finest mid season form. Bill's squad, laboring under the handicap of bad weather, is far from being in proper condition. The southern contest is going to help a lot in preparing them.

The squad leaves Wednesday, and after returning from the meet two weeks is given them to prepare for the Seattle relays, and then they will be hitting their proper stride. Bill Hayward is pointing his team for the other meets of the season.

What They Did At Tryout

Results of Saturday's tryouts: 100-yard dash—Holt, Westerman, Stonebreaker, Snyder; 10.1. Mile—Holder, Swank, Humphreys, and Garner; 4:41. High hurdles (only 9 hurdles up)—Kelsey, Caruthers, Cleaver, and Tuck. Time, 15:1. 440—Kinney, Wilbur, Price and Hermance; 51:1. 880—Mauney, Gerke, Jeffries, Stephenson; 2:04. Two Mile—Keating, Tetz, and Barnes; 10:16. Javelin—Rosenburg, Beatty, Dills, Tuck. Distance, 171 feet, 11 inches.

Shot put—Johnston, Stockwell, Beatty, and Dashney. Distance, 35 feet, 11 inches. Discus—Johnston, Eby, Stockwell, Moore. Distance, 123 feet, 4 inches.

On account of the cold weather, the high jump, broad jump, low hurdles, pole vault and 220-yard dash were left off the program.

The times were good for the condition of the track, which was exceptionally slow. The men showed up much better than they did at this time last year.
