

GLEE CONCERT HERE APRIL 16

Music Committee Sponsors
Home Appearance

SOLOISTS WILL FEATURE

Program to Be Directed By John Stark Evans

The home concert of the combined glee clubs, directed by John Stark Evans, will be an event of Thursday evening, April 16, in the Woman's building and will be a special feature of the Women's League convention. This concert will also mark the fourth number of the series of concerts sponsored by the University music committee. The combining of the men's and women's glee clubs into one organization is an entirely new and distinct feature of this year's concert.

High Class Program
A well-balanced program consisting only of high class compositions will be presented. One of the most outstanding things to be heard is "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" by Coleridge Taylor, which is a musical setting of Longfellow's famous poem. The work in this selection aims at difficult part singing which is said by "listeners in" at rehearsals to be exceptionally beautiful and melodious. Frank Jue, Chinese tenor, surpasses all previous triumphs by his solo work in this number. Other popular and well-known soloists to be heard are Ruth Akers, soprano and Roy Bryson, tenor.

Each club will appear separately in a group of numbers which will no doubt display their unusual choral technique. Intensive practice has been going on all year and the program has been arranged so as to sustain the unflagging interest of the audience.

Clubs are Named
The personnel of the two glee clubs is as follows: sopranos, Ruth Akers, Elizabeth Nelson, Margaret Hyatt, Nova Service, Barbara Edmonds, Augusta Hamilton, Clare Whitton; second sopranos, Mildred Berkeley, Marie Temple, Ruth Haynie, Mildred Welch, Pauline Knowland, Esther Setters; first altos, Violet Mills, Margaret McAyael, Charlotte Winnard, Harriett Ross, Elizabeth Kerr, Marion Phyl; second altos, Claudia Broders, Mary West, Irella Fly, Henrietta Wolfer, Alberta Carson and Bessie Andrews.

HAZEL BORDERS RECEIVES PRIZE FOR BEST PROGRAM

To Hazel Borders, senior in the school of normal arts, was awarded the prize for the best program to be used at the Woman's League dance Friday evening. The prize given by the Women's League was $5. Miss Borders' program is a decorative sketch of a tree and birds, carrying out the scheme of decorations for the dance. Miss Borders is in charge of the decoration for the evening.

E. D. PRICE TO TEACH AT SUMMER SESSION

Expert Will Give Courses
On School Systems

"Superintendent E. D. Price, head of the Enid, Oklahoma schools and one of the outstanding and progressive leaders in the administration and supervision of the smaller city school system in the United States, will give two courses in school administration at the 1925 campus session of the University from June 22 to July 31," reads a statement in a recent issue of the extension division bulletin.

Superintendent Price is an expert in the field of mental and educational measurements. His tests in oral reading and in arithmetic are widely used. He has worked out a system, which incorporates in educational practice, features of educational guidance, progressive education, and scientific diagnosis of the results of teaching.

One of his two courses will deal with the practical administrative uses of mental measurements and achievements; and the other with problems of organization and supervision of town and small city school systems. He will direct the work of graduate students interested in special study in these fields.

PROM TO BE DISCUSSED AT MEETING THURSDAY

Plans for the Junior Prom will be discussed at a meeting of all the members of all prom committees which will be held this afternoon, Thursday, in Condon hall at 5 o'clock.

Because business of much importance will be transacted at that time, it is imperative that all committee members attend. Several appointments to fill vacancies on prom committees which Graham, decorations; and Jane Bore were made recently are: Tom din; programs.
