League To Meet At 5 O'clock Tuesday In Villard Hall

There will be a mass meeting of the Women's League, Tuesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in Villard hall, at which Miss Florence Jackson will be the chief speaker.

Miss Jackson is an expert on vocational guidance, and has been brought to the campus for a few days by Mortar Board. All the girls are urged by Dean Esterly to attend this and her other talks if possible, to make the most of her visit.

Tuesday, from 10 to 1:30, a special election will be held in front of the library, to vote off the tie between Louise Inabnit and Dorothy Myers for vice-president of the Women's League.

VARSITY SWIMMERS WILL MEET BEAVERS

Oregon Men End Training In Good Condition

The final splash of the year will be staged in Corvallis this afternoon when the varsity swimmers tangle with the Beavers. This promises to be one of the closest meets of the year as both teams have an all-state record holder on board. Bob Boggs for Oregon, holder of the 220 yard dash state record and Peterson, for O. A. C. holder of the 50 yard dash title will vie for high point honors.

Immediately following the lunch hour this afternoon the watermen will enter a special bus and expect to alight at the Aggie gymnasium in time for the meet at 3 o'clock.

In the last meet between these two teams the Ags won by the small margin of four points. With the addition of Boggs in the dash and relay the varsity will try and reverse the last decision. "It can be done and the men are all hopped up over it," says Coach Fah. The men have been working out nightly and are in the best shape of this season he further stated.

This meet holds all indications of clipping a few tenths of a second if not more off two of the intercollegiate state records, as both of the present holders are primed for the occasion. If the records are not beaten they will be severely scorched, stated the coach. Julian Smith the latest addition to the assemblage of swimmers, will enter his first intercollegiate swim and is expected to make a creditable showing. He has been going good in practice.

Coach Fah and nine men will make the trip this afternoon, leaving here at 1 o'clock. The nine men making the trip and their events are: Captain Robert McCabe, 50-yard dash; Ben Lombard, 50-yard dash; Robert Boggs, century dash; Art Erickson, century back stroke; Lamont Stone, century dash; Bob Gardner, century back stroke; Al Sinclair, century breast stroke; Hymen Samuels, plunge for distance; Boggs and Julian Smith, 220-yard dash; McCabe and Stone, diving; Lombard, McCabe, Stone and Boggs will constitute the relay.

GRIDSTERS MEET IN MIGHTY FIGHT

Brawn and Energy Run Riot; Johnsonians Defeat Dixons By 6 to 0 Score

MORTALITY LIST HIGH

Goal Posts Nearly Crack Under Impact; Coach Highly Pleased With Team

By the Gridd Kidd

Two mighty grid teams, two masses of bursting muscles, toughened sinews and barely suppressed energy—met on Hayward field yesterday, and by the grace of Robert Vanderwaters Mautz, referee, the Johnsonians emerged victors after forty minutes of hectic fight by the sepe of six to nothing.

It was a battle that took every ounce of wind that the men and Referee Mautz had—but after it was all over, after the smoke and sawdust had cleared, the gallant official mustered one last loud shout, "You have great teams, boys, and a greater referee! Long Live our Alma Mater!" With these words R. V. Mautz, '23, passed off the field, and incidentally, out of this story.

Johnson, Dixon Captains

The two teams lined up under the captains Carl Johnson and Dixon, centers of the opposing elevens. Several of the original line-ups were in the game at the end of the first quarter, but by the time the final whistle blew, Head Linesman Oberteuffer was the only man who had lasted through the entire clash.

The high mortality was not due to lack of playing ability, however, but because Coach Smith desired to give every man out a chance to participate in the struggle.

The game was a see-saw, with neither team having the advantage, until just before the final whistle, when Johnson's crew, by a series of rushes, carried the ball up and across for a touchdown. A try for goal nearly resulted in one of the uprights being displaced, so near did the sphere come to going over.

Next Game Wednesday

A similar contest will be staged next Wednesday between two teams, and a final clash will take place Friday. Friday evening the football men, all who have been out the entire spring season, will banquet as a fitting ending to the playing period.

Coach Smith is highly pleased with the showing the men have made so far, but he refuses to pick any favorites as yet. Every man is given an equal chance to play, and this policy will continue next fall until the official squads are picked.

The starting line-ups yesterday were as follows:

Dixons—Dixon (Capt.), e; Del Monte, re; Warren, rt; Belshaw, rg; Kildwell, lg; Kjelland, rt; Flangas, le; Stoddard, q; Hodgen, f; Cushman, rh; Wilkenson, lh.

Johnson—Johnson (Capt.), e; Reynolds, re; Kelly, rt; Haggerty, rg; Wilcox, lg; Coochingham, rt; Reynolds, le; Anderson, q; Gooding, f; Langworthy, rh; Leavitt, lh.

Officials: Robert Van Mautz, referee; Virgil Earl, scorekeeper; J. W. Benefiel, custodian of the football.

BENOIT McCROSKEY WINS STATE MEET

Patrolman Macy Takes Stray Goats On Tour of Campus

Who got officer Macy's goat?—Nobody! That would have been a very difficult feat to perform this morning, for that officer had a whole flock of goats, about 15 in fact.

Patrolman Macy found the goats wandering aimlessly about the University campus, and having a few leisure moments and an inclination for good, he got the band of visitors together and personally conducted them about the grounds.

The main points of interest for the visitors were Friendly hall, the shack and the art building. They became so interested in the doings of the journalists that their guide's pre-arranged schedule was quite broken up. The strangers seemed to feel right at home there, and they were very appreciative of the warm welcome which they received.

Mr. Richard Godfrey, Harold Hunnicutt and Mr. J. B. Shaw, all of the school of journalism, assisted the officer on showing the guests around. After the tour the happy visitors were escorted to their quarters, a beautiful little home by the millrace.

VOCATIONAL EXPERT TO BE HERE MONDAY

Women to Hold Conferences With Miss Jackson

An exceptional opportunity will be given to the women of Oregon April 13 and 14, when Miss Florence Jackson, an expert on vocational guidance, will be on the campus for the purpose of giving talks and holding personal conferences.

"The last time a vocational expert was on the Oregon campus was in 1917," said Dean Esterly. "I want to urge the girls to take advantage of this visit, and especially of the personal conferences. Those wishing to talk with Miss Jackson confidentially must sign up at my office."

Having been a vocational instructor at Wellesly and also the director of the Women's Educational and Industrial Union of Massachusetts, Miss Jackson is considered one of the cleverest experts in the country on vocational guidance. She is coming under the auspices of Mortar Board, and that organization will direct her entertainment during her brief sojourn here.

The program which has been arranged for Miss Jackson begins with a talk before a mass meeting of all campus women at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at Villard hall. One-half of the senior women on the campus will listen to a talk by Miss Jackson at Hendricks hall Monday evening, Tuesday evening the other half of the senior women will have an opportunity to hear her at Susan Campbell hall. All day Tuesday private half-hour conferences will be held at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow. Mortar Board will entertain Miss Jackson at a luncheon at the Anchorage Tuesday noon.

Mrs. Sam B. Warner, who knows Miss Jackson personally, will entertain her during her stay in Eugene. Miss Lucy O'Meara, who is accompanying Miss Jackson as secretary, will stay at one of the halls.

MORTAR BOARD TO GIVE JITNEY DANCE TODAY

A jitney dance, sponsored by Mortar Board, honorary senior women's society, will be held at the Campa Shoppe this afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 5. The Pi-Id Pipers orchestra will furnish music for the dancers at the dance.

HOUSE BASEBALL SCHEDULE IS OUT

First Game of Tournament Is Set for Wednesday Afternoon, 4 O'clock

GAMES TO BE SHORTENED

Doughnut baseball takes the lead for intramural activity with the first game of the tournament slated for next Wednesday. According to Virgil Earl, athletic director, this first contest will open what promises to be a fast season. Games will be played Thursday and Saturday also, and the first round will be completed by the first of the following week. At that time a new schedule will be drawn up for the semi-finals.

For the benefit of organizations in doubt as to the rules of the tournament, the meeting were accepted at the meeting held last Monday. They are: All games were willing to play their games at any time that could be arranged by the department of athletics. Evening games were much preferred to early morning games.

Games to Be Short

All games up to the semi-final round are to be five innings in duration but the semi-finals and final are to be seven innings each. There will be a placard placed in the office of the department of athletics upon which the various teams may list their claims to practice periods, each team respecting the other's pre-arranged hour.

Each organization agreed to furnish two baseballs and all equipment with the exception of scorebook, catcher's mitt and pad, and bats if possible. All games will be arranged from the office of the department of athletics and officials for the games will be chosen by the department. The umpire will hold full power of the contests and will call the game over after the time period of one and a half hours have terminated providing the five inning period is unfinished. This rule was made so that the game following can start on time. Failure of a team to show up at the scheduled time will result in a forfeiture to opponents. This rule is understood to be void in case of a tie game or in case of a seven inning semi-final or final contest.

Game Schedule Listed

Following is the schedule as drawn up by the department of athletics:

Wednesday—Psi Kappa vs. Kappa Sigma, 4 p. m. Friendly hall vs. Beta Theta Pi, 5:30.

Thursday—Sigma Pi Tau vs. Phi Delta Theta, 4 p. m. Sigma Nu vs. Phi Kappa Psi, 5:30.

Saturday—Theta Chi vs. Kappa Delta Phi, 9 a. m. Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Phi Gamma Delta, 10:30. Delta Tau Delta vs. Alpha Tau Omega, 2 p. m. Bachelordon vs. Oregon Club, 3 p. m.

Oratorical Contest First Prize Goes To Freshman

Forest Grove, Oregon, April 10. —(Special to the Emerald)—Benoit McCroskey, a freshman from the University of Oregon, tonight was awarded the first prize in the State Peace Oratorical contest held here this evening. McCroskey, whose oration was entitled "The Last Milestone," was unanimously acclaimed the winner of the $75 award. Second prize of $50 went to Joseph M. Applegate, of the Eugene Bible university, while third place was awarded to the speaker from Linfield college.

The winning manuscript will be sent to the national headquarters of the Intercollegiate Peace association, for competition for the national prizes.

Speech Is Brilliant

McCroskey presented a clear, concise picture of the developments toward world peace, and the "last milestone" was declared to be a form of international league, with a court to enforce its legislation. The speech was brilliantly delivered, and the young man had an unusually excellent stage appearance. The decision carries with it the right to claim the championship of the state in oratory, since nine leading institutions were represented.

Institutions which were represented are: Oregon Agricultural college, Eugene Bible university, Willamette university of Salem, Pacific college of Newberg, Linfield college of McMinnville, Albany college, Oregon State Normal school of Monmouth, Pacific university of Forest Grove, and University of Oregon.

Winner is Active

The winner of the contest has been unusually active in forensics. He debated on the varsity teams which met the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Idaho, and last year he won the state high school championship in oratory.

The contest tonight was marked by a number of brilliant addresses which showed careful analysis of the subject.

DR. H. TORREY WRITES ARTICLE FOR JOURNAL

A current number of the "Journal of General Physiology," contains a paper from the department of experimental biology on the depressant effect of thyroxin on the division rate of paramoecium.

Thyroxin is a crystalline body which is extracted from the thyroid gland, and is its chief hormone. The purpose of the investigation made by the department was to determine the effect of this hormone on the individual cells of living bodies. Paramoecium is a one-celled organism, which is convenient to use for this purpose.

Dr. Harry B. Torrey, in collaboration with two members of the department, prepared the article.

SPORTS WRITERS PROVE WISER IN LEGAL TERMS THAN LAWYERS

By G. Haich Ghee

Wanted—someone to teach the law students of the University something about Law!

The allegation that the sports writers are guilty of a serious violation of the laws of contract (more commonly spoken of as "the law of contracts") is entirely false and misleading, and the statement as such is grounds for a libel suit. In the first place, no contract was entered into, hence the alleged violation is impossible.

The law students boldly, without basis of any kind, announced to the campus that a team formed, presumably, in the law school, was the championship baseball team of the University. Now to any one familiar with sporting ethics, the right of challenge lies entirely with the party other than the champion. The law students merely stated

ALBERTA POTTER WILL TEACH VIOLIN AT ALABAMA COLLEGE

Alberta Potter, a graduate of the University of Oregon in 1923 receiving a B. M. degree, and at present a member of the violin department in the school of music here, has been appointed head of the violin department in the Alabama State Women's college at Montevallo, Alabama. This Southern school has one of the leading music schools in that section of the country, and the dean of the school of music is a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Miss Potter has studied violin since she was a very small girl. Her most intensive studying was done on this campus with Rex Underwood, professor of violin and head of the University orchestra. Last year she studied in New York with Franz Kneisel of the Damrosch Institute of Musical Art.

Miss Potter will leave in September for the South to take up her new duties. "I am looking forward with the greatest anticipation to my work in the South, not only to my position as head of the violin department in the Alabama State Women's college, but to the people and surroundings, which I am told are very different from those of the East and West."

While on the campus Miss Potter was among the most active members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national women's musical fraternity. She is also a member of Delta Gamma.
