

CONCERT TO BE TUESDAY NIGHT

Rex Underwood Will Direct Orchestra; Affair to Be Held in Music Auditorium

SEATING PLAN CHANGED

Entertainment Comprises Many Old Time Favorites Musical Last of Series

Next Tuesday evening, April 21, the University orchestra under the direction of Rex Underwood, head of the violin department in the school of music, will present its annual home concert in the auditorium of the school of music. To accommodate the crowds it has been arranged to have two concerts. The first will begin at 7:30 p. m., and the second at 8:45 o'clock. A plan is being worked out whereby only certain houses will attend the first and second concerts. This will aid greatly in regulating the crowd. Full particulars concerning this action will be announced Tuesday morning.

Student Ticket to Admit
Student body tickets will admit students to the concert. Townspeople will pay the regular admission price of one dollar and tickets can be purchased at the Co-op or at Laraway's Music Store. This concert marks the fifth and last number in the concert series sponsored by the music committee of the Associated Students.

The program is composed of many old time favorites arranged in groups and an effort has been made by the director to make the evening one of musical pleasure. The music is all in good taste, and it is not necessary for one to be a musician to enjoy it. Soloists for the concert will be Alberta Potter and Lora Teshner.

- Program is Listed
Following is the concert program:
1. March from "Sigurd Jorsalfar" Greig
 2. "Serenade" Schubert
 3. "Dancing Dolls" Poldini
 4. Violin Solo, "Hejre Kati" Hubay Miss Alberta Potter
 5. "Two Slavonic Dances" Dvorak

MUSIC OF UNUSUAL QUALITY PRESENTED BY GLEE CLUBS

By C. B.
A new custom, that of combining the women's and men's glee clubs in one annual home concert, was inaugurated last Thursday night at the Woman's building, and met with high favor. Such astonishing volume, shading off at times into the most delicate of tones, and every gradation, rich in quality, is never met except in the work of a body of picked singers with fresh young voices, under competent direction.

The numbers, all in excellent taste, were arranged with apparent regard for good program building. The first number, "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast," a difficult composition requiring about thirty-five minutes for performance, was astonishingly well sung and most adequately interpreted. This is a difficult composition, yet full of exquisite harmonies, which the clubs sang most musically. The tenor solo, "Onaway, Awake Beloved," was sung by Mr. Frank Jue. This number is lovely in melody and dramatic effectiveness, and was sung exquisitely by Mr. Jue. He was in excellent voice and won spontaneous approval from his audience. Miss Frances Pierce played an excellent accompaniment. "I'll Sing The Songs of Araby" by Richard Adam followed the first

Cinder Artists Will Display Speed Today

Try-outs for Seattle Relays to Be Held Next Saturday

All the speed, the suspense of neck and neck races, and the highly developed form displayed in a track meet will be shown off this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Hayward field when Bill Hayward's track proteges, divided into class teams, compete for high point honors. The junior and senior track men will combine to clash with the sophomore and freshman teams. From the first event to the final 880 relay the meet promises to be filled with hard fought competition. The entire varsity squad will be competing for their respective classes in the events as well as the freshman team selected by the tryouts last week.

The upperclassmen will miss the work of Chick Rosenberg who will be out on account of an injured heel and they will be hard put to come through with the honors. However, they have the majority of lettermen. Rain or shine the track meet goes off in regular track meet style for Bill is planning on having his tryouts for the Seattle relays the following Saturday and he wants to get the competition meet off the schedule.

LIFE-SAVING TEST COMING IN MAY

L. E. Palmer to Have Charge Of Instruction; Red Cross Approves Plan

METHODS TO BE TAUGHT

With the view of developing interest in the coming lifesaving tests to be held early in May, the local Red Cross lifesaving corps is planning a series of instructions. The local corps is co-operating with the department of physical education in handling this phase of swimming.

The main purpose of this plan is to educate the swimmers in the proper methods of handling themselves in the water. The methods used by the corps are approved by the National American Red Cross corps and give individual instruction in swimming, diving, methods of resuscitation and everything called for in the saving of a drowning person.

Practice in Coaching Offered
Instruction will be given by the members of the corps with L. E. Palmer in charge. This method will give the members practice in teaching which will finally fit them for positions as examiners.

To be a lifesaving examiner a student must make a percentage of better than ninety and be able to instruct others in the proper methods. Periods for individual instruction as given out by the department will be on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 2:20 o'clock to 3:20, and Tuesdays at 11. Other periods will be arranged by Palmer if conflicts arise in schedules.

Students interested in this project are asked to signify their intention by signing a slip and placing it on the table in the swimming tank in the men's gymnasium. This should be done as early as possible, said Palmer, otherwise the late students will lose the fundamental instruction.

Third Corps Promised
The men's lifesaving corps is giving this work as part of its policy of education and instruction for swimmers. A third corps will be organized in May, during the visit of the district representative of the National American Red Cross. The second corps was added after the tests given last term.

The millrace will be used for group instruction as soon as the present weather subsides, said Palmer. This plan will necessitate the co-operation of the students and will be under the direction of the student corps' captains. Actual instruction may be stressed more forcibly in this way.

DOUGHNUT BASEBALL CONTESTS POSTPONED

Due to the inclement weather conditions the tentative doughnut baseball tournament scheduled for this week has been definitely postponed. The contests will start next Wednesday with the teams playing as scheduled.

This arrangement moves the dates for the games forward one week and will not handicap any of the teams. Practice period arrangements for the first part of the week should be made in the office of the athletic director. This method of signing for hours will tend to lessen the possibility of crowding.

The games scheduled for today will be advanced a week and the present arrangement may have to be changed due to the practice of the freshman teams. If this occurs a statement will be issued by Virgil Earl, who is in charge of the intramural sport, and the change will be posted and announcements sent to the various teams.

According to this plan the first doughnut game will be played Wednesday the twenty-second between Psi Kappa and Kappa Sigma followed by the Friendly hall and Beta Theta Pi contest.

Wright Brothers Resided in Eugene Dean Straub Says

"When the Wright brothers made their first flights in the east, and in France, I did not know at that time that they were the same Wright boys who used to live in Eugene," said Dean John Straub.

"About a week ago, Mr. M. S. Barker, owner of a music store on Willamette street, told me that they were the same boys that had come to him thirty years ago and talked over ideas of a flying machine. At that time Barker was interested in a flying machine, and frequently worked with the boys."

Their great desire was to construct an object heavier than air, that would fly. They were continually tinkering with the crude materials, when they were young boys, and they questioned everyone as to their ideas about flying machines, said the dean. On December 17, 1903, Orville and Wilbur made their first flight in a heavier-than-air machine.

It never occurred to me, said the dean, that they were the inventors of the aeroplane.

OPERATIC PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN SUNDAY

Mu Phi Epsilon to Present Fourth Concert

Tomorrow afternoon Mu Phi Epsilon, women's national musical fraternity, will present an opera program in the school of music auditorium, starting at 4 o'clock. Madame Rose McGrew has charge of the program and is being assisted by Esther Church. This concert will be the fourth in the series of six concerts sponsored by this fraternity. For those not possessing a season ticket, there will be a small admission price of 35 cents for townspeople and 25 cents for students.

Madame McGrew will introduce each selection, which will be of a strictly operatic nature. Following is the afternoon's program:
1. Selection from "Jewels of the Madonna" Farghi Small Orchestra
2. "Musette's Aria" from Boheme Elizabeth Nelson
3. "O, Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star" from Tannhauser Wagner
4. "M'Appari" from Martha Flotow
5. Selections from "Thais" Stringer Trio composed of Lora Teshner, Lois Parker and Alberta Potter.

Rex Underwood, head of the violin department of the school of music, will be in charge of the next concert sponsored by Mu Phi Epsilon. John Stark Evans, assistant dean of the school of music, will have charge of the final concert which will deal with Oregon music.

IN MEMORIAM Resolution

Whereas Almighty God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst, our late friend and fellow student, Ogden R. Mills, and

Whereas, by his death the University of Oregon has lost one of the most earnest and respected students; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Associated Students of the University of Oregon that to his sorrowing family we extend our deepest sympathy, and be it further Resolved that a copy of these resolutions in behalf of our beloved friend be sent to his family, and that a copy be transcribed on the records of the Associated Students of the University of Oregon, and that a copy be published in the student publication.

Spring Grid Practice Ends With Banquet

APRIL SHOWERS HALT BASEBALL

First Game Scheduled With Pacific University; Tilt With Salem Cancelled

PROBABLE LINEUP GIVEN

April showers may bring May flowers, but this adage does not hold true in baseball and as a result, the Oregon varsity ball squad has spent an idle week, unable to hold any outside workouts on the new diamonds.

While the rains have completely halted practice for the past week, Coach Reinhart has concentrated on the varsity batteries—giving the twirling and catching staff several workouts in the gym. Inasmuch as the Oregon squad has passed the early stages of practice, bunting practice in the gym was hardly necessary during the inclement weather.

Showers Halt Games

The water-soaked diamonds during the past week halted several practice games that were on tap for the varsity—as several games were scheduled with the freshman nine. These games would have been the first real outside competition contests held by the Lemon Yellow. Also a game was arranged for the varsity with the Salem Senators today, however, inability to complete arrangements together with bad weather canceled this possible tilt.

During the coming week, a stiff practice program will be scheduled for the varsity to whip them into shape for the initial scheduled game for the year, with the Pacific university nine. The practice games that were to have been played this week with the frosh will be run off sometime within the next few days.

Possible Lineup Given

The men that will probably play a prominent part in the freshman- varsity encounters will include the following possible lineup: Rex Adolph on first, with Howard Hobson on second. Both of these men have been showing up to advantage during practice periods. Freddy West, member of the 1924 freshman ball squad, will no doubt line up at short, with Troutman held in reserve. Sam Cook or Lynn Jones will be scheduled at third. Should Cook start, Jones will no doubt be used in the outfield.

The battery for the contest will be made up of either Jack Bliss or George Minnaugh at the receiving end with Ray Williams, Skipper Brooks and Carl Knudson alternating on the mound.

The outfield berths will be held down by Frank Reinhart, Lynn Jones, Doug Wright, Carl Knudson or George Minnaugh.

PHILIPPINE STUDENTS ENTERTAIN WITH MUSIC

The Cosmopolitan club was the guest of the Philippine students of the campus, last night at the Y. M. hut. The various nationalities represented in the Cosmopolitan club take turns in entertaining the club at each session following the business meeting.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. Warren D. Smith, of the geology department. He gave a general discussion of the Philippine islands. Educational methods in the islands were touched upon. Dr. Smith has resided in the islands for 12 years.

The Varsity Philippensis orchestra, a stringed orchestra of native instruments gave several selections. Typical of the program was "No Me Olvides," translated "Don't Forget Me," and "Vigan March." Native songs were also sung by the members of the orchestra.

Dick Smith Urges Men To Be Back for Work By September 15

"Be back here September 15, ready to play football!" This was the dominant thought expressed at the banquet held last night at the Osburn for the football candidates who turned out for spring practice. "This spring the time has been spent getting acquainted, and in getting used to the game," said Coach Dick Smith, "and we will plunge right into stiff practice promptly next fall. I want every man on the field the opening day."

Equipment is Plentiful

Equipment in plenty for every man will be ready, announced Virgil Earl, director of athletics. Every man will be asked to fill out a form before he leaves this spring, and he will find his uniform ready for him when he gets here next term. Earl also emphasized the importance of maintaining a scholastic average that will insure eligibility.

Bill Hayward gave the men some pointers on training, and offered his services to every player who

INTRAMURAL TENNIS WILL START APRIL 27

Schedule for First Round Includes 16 Teams

Final arrangements have been made for the opening of the intramural tennis tournament. The opener will be played April 27, between the team from Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the pair from Beta Theta Pi. This contest is scheduled for 5 o'clock on court number 10.

In case rain necessitates the postponement of games, arrangements will have to be made through the department of physical education, otherwise the team not appearing will be penalized.

Physical education credit as well as free tickets will be given to the team players on the day they are scheduled to participate. All matches are to be played at 5 o'clock on court 10 unless otherwise stated. This court has been reserved for the tournament games.

The schedule as arranged by the department of physical education is as follows: April 27, Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Beta Theta Pi; 28—Bachelordon vs. Phi Delta Theta; 29—Friendly hall vs. Alpha Tau Omega; 30—Sigma Pi Tau vs. Kappa Sigma; May 4—Lambda Psi vs. Chi Psi; 5—Alpha Beta Chi vs. Oregon club; 6—Delta Tau Delta vs. Phi Kappa Psi; 7—Phi Gamma Delta vs. Psi Kappa. This schedule constitutes the first round only. The second round will be made up after the termination of these games.

"CRIMSON EYEBROWS" PRESENTED BY UNIVERSITY HIGH GLEE CLUB

By M. W.

The first performance of "Crimson Eyebrows," a Chinese musical comedy, was given last night in the school of music auditorium under the direction of Anne Landsbury Beck. A large crowd attended, and the performance will be repeated tonight.

The cast was made up entirely of the members of the University high school glee club. They were delightfully costumed and sang with spirit and charm. DeLillian Olson, as Ting Ling and Franklin Hall as Fanehong, sang two duets in a commendable and charming way. Both of these characters won marked approval in their solo work. Miss Olson's costumes were dainty and becoming. In act three Franklin Hall wore with distinction a very old blue satin Chinese coat and appropriate broadcated trousers. This costume was loaned by Mr. Frank Jue.

Dean Scott as Wang Mang, the usurper Emperor, did very superior work for a high school student. He

PROBLEMS ARE SOLVED

University of Illinois Next Hostess College in 1927 For National Convention

Three higher institutions of learning were voted members of the International Association of Women Students, at the final business session of the conference, yesterday afternoon. They were Whitman college, Colorado State Teacher's college, and Denver University. These were reported by the committee on recommendations of the schools which had fulfilled the requirements of the association, and were therefore qualified for membership.

Several other reports of the resolutions committee were also adopted by the conference; the first, Resolved: that the third conference of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students extend to the Associated Students of the University of Oregon, and to Dean Virginia Judy Estery, their sincere thanks for the hospitality they have enjoyed. The conference wishes to extend its thanks to Mrs. Murray Warner for the use of the conference rooms and to Mrs. Luey Perkins for the privilege of visiting the art museum; to the student body and faculty of the University of Oregon for its cooperation, and to the Chamber of Commerce of Eugene.

FIFTEEN MEN ENTER GOLF TOURNEY TODAY

The golf tournament, which will determine the personnel of the team that will take part in the intercollegiate golf tourney in Portland the latter part of May, will start today, announces George Bronough, head of the sport. Cards qualifying 15 men have been turned in, and the schedule of matches has been drawn up. One week will be allowed to play off the first matches. From the results of the tourney, four men will be picked for the team.

The first matches were drawn as follows: Marshall vs. Burke; Matthews vs. Pearson; McBride vs. Nelson; Fuchs vs. McPhillips; Byerly vs. Walker; Meredith vs. Husted; Crowley vs. Cleaver; Neighbor as by. The qualifying scores of the men were as follows: Marshall, 80; Byerly, 80; McV. Phi Kappa Psi; 7—Phi Gamma Delta vs. Psi Kappa. This schedule constitutes the first round only. The second round will be made up after the termination of these games.

"CRIMSON EYEBROWS" PRESENTED BY UNIVERSITY HIGH GLEE CLUB

has a well developed baritone voice, which appeared to advantage. The best character part and the one producing the most laughs from the audience was "Old Buddha," a wife of a former Emperor, played by Bradford Datson. His impersonation of a woman was excellent and often extremely laughable.

Hiram White as "Star Eye" made a decided hit and "Neptune" played by Kermit Stevens was surprisingly clever. A humorous trio "Three Gay Conspirators," sung by Wang Mang, "Star Eye" and "Neptune" won hearty approval. Ruby George made a very attractive Ah Me and Charles Marlotte as Hing Lee was noticeably strong in his part.

The orchestra did excellent work accompanying in a professional way. To Mrs. Beck, director of "Crimson Eyebrows," goes a great deal of the credit for the attractiveness and highly entertaining qualities of the opera. A second performance will be given tonight starting at 8 o'clock.
