

WOMEN WILL FINISH FIRST ROUND OF TENNIS

Extension of Time Limit Due to Bad Weather

The time limit set for the completion of the first round of women's doughnut tennis, has been extended from Wednesday of this week to Saturday, April 25, due to the inclement weather conditions prevailing last week.

"This is positively the last day," said Irene Buckley, coach.

Doubles as well as singles are being played off in this first round. All scheduled practices have been worked off and many of the team members are continuing to put in practice hours on the courts, determined to get in all the practice possible.

The complete schedule for the first round of the meet, both singles and doubles, is as follows: Singles: Gamma Phi Alpha Gamma Delta; Girls' Oregon Club-Hendricks hall I; Susan Campbell hall I-Alpha Xi Delta; Thacher-Delta Zeta; Chi Omega-Sigma Beta Phi; Kappa Alpha Theta-Pi Beta Phi; Kappa Kappa Gamma-Susan Campbell hall II; Hendricks hall II-Delta Delta Delta.

Doubles: Gamma Phi Beta-Alpha Gamma Delta; Girls' Oregon club-Hendricks hall I; Susan Campbell hall I-Alpha Xi Delta; Thacher-Delta Zeta; Chi Omega-Sigma Beta Phi; Kappa Alpha Theta-Pi Beta Phi; Kappa Kappa Gamma-Susan Campbell hall II; Hendricks hall II-Delta Delta Delta.

WOMEN'S BASEBALL UNAFFECTED BY RAIN

Susan Campbell and Thacher Winners Last Night

The second day of the doughnut schedule in women's baseball leaves Kappa Kappa Gamma defeated by Susan Campbell II, 9 to 4. Thacher outplayed Alpha Omicron Pi, 32 to 27.

In the summary for the series so far, Hendricks leads with a total of two games. Susan Campbell II and Thacher have each a game to their credit.

Due to the unfavorable weather, it has been possible to play only two games each night. For this purpose both indoor and outdoor gymnasiums are being utilized.

The rainy weather will not seriously handicap the doughnut series, according to Mildred Crain, head of the sport. As soon as the weather permits outside playing again, six games will be played every night until the schedule is made up. Unless houses are otherwise notified, games will be played according to schedule.

Only three innings were played last night. In the Alpha Omicron Pi Thacher game, the two teams were evenly matched. The ultimate victory of either side could not be predicted until the last half.

Susan Campbell, with its reputation in women's sports, is putting two good teams in the field this season. In the Susan Campbell II-Kappa Kappa Gamma game last night, Nellie Johns, pitching for Susan Campbell, and Katherine Osborne, catcher on the same team, made a battery hard to handle.

W. A. A. RULE LIMITS WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

A ruling of the Woman's Athletic association to the effect that no girl may participate in more than three sports at a time is being rigidly enforced this term by the physical education department for women.

This stand is due to the fact that because of the variety of spring sports, the temptation on the part of the girls to carry more of this type of work than is conducive to sound health is very strong.

Girls interested in earning sweaters will come out early in the term rather than wait until the last chance offers itself. Another point in favor of this ruling is that this system is expected to assist in getting the sports run off smoothly.

The dance drama, it was announced, will be considered as a sport in this connection.

"A girl participating in doughnut baseball, for example, may also play class baseball since the two activities do not take place at the same time," said Miss Page.

With the Women's League convention, the glee club concert, and the play, "Crimson Eyebrows," the past week was a whirl of gay festivities in college circles. Besides these affairs of general interest, there were many large formal dances and teas, as well as a number of less formal affairs for the entertainment of the convention delegates who were guests of the sororities during their stay here.

Of interest to college folk, as well as a wide circle of friends in other parts of the state, is the engagement of Miss Freda Goodrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Goodrich, and Rue Mowrey, son of Mrs. H. Marshall Carlock, of Portland. The news of the engagement was made known during the dinner hour at the Alpha Chi Omega and Theta Chi houses preceding the formal dance of Theta Chi on Saturday evening.

Miss Goodrich was graduated from the University of Oregon last June and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority as well as Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa and Theta Sigma Phi. Mr. Mowrey is at present a senior here and is affiliated with Theta Chi.

Alpha Sigma of Theta Chi entertained with their formal grille dance Saturday evening at the College Side Inn. Red tulips were used on the little tables and were combined with ferns to form a canopy for the orchestra. The lights were shaded with dark paper, and with Theta Chi applied in a lighter shade. Miss Edna Dipple and Delbert Faust gave an Arabian dance as the feature of the evening.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Walker and Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly.

On Friday evening the freshmen of Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu gave their annual informal dance at the Kappa Sigma house. Potted plants, cut flowers and ferns were used, and a soft rose glow was cast over the rooms by the crepe paper over the lights. Interesting little sketches in black and white, of college scenes, were hung above the fireplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Coffey and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl were patrons and patronesses.

The Beta Theta Pi chapter house was the scene of their annual formal dance on Saturday evening. The rooms were effectively decorated with ferns and palms and stunning black shields with the Beta dragon on them were used over the lights. Their programs were of black wood on which were applied the shield in gold. Music was furnished by the O. A. C. "Aggravators."

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas I. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly and Dean H. Walker.

The College Side Inn was the setting for the informal grille dance of Kappa Delta Phi on Friday evening. Red tulips were arranged on the individual tables where the dancers were seated.

At the Theatres

HEILIG—Tonight, "The Snob," a human drama with a genuine appeal; Wednesday night, Western Vaudeville, with another popular bill; plan to attend the second college special performance at nine o'clock. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "The Great Divide," one of the epic photo dramas of the west, and conceded a high place in film drama.

The Greenwich Village follies, with Gallagher and Shean, will be here May 5. This show is meeting with great success in California, and is hailed as one of the best to come to the coast.

THE REX—Last day: Richard Barthelmess in "New Toys," with his dainty wife, Mary Hay, in a sparkling comedy drama of newly weds, ambition and jealousy that is the most unusual picture of Dick's career; comedy, "He Who Gets Socked," a cartoon classic; International news events prolog, "Toys," featuring "Dance of a Dresden Doll," with Katherine Irvin Stang and her "Tiny Tots;" LeRoy DeVaney in atmospheric accompaniments to the picture on the mighty Wurlitzer.

Coming: "The House of Youth," with Jacqueline Logan, Malcolm McGregor, Gloria Grey and Richard Travers.

and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Nagley were chaperones.

One of the largest events of the week was the formal dance given by the University of Oregon Women's League at the Woman's building Friday evening honoring the delegates of the third biennial national convention of the Associated Women Students.

The ball room was transformed into a conventional garden, with large brightly colored figures about the room, in front of a dark blue background.

The committee in charge of the dance was composed of the Misses Mary Jane Hathaway, Rebecca Ireland, Pauline Bondurant, Hazel Borders, Margaret Boyer, Frances Morgan and Alberta McMonies.

The list of patrons and patronesses included Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Dean Kate W. Jameson, Miss Maude Kerns, Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Onthank, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. George Gerlinger, Professor and Mrs. F. S. Dunn and Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Young.

An entertainment for the seniors of the company graduating this year, and graduate members of the drama department was given last Saturday night at Guild Hall.

A short skit entitled "The Crystal Gazer" was written by Miss Helen Park and Miss Claire Gibson, which portrayed the mystical illusion of placing before the sight of the audience the various senior members, in their respective engagements and vocations. Members of the company who are not graduating and conscripts from the junior drama classes, played the roles of the seniors.

Graduation robs the company of Betty Kerr, Lexro Prillaman, Terva Hubbard, Harold Hoflich, Gerda Brown, Beatrice Beebe, Gordon Wilson and Henry Sheldon.

Of interest to college circles is the announcement of the engagement of Esther Christensen, a Delta Zeta, member of the class of '25, to Charles Walker, member of Phi Kappa Psi, and a graduate in the class of '24. Miss Christensen is a talented pianist and a major in the economics department. Mr. Walker majored in business administration.

The engagement was impressively announced Saturday at the Delta Zeta house. During dinner strains of wedding music were heard and flower girls appeared leading a miniature bridal procession and strewing rose leaves containing the news on tiny cards. The announcement was made at the same time at the Phi Kappa Psi house. The members of both organizations celebrated the event by dancing at the Delta Zeta house.

Upon opening the petals of a huge rosebud, a wedding cake was revealed. The symbols of Delta Zeta and Phi Kappa Psi were frosted on it in their respective colors.

The marriage of Averie Shackelford to J. E. Ellerton was made known at Kappa Omicron last night. Miss Shackelford was formerly in the class of 1926 and a dramatics major on the campus. Mr. Ellerton is in business in St. Helens, Oregon. The young couple are spending their honeymoon in British Columbia.

Fourteen members of the physics staff were present at a dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Caswell and Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Boynton Saturday evening. A picnic had been planned, but weather conditions made it necessary to give it up. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hartmus (Catherine Spall), former University students, visited Eugene over Sunday. Since their marriage last summer they have lived in San Francisco, Honolulu and Portland where Mr. Hartmus is now employed on the Oregonian. Both were students in the journalism department. Mrs. Hartmus is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Theta Sigma Phi.
