

$17,000 LACKING IN DRIVE; WORKERS REPORT AT 9 A. M.

BOB MAUTZ GIVES DRIVE WORKERS ORDERS TO SPEED

Committee Made to See Need for Work as Campaign Approaches Goal

Victory Banquet Scheduled For Tonight If Final Day Brings Total to $64,000

Yesterday noon every Union campaign worker sat down to luncheon at the Woman's building, and as the meal progressed, they resolved that they would finish the job on hand, and all gather again tonight for the final big banquet. The workers realized then, and they realize now, that to achieve the final goal of $64,000, they will have to work and work hard. Reports given at the luncheon showed that but $42,000 had been raised, leaving a total of $22,000 to go. In a spirited talk, which fairly sized with Oregon Spirit, Haddon Rockey, chairman of the drive last year, told of the final effort that had been put forth during the final day of the first campaign, when $80,000 had been raised. "It's the old Oregon spirit that does it!" he declared. "Get that, and get it under your skin. This thing's got to go across and go across big!"

Mautz Outlines Work
Bob Mautz, chairman of the drive, outlined the work thus far, called upon all team members and workers to fling class allegiance to the winds, and to unite in a last great effort to reach the goal set. He told of instances of sacrifices made by students so that they might add their quota to the drive. "This pledge is not charity," he said. "It is a worthwhile investment to any man that values his education."

Mautz also announced that the Heilig theatre had invited the students to a theatre party for next Wednesday night at 9:15. Admittance will be by the "committee" badge, and students are asked to wait until 9:15 so that the theatre may be cleared from the first show.

Work Well Done
An efficient committee, under Maude Schroeder, functioning at the luncheon today, and everything went on and off on time. Those who assisted were: Elizabeth McDonald, Mary McKinnon, Harriet Dezenдорf, Grace Cobb, Donna Fleming, Harriet Adams, Laura Prescott, Vera Davis, Eleanor Morgan, Nellie Best, Alesea Groves, Alice Hill, Gladys Grant, Lucille Brown, Helen Louise Cunningham, Dorothy Wagner.

Wallace Langworthy, Floron Douglas, Dick Richards, Mick McAlister, Bill McGregor, Ward Beeny, Jim Winslow, Don McCook, Bill Powell, Ellis Shull.

Banquet is Tonight
The banquet tonight is expected to be the final burst of Oregon Spirit, and every committee worker will be on hand. Bill McBride's orchestra will be on hand to play, and talks will be given by Randall Jones, president of the student body, Bob Mautz, chairman of the drive and others.

The festivities will start off promptly at six o'clock, it is announced. The following men are asked to report at the Woman's building at 5:30 to assist with banquet arrangements: Glen Howard, Weston Lake, Merwyn Benkhe, Don McCook, Lynn Wykoff, Hamilton Allen, Elmer Fausett, Leo Moore, Merlin Drury, and James Cook. The women who are to assist are also asked to be on hand at this time, 5:30.

BALL NINE WINS BY 10 TO 3 IN SEASON OPENER

Team Starts Schedule With Easy Win Over Pacific On New Baseball Field

Reinhart's Squad Captures Game by Heavy Hitting; Williams Hurls Winner

By Wilbur Wester
Playing the initial contest of the year on the new diamond, adjoining Hayward field yesterday afternoon, the Oregon baseball team broke into the win column by virtue of a 10 to 3 victory over the Pacific University nine. As the score indicated, the game was very one-sided and fairly slow toward the finish. The contest clearly brought out the excellent team-play of the varsity. Although, getting but eleven hits, nearly every bingle was accounted for, ten runs crossing the home plate. Ray Williams on the mound for Oregon, allowed but eight scattered hits, and throughout the tilt, held the opposition well in hand.

Hobson Hits Triple
Howard Hobson started the scoring in the first frame when he drove in a run with a long drive that went for a triple. The team was unable to strike its real stride until along in the fourth inning, when two runs were registered. Pacific was unable to score until the fourth canto when one man crossed home.

The Oregon infield played in regular mid-season form. Only two errors were chalked up against the home team, one of these errors being the result of a ball lost in the sun. Besides fielding in a creditable manner, several of the Oregon players proved to be very capable in wielding a dangerous stick. Hobson, crack second baseman, received four solid blows out of four trips to the plate. Two of his hits went for triples, one for a double and the fourth hit for a single, and one sacrifice. Frank Reinhart cracked out one well earned double and several sacrifice hits while at the plate. Cook and Adolph were both credited with two hits apiece.

Cameron started in the box for the Pacific nine, but after several innings, the varsity soon had the best of this port-sider, driving him to cover under a deluge of base-hits. Rannow relieved Cameron in the box but did little better in handling the Oregon stick-wielders. Four are Former Frosh
Out of the nine men wearing the Lemon-Yellow on the field against Pacific, four of the players are recruits from last year's freshman team. Fred West, playing his first year of varsity, held down the short patch handling six chances in a capable manner. Frank Reinhart, a first year man, caught four high flies, several of them being long drives that ordinarily would have gone for safe hits. Lynn Jones also a first year man crossed the home plate with two runs. Rex Adolph, a new man on the varsity nine, accounted for two hits and handled twelve chances.

From all indications, Coach Reinhart should have one of the cleverest and most dangerous nines in the coast conference. Although, the Pacific nine does not hold a very high rating, they were strong enough to bring out the fact that the Oregon team has plenty of potential strength and a real drive.

Y. W. CABINETS MEET MAY 1, 2, 3

The Annual State Y. W. C. A. cabinet council meets on the University campus next week-end, May 1, 2, and 3, for the purpose of bringing together and discussing common problems and providing contacts between members of the state college and university organizations. Representatives from O. A. C., Pacific university, Pacific college, Albany college, Linfield college and Willamette university will be present as guests of the local group. Miss Elsie Heller, national secretary of the northwest field, Miss Henrietta Thompson, member of the Friendly Relations committee and Miss Jennelle Vandervort, chairman of the Seabeck division are the national secretaries who will be present.

Helen Andrews, general chairman of the conference, announces that the conference will open with an informal tea at the Bungalow, Friday afternoon. Friday evening, and Saturday will be given over to discussions and a Seabeck picnic will be given at Coburg bridge Saturday evening.

The discussions on Friday evening will be taken up from the campus point of view rather than that of the Y. W. C. A. Among subjects which will come up for consideration are what students talk about during their leisure hours, and how this concerns the Y. W. C. A. Each group of cabinet members will be asked to turn in five questions Friday evening which will be answered by Miss Katherine Seay, O. A. C. secretary, during the Saturday morning session.

Miss Heller, who will have charge of the discussion Saturday forenoon, will take up the practical side of the relation of the organization to campus life. In the afternoon Miss Vandervort, who attended the national conference of Y. W. C. A. secretaries held during the Christmas holidays, will talk on the work of the national organization, and Miss Thompson will present the international duties of the Y. W. C. A.

ERNEST SEUTE, PROPRIETOR OF TOWNE SHOPPE, GIVES $500

Ernest Seute, proprietor of the Towne Shoppe, tonight announced that he has pledged $500 to the Student Union. This is the largest single contribution of the entire campaign, and is indicative of the spirit with which the drive is being received off the campus.

"If the students are willing to sacrifice for this project, it must mean a great deal to them," declares Mr. Seute. "So we are glad indeed to do our share. My wife and I have hundreds of friends among the students of the University, and our main interest lies with them. A Student Union, a gathering place for the men and women of this great University, will be a wonderful thing, and we look forward to seeing it with the same eager anticipation that the students do."

Mr. Seute has been a loyal enthusiast for Oregon since he came to this city. He has taken a great deal of interest in every student activity, and has backed the athletic teams against all contenders. The Towne Shoppe is a favorite rendezvous of hundreds of students, who go there to partake of his savory viands, and to listen to the musical features there provided. "Mr. Seute has caught the true Oregon Spirit," declared Bob Mautz, chairman of the drive. "He is a true Oregon man, and we are glad to claim him as one of us."

ANNUAL DANCE DRAMA TO BE GIVEN MAY 27

The Dance Drama will be presented Wednesday evening, May 27, in the Woman's building. Recent remodeling of the stage and its additional equipment, has made it possible for the first time, to give this annual feature on the campus instead of at the Heilig theatre down town.

One of the most beautiful interpretations being planned for the evening is "The Lake of the Swans" with music taken from Tchaikowski's suite of the same name. Staging, lighting and music combine to create a startling illusion of realism in the setting for this number. There is an ancient half-ruined temple standing at the edge of a tranquil lake in a garden of Old Greece. A fountain leaps and splashes on the other side of the tall columns of the temple. Three swans float in the lake, lotus-wise. Then the dancers appear upon the low broad steps of the temple.

A Night's Mardi Gras presents a street scene of the far East. Here is the life, color and movement of the Bazaar with its rich rugs, beautiful silks and fragile porcelain. Two masqueraders are the central characters in the drama. Neither know who the other is or why he is there. The climax is reached when the girl unmasks.

This number is an attempt to picture night, the playtime of the world, and the various moods of its two types of revelers who seek either recreation for the soul or for the senses.

Solo, duet and group dances will compose another part of the program for the evening. These will be original compositions presented by members of Orchestras, an advanced dancing group.

FRESHMAN NINE TO PLAY VARSITY

With old Sol doing its share, together with daily practice games with the varsity, the freshman diamond aspirants are slowly but surely rounding into condition. Every afternoon this week that the weather has been permissible, practice games with the varsity have been played bringing out the strong and weak points of the freshman aggregation. In all of these contests the varsity battery has performed for both teams, thus giving the battery-men double practice.

Several games have been played with the University high school nine; a squad of men being sent to their diamond for games. In these games a number of frosh boxmen were given chances to show their stuff.

This afternoon the freshmen and varsity will mix in a double header starting about 2 o'clock. In these two games Coach Sorsby intends to work all his pitchers and catchers for several innings as they have had few real workouts. "Skip" Brooks will undoubtedly face the frosh in one of the games as he didn't get to break into the Pacific game.

According to Coach Bill Sorsby what the freshmen need most at the present time is a lot of batting practice as the entire squad seems to be very weak with the willow. In order to get the desired batting practice several squads of men will report this morning for batting, infield and outfield practice.

The men who have been showing up good and playing a consistent game against the varsity are: Wallace and Zeebuth, first base; Babb and Kuhn, second base; Hanley, shortstop; MacAllister, third base; Edwards, Newby, Baker and Mayfield in the outfield.

TIME LIMIT EXTENDED IN WOMEN'S TENNIS

The first round of women's tennis, due to the continued bad weather and later, to the opening of the Student Union drive, remains unfinished at the end of still another week. At a pep meeting yesterday noon, it was decided to extend the time to April 27. Monday at five o'clock will end the time set for the first round.

The courts yesterday afternoon were crowded to capacity. Five or six teams signified their intention of playing off their matches during the afternoon. A complete list of the winners of the first round will be posted on the bulletin board Monday night. Names of the winners of consolation matches will be posted at this time, also.

$47,000 LISTED; FINAL CLEAN-UP IS DUE TODAY

Results of First Two Day's Drive Disappointing Says Mautz; Payments Slow

Car Owners are Requested To Donate Machines for Use in Last Day's Drive

At a late hour last night a total of $47,000 had been subscribed in the Student Union campaign for $64,000. The showing, according to Bob Mautz, chairman, is rather disappointing, in-as-much-as a goal of $50,000 had been set for last night.

A final clean-up campaign is scheduled for today. Every worker on the committee is expected to report to the Union headquarters, promptly at 9:00 a. m., where he will receive instructions for the day's work.

"All the easy prospects have been signed up," said Mautz last night, "and now it remains for us to get difficult ones tomorrow. I think that we will be able to reach the quota all right if every one turns out today. If they don't—it's going to be bad."

The work today will close with a big banquet at 6:00 p. m. at the Woman's building, when the campaign will be celebrated or lamented as the case may be.

Reports at the banquet yesterday indicated that collections from upperclassmen for installments due from last year's pledges are coming in very slowly.

The noon reports showed the sophomore teams were making fair progress with around $3,000 collected. The seniors were next in line, but far below the sophomores; while the juniors were still farther down the line.

Junior Quota Reached

Pledges among the upperclassmen came in at a better rate. The juniors had reached their quota of pledges at an early hour last night. Little or no intention of permanently avoiding payment of pledges has been expressed, the universal attitude being one of procrastination.

"Since the construction of the Student Union is to proceed as soon as sufficient funds are on hand to build the first unit, it is desirable that students pay their installments up to date," said Randall Jones, president of the student body, today. "If everyone takes the attitude of indifference, the result will be that the campaign will drag on for years and still we will have no Student Union. Unless absolutely impossible, every man and woman should square his account at this time."

"Red" Wright, leader of the freshman men, last night made an appeal to the members of the class of 1928.

"There is $17,000 yet to be collected, even if we only come out even. That means that every freshman worker will have to be on hand promptly at nine o'clock ready to put in a good long day's work."

A special request has been sent out by the central committee for all car owners to contribute the uses of their machines today if possible.

At a meeting of the executive committee yesterday, it was decided to abandon generally the idea of definite teams in the final clean-up today, the plan being to throw the entire forces into a single large committee. In this manner numerous flying squadrons will be organized and thrown where needed most.
