Of news to a wide circle of friends is the engagement of Miss Irva Dale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dale of Pendleton, to Harold Barto, son of Mrs. Bessie Barto of Spokane. The news was made known at the Alpha Phi and Kappa Sigma houses on Friday evening. The girls at the Alpha Phi house were each presented with tiny May baskets containing corsage bouquets and cards telling of the betrothal. While the baskets were being passed around, Miss Ruth Akers sang.

Miss Dale is a junior on the campus and is a member of the women's Order of the "O" and is treasurer of W. A. A. Mr. Barto attended Idaho university for three years where he was a varsity football player. He graduated from the University of Oregon in 1923. Last fall he was assistant coach for the freshman team here and at present he is teaching and coaching in Musselshell, Montana.

The engagement of Miss Leota Rogers, '21, to Otto M. Lance, was announced at the Alpha Delta Pi house Saturday evening. Miss Rogers was a major in dramatics. Mr. Lance formerly attended the Oregon Agricultural college and is now with the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in Albany.

Alpha Delta Pi honored Miss Gracie Mae McNeil, national inspector, from Boulder, Colorado, and Mrs. Lucy Perkins, at a formal tea in Alumni hall yesterday afternoon from three to six.

Those who received were Mrs. Judy Esterly, Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Miss Gracie Mae McNeil, Mrs. Wm. H. Hale, Mrs. Earl Packard, Mrs. Wilson Jewitt, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, and Miss Mildred Bateman.

Mrs. Jennie Burrows, Mrs. R. A. Brodie, Mrs. Robert W. Prescott, and Mrs. W. B. Dennis of Carlton, Oregon, poured.

A delightful musical program was given by Margaret Hyatt, Daisy Parker, Evelyn Bristow, Pauline Knowland, Beulah Clark, Bernice Yeo, Gwendalin Hayden and Jean Harper.

The Alpha Omicron Pi's have had as their guest for the past week Miss Elizabeth Heyward Weyman of New York City, one of the founders of their sorority, and now acting inspector in the place of the president. She arrived on Tuesday and was honored with a dinner that evening at which several prominent women on the campus were guests. On Wednesday noon, Mrs. Arthur Miner gave a luncheon at Nimrod in her honor and that evening members of Alpha Omicron Pi were hostesses with their second annual birthday banquet at their house.

Miss Weyman came here from visiting the chapter at the University of Washington and left Thursday noon for Berkeley and Palo Alto.

Miss Marian G. Wiley, of Syracuse, N. Y., left Sunday afternoon for Portland after a week's stay at the Alpha Pi house where she was the guest at a number of informal affairs arranged in her honor. Miss Wiley, who is visiting delegate of Alpha fraternity, came here from California and after a few days' stay at the Benson hotel in Portland, will proceed to Seattle and then east.

Saturday evening members of Phi Delta Theta entertained at their chapter house with their annual formal dance. Hundreds of tulips were used about the rooms, and the walls were covered with all sizes and colors of cardboard circles. Miss Edna Dipple gave a jazz dance as a feature.

Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Schaefer and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bryson were patrons and patronesses.

The formal dance of Susan Campbell hall was given Saturday evening in the Woman's building. The rooms were decorated to give the effect of a French cabaret.

Chaperoning the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Underwood, Mrs. Anna Landsbury Beck, Mr. John Seifert, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. Ralph Hoerber, Mr. Andrew Fish and Miss Fanny McCamant.

The house and lawn of the Kappa Sigma house were beautiful Saturday evening as the scene of their spring informal. Spring flowers and greens were used in the rooms and Japanese lanterns were lovely on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. David Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl, Dr. and Mrs. Del C. Stanard, Capt. and Mrs. Frank L. Culin, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl and Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett were patrons and patronesses.

This week-end members of Alpha Omicron Pi had as their guests a number of girls who intend entering college in the fall, and, for their pleasure, they entertained with a barn dance on Friday evening and their formal on Saturday.

The Anchorage was lovely for the formal Saturday. There were banks and banks of iris, lilac and snow-balls around the rooms. Lattice work over the doorways was outlined like a trellis. Parchment lamps resembling maypoles were used on the little tables.

Patrons and patronesses for this event were Mrs. Lucy Abrams, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. Nowland B. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mr. and Mrs. John Stark Evans and Mrs. W. F. Jewett.

The barn dance Friday evening was held in a barn between here and Coburg. Lanterns served as lights and bales of hay as chairs. Supper was portioned out in old-fashioned lunch boxes.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mrs. Lucy Abrams and Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly.

Members of Alpha Phi fraternity held their spring informal at their chapter house on Friday evening. Lovely flowers arranged in old-fashioned baskets were effective in the rooms. Miss Marian G. Wiley was a special guest at this affair.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Henry Augustine, Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilmot and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder.

The Delta Zeta dance on Saturday evening at their house was called "In the Valley of the Moon." Moon, stars and fantastic flowers completed this effect and Jean Ross gave a charming Moonbeam dance.

Chaperoning the affair were Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Dunn, Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, and Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly.

On Friday evening the freshmen of Delta Gamma gave an informal dance for the rest of the house. Weeping willows with purple and white iris were lovely in the rooms. Delicate shades of crepe paper shaded the lights.

Patronesses were Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Harriet Wright and Mrs. C. O. Peterson.

Very informal was the dance given by the Oregon Knights on Friday evening at the College Side Inn. Music was furnished by the Winter Garden orchestra. The committee in charge consisted of Lowell Baker, LaVerne Miller and Alan Button.

The Anchorage was the scene of the Girl's Oregon club supper dance, last Friday evening. Entirely in keeping with May day, were the pastel-colored May baskets, as place cards. Pink sweet pea corsages were used for table decorations, while purple and white iris were used to decorate the dancing room. The patrons and patronesses were Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Esther R. Watt, Mrs. Henry Sheldon, Miss Margaret MacGregor, Donald G. Barnes.

RULES TO SAVE BOOKS ENFORCED BY LIBRARY

Volume in Pauline Potter Collection Mutilated

Stringent measures have been adopted this year to prevent the disappearance of books from the University library, according to M. H. Douglass, librarian. Students are no longer allowed in the sections where the loan books are kept, unless they have a written permit from some University official or professor.

Several hundred books are missed from the library each year, according to Mr. Douglass, and only about half of them are recovered. A man student in the University was recently expelled because a library book for which he had not signed was found in his room by investigators. Other students have been called before the disciplinary committee to explain their possession of books which had not been signed for.

The Pauline Potter collection of fine books has been locked up this year. Heretofore it has been accessible to any one who wished to visit it. The mutilation of a rare volume which would be impossible to replace led to this action, according to Mr. Douglass. The Studio magazine, an expensive art publication, has been withdrawn from circulation in magazine form, because students made away with the copies as soon as they were placed upon the shelves, Mr. Douglass said.

POWER MOTOR EXPECTED FOR USE ON CAMPUS LAWNS

A new power mower for cutting the campus lawns is expected to arrive in a very short time. This will make the task of mowing the lawns very much easier, as one man can do it all on part time, says H. M. Fisher, superintendent of grounds.

At present, two men spend their entire time keeping the grass cut once a week. Horse-drawn mowers are employed to cut the taller grass in the northwest part of the campus, but when the power mower comes, it will obviate the necessity of using horses.

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL FRATERNITY INITIATES

Three men were initiated into Phi Delta Kappa, national honorary and professional educational fraternity last Saturday afternoon in the University high school auditorium. Those men were: Loyd Webster, K. R. Blakeslee, and E. B. Humphrey.

In the evening a banquet was held at the Campa Shoppe at which out of state members were present.

The speaker of the evening was professor H. R. Douglass, instructor in the educational department.

Professor Douglass spoke on the ideals of the fraternity and emphasized the necessity for research.

Other speakers on the program were, Principal C. G. Springer of Marcola, Principal H. H. Dirksen of Monroe, Mr. Delbert Oberteuffer, and Mr. David J. Jones, principal of the Eugene high school and superintendent elect of Eugene schools.
