Abbott, Don Wrightman and Hugh Killam.

Field—Hugh Biggs, chairman; Richard Fields, Ted Van Guilder, Genevieve Chase, Lois Beth Scofield, and Gordon Wilkenson.

Finance—Kenneth Stephenson, chairman and Bove Love.

Elam Almstutz is assistant general chairman of the committee and as such will handle the frosh bonfire, arrangements for putting up signs on the different fraternity houses, etc., and Dorothy Myers is secretary of the general committee.

UNAFILIATED WOMEN TO MEET AT BUNGALOW

University women who are not in living organizations are invited to attend a meeting at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow next Tuesday afternoon at 4:30.

Full explanation of the work of the association and its value to students on the campus will be given by the committee in charge. Membership and financial plans are to be discussed.

Miss Florence Magowan, secretary, is anxious to have a large turn-out, and as there are more girls living outside of houses and halls than ever before, she hopes that a great many will be interested enough to come.

OREGONIANS AT U. OF W.

Estella Conant and Mabel Harden, former Oregon students, are attending the University of Washington this year. Miss Conant was a junior in the school of journalism, and Miss Harden was a junior in the school of music.

STUDENT TO INSTRUCT CLASSES IN CHINESE

Chinese come to America to learn English but a most interesting reverse of this procedure is the recent announcement of Jackson Liu, B. A., graduate of Canton Christian College, that he will start a private class in Chinese language on the campus.

Mr. Liu is at present registered as a graduate student in education at the University. No definite arrangements have yet been made as to hours or class room, but anyone interested can get in touch with Mr. Liu by phoning 899 before 8:00 o'clock in the mornings, at lunch time and after dinner.

SMALL TO TEACH IN TEXAS

Dr. Lloyd L. Small, formerly assistant professor of mathematics at the University of Oregon, has been appointed assistant professor of pure mathematics at the University of Texas, in Austin, Texas. The announcement of the appointment appears in "Science" for October seventh. Dr. Small resigned his position on the Oregon faculty last March.

HERBERT SMITH WORKING

Herbert G. Smith, a graduate student here last year, now has a position with the California Prune and Apricot Association of San Jose, according to word received by the business administration department.

SHOE SIZES WANTED

Frosh and varsity football men who are going out for track are requested to turn their shoe sizes into Bill Hayward's office so that shoes can be ordered for work in the spring. This should be done soon for track work starts outside as soon as the weather permits in the winter term.

The following freshmen will report in front of the library at 10:50 this morning:

Hanford Post, Frank McCrillis, Bill Abernathy, Ernest Espinosa, Roy Wheelhouse, DeVerle Hempy, Hugh Cole, Otto Frohmyer, Babe Green, Clark Orr, Bill Hines, James Johnson, Roland Morrison, and Neil Thompson.
