Jack o' lanterns on the walk and porch of the Theta Chi house Saturday evening were the first touch of Hallowe'en given to the dance for which the underclassmen were hosts. One room was decorated to represent a livery stable with harnesses and hay, and the other rooms were wired with the many flickering jack o' lanterns.

Among the features was a dance by Miss Camille Burton, vocal duets by Burns McGowan and Jerry Lawlor and a piano solo by Clifford Emille.

Patron and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Federick S. Dunn.

Blue and white, the colors of Phi Delta Theta, were predominant in their house on Friday evening when the pledges of that fraternity gave a grille dance. Huge Phi Delta Theta pledge pins were made of card board and used on the walls, and streamers were arranged from the ceiling.

Ernest Hulick gave the feature dance. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foley chaperoned the affair.

Another dance at which the idea of Hallowe'en was used was that for which the underclassmen of Alpha Chi Omega were hostesses, Friday. A clever feature dance was given during the evening. Underclassmen in clever costumes served refreshments.

Mrs. Anna Hart and Miss Mildred Stevens chaperoned the dance.

Serpentine and confetti lent a carnival atmosphere to the grille dance of Delta Delta Delta Friday evening at their new home. Their colors, silver, gold and blue were used in the candles and little delta shaped doilies on the tables.

Mrs. Walda L. Busch of Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin, representative of Kappa Delta, came Sunday evening to be a guest at the Tau Nu house until Thursday. Last evening she was the incentive for a formal dinner given by them and this afternoon members of Tau Nu

Mrs. Thomas O'Day and Mrs. Frederick S. Dunn were patron and patronesses.

Fifty couples attended the fall informal grille dance of Sigma Alpha Epsilon held at the Hotel Osburn Saturday night. The dining room and sun parlor were decorated for Hallowe'en with black and orange streamers. Punch was served to the dancers during the evening while pastries, ice cream, and coffee furnished refreshment during intermission.

During the evening the "Mystery Girl" entertained with a novel Hallowe'en dance.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Dunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Green.

About sixty couples attended the informal dance given by Susan Campbell Hall at the Woman's building Friday evening. The room was artistically decorated with cornstalks and pumpkins and various other Hallowe'en hobgoblins.

Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Miss Fanny McCamant, and Miss Lois Gray.

A feature dance was given by Miss Margaret Bunn.

Another dance given for the pledges was that at the Tau Nu house Saturday evening. Cornstalks, pumpkins and lovely leaves made the room attractive.

Mrs. Jeanette Lang chaperoned the affair.

An engagement of interest is that of Miss Penelope Gehr to Mr. Lawrence Hull. The news was made known last week at an informal tea for which Miss Gehr was hostess in Portland.

Miss Gehr is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mr. Hull was also graduated here and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

Fifteen couples enjoyed the informal dancing party given by the underclassmen of Lambda Psi Saturday night.

The decorations were of a Hallowe'en nature. Mr. E. R. Abercrombie, and Mr. and Mrs. Durgan were patrons and patroness for the affair.

The initiated girls of Alpha Xi Delta honored their pledges Friday with a dance at their house. Miss Camille Burton danced the "Charleston" as the feature of the evening.

Mrs. Charles A. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Douglass, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly and Mr. James Baker were patrons and patronesses.

Still another dance given for the pledges at which jack o' lanterns and orange streamers were used to create the Hallowe'en atmosphere was that of Alpha Delta Pi, Friday evening.

Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mrs. Prudence Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fish were patron and patronesses.

Saturday evening the members of Friendly hall entertained with a barn dance at the hall. The orchestra played in an improvised horse stall and old lanterns were used as lights. Straw, baled-hay, pumpkins and cornstalks were arranged about the rooms.

"That's a clean, neat, intelligent piece of work"

THE professor continues, "Perhaps other papers were equally intelligent, but their merit was obscured by illegible penmanship. If everybody would learn to use a portable typewriter, it would save your time and mine and relieve me from the drudgery of reading longhand."

Neat, legible, typewritten manuscript keeps the "profs" in perfect "reading humor." And perfect "reading humor" tends to mean better marks. Then too, a writing machine for your personal use is helpful in compiling your notes, and in writing those letters home.

The New Remington Portable is preferred by students because it is the lightest, smallest, and most compact of all standard keyboard portables.

We will gladly show you this machine and explain our easy payment plan.
