

Hayward Field Staff Is Selected By Moeser; To Report Tomorrow

Nearly 100 men, all members of either the athletic managerial staffs, Oregon Knights, To-Ko-Lo or Gra-Kos, will report to Hayward field at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow to do administrative work before and during the game.

Each man has been selected for the special work he is to do, and has been assigned a definite place by Ray Moeser, athletic manager, who declared the failure of a single man to report would materially weaken the staff.

The men are not to participate in the rooters' stunts, as they will be kept busy elsewhere. They are to report to their captains when reaching the field at 11:30.

The complete roster follows:

Ticket committee—Ken Stephenson, chairman; Bob Love, Jimmy Johnson, Carrol Williams, Bill Prudhomme, Burton Nelson, Forrest Wright, Wade Newbegin, Allen Boyden, Vern Dale, Ben Souther, Tom Montgomery, Ronald McCreight, Elton Gant, John Nelson, Roy Weaver, Bur Abner, Ronald Christie, George Schade, Fred Joy, John Sherman, Larry Osterman, Lester Olson, Bob Heitkemper, John Hendren, Bruce Fenton, Reg Mortimer, Ab Lawrence, Fred Ziebrith, Don Grilley.

Ushers—Dave Adolph, chairman; Merton Folts, Verne Folts, John Davis, Art Priaulx, Red Wright,

The final rehearsal for the Oregon bleacher stunt will be held tomorrow morning at 9:00 a. m. in the new grandstand. The stunt will be run off as it is to be presented during the game, and it is necessary that 400 men be present for the practice.

Tickets admitting students to this section will be checked and given out to those attending the turnout, according to Paul Sletton and Fred Hendricks, who are in charge of the stunt.

Previous practices of this stunt have pointed out the fact that if a full turnout is present, the act works smoothly and gives a very effective appearance and the committee is counting on a "400" attendance, Saturday morning.

SIGNIFICANT DECREASE IN INFIRMARY NUMBER

That word "Pajamarino!" Somehow, it gives Dr. F. N. Miller of the dispensary, the shivers. "It suggests undue exposure, and we anticipate quite a crop of sick ones after the week-end," he said in emphasizing the need of students taking better care of themselves during the two or three days of festivities now upon us!

"We probably won't have anyone, or, at most, only a few at the infirmary, Saturday, the number already having decreased to practically none. As long as anyone can hobble about at all, he won't come near here, for fear that we will order him to bed, but as soon as the game is over, we'll probably have a full house," he went on, as though speaking from past experience.

Perhaps more care will be taken when the students remember that doctors at the dispensary, as well as anywhere in town, have authority to issue statements that students have been under their care, when ill, and not to excuse them.

Students must secure tickets for the Homecoming game at the Co-op in order to be admitted to the rooting sections. Last year students delayed securing these tickets until the last day when a long line was waiting when it came time to start the game. Marion McClain, manager of the Co-op requests that as many as possible secure their tickets today.
