

FRESHMAN TEAM TO GET HONORS

First Year Grid Men Win Two of Three Games

Players Bid for Places On 1926 Varsity Team

By Dick Syring

Twenty-seven freshman football players, who with the rest of the squad have toiled ceaselessly for the past two months through all kinds of weather through the past football season, have been recommended by Coach Earl "Spike" Leslie, to receive numerals. These men either participated in one or both of the two inter-collegiate games played this season.

The freshman football team played three games. The first with the University of Washington babes on Hayward field, October 31, resulted in the Washington green-cappers taking home the long end of the score 12 to 7. The second game on Armistice Day was played at Roseburg against the American Legion eleven. The yearling second team made the trip and won a decisive victory 21 to 0. In the final game of the schedule the yearlings lost to the heavy but fast O. A. C. Rook eleven, 9 to 7.

In all of these games the first year men out-fought their opponents in all departments of the game. The Washington game was practically won until the last three minutes when the baby Huskies succeeded in completing a long pass. The Aggie Rook game was another tussle where the yearling's opponents got many breaks.

A number of valuable players will be ready to step up and probably fill the holes left in this year's varsity ranks. Cadwell, Sandvall and Klippel will be aspirants for the passer-back position.

Flegel and Thompson are two promising guards. A big gap in the line will be left by the graduation of Gene Shields and Ken Bailey, varsity guards. Martin and De Mott, tackles, should be strong contenders for line positions. Martin is a punter of remarkable ability. Grear, Slauson and Pope, ends, are all fast. The absence of Captain Bob Mautz on right end will be hard to fill. Woodie and Wilson are quarterbacks, who, according to the coach, should develop into varsity players. Gould, Hagan, Gooden, Burnell and Eddie, halfbacks, are all likely varsity candidates.

The men who have been recommended for numerals are: Klippel, Cadwell and Sandvall, centers;

Flegel, Thompson, Winters, Akers and Caughells, guards; Martin, De Mott and Nosler, tackles; Slauson, Pope, Grear and Jamison, ends; Woodie and Wilson, quarterbacks; and Gould, Hagan, Gooden, Goulke, Eddie, Burnell, Coles, Llewellyn, Green and Ostrum, halfbacks.

C. D. MORRIS EX-EDITOR TALKS TO EDITING CLASS

C. D. Morris, former editor of the St. Joseph Gazette, St. Joseph, Mo., spoke to Dean Eric W. Allen's editing class at the regular class hour yesterday, on the functions of a newspaper.

Mr. Morris, who began his journalistic career setting type by hand when a boy, was a member of the board of regents, at the University of Missouri when the school of journalism was established there. Successful newspapers are relying more and more upon the schools of journalism to supply them with men and women, trained in the profession, said Mr. Morris.

For 35 years Mr. Morris was a newspaper man. He is now assistant chairman of the Western Railway Committee on Public Relations, and is visiting Eugene in that capacity.

MY DEAREST ANNE:
Am really thrilled about this Thanksgiving, even though it's too darn far to go home. Five of us are going to cook a real Thanksgiving dinner at Beth's apartment, and of course we are asking our men. Beth has made arrangements to get a big goose at The Palace Market, and we're buying mince meat there, too, for our home-made pies. They are going to have chickens, geese, and turkeys for next week at this meat market.

Do You Think That Mr. Atlas Had the Right Idea?
THAT'S not our notion. What man wants to feel like Atlas, the African King, who, according to the olden fable, supported the world upon his shoulders? A so-called "heavy-weight" Overcoat can be as light as a top coat, if the cloth is specially woven, and especially if it's band-tailored.

And since we are using Beth's apartment for our dinner, we thought she might appreciate something to decorate her console table. So we bought her an amber glass candy box with compartments, at the Little Shop Around the Corner. Also we are filling it with candy to make it more interesting!

Bargains again! The Red Cross Drug Store is having a sale this Friday and Saturday of lots of their first class stock, and the best part is the "Grab Bag." Every purchaser buying a dollar's worth of merchandise gets a bag filled with samples and a surprise. Everybody's going down for one.

The Co-ed Barber Shop is always busy, but you never have to wait a bit long there, because they cut hair perfectly in such a few minutes. It's right back of the Co-op, you know, and we run down there between classes to get the best cuts on the campus.

You remember The Cupboard, that clever little store I was telling you about, run by Dorris and Smith, at the Leven Oak Service Station. This was the parody I wrote last week about it: Madam de Hubbard, She went to "The Cupboard" To get her dear hubby a snack. And when she got there, so well Did she fare, that she took Most the whole Cupboard back.

Hasting's have a new addition to their establishment in "Frank, the barber." He used to be at Swearing's, and is so popular not only because of his hair-cuts, which are marvelous, but also because he is so good looking and keeps one amused with his clever remarks.

I watched them make some delicious lemon pies at Underwood & Elliott's kitchen, which is run in connection with their store. They made my mouth water so, I just had to have one, and we girls ate it in about two minutes. We always buy our pies and cakes from Underwood & Elliott, because it's close to the campus, and they have the tastiest things.

Do you remember the vanities we used to carry to our first parties and to dancing school? Well, Tippie and I were in Wetherbee-Densmore's the other day, and we discovered a darling black taffeta one bound with blue and gold braid, and a doll's head smiling from the side. Simply couldn't resist it, so I now have it in my possession. If you want one, I'll get it for you. Now must go to that crazy class.
Yours,
CAROL.
