

GEOLOGY BIBLIOGRAPHY OF STATE REVISED

A bibliography of the geology of Oregon has recently been completed by Dorothy Dixon, graduate student in the geology department, and will be published soon by the University as one of the publications included in the series of scientific papers.

The complete subject index and cross reference index contained in the bibliography will prove exceedingly valuable to anyone working in the geology of the state. The bibliography as it now stands is in part that which was published in 1912 and continued by Rachel Husband. This has been carefully revised and the subject matter brought up to date by Miss Dixon.

Work on the paper was carried on under the supervision of the geology department and the latter part of the bibliography was directed by Mr. M. H. Douglass, librarian.

court. He intends to use all ten men in the two games.

"Tuffy" Chastain, all-state forward from Medford, is living up to his title. In the recent doughnut basketball games he was the Phi Delt's high point man. "Gord" Bidings, all-state forward from University high is another whirlwind on the basketball floor. He is a cousin of "Red" Bidings of O. A. C. basketball fame and seems to possess all of "Red's" tricks. "Scotty" Milligin, all-state guard from Eugene, is a tall lanky player who covers much of the floor. Claire Scallon, all-state forward and all-Portland forward, who has just entered the University, is considered one of the best hoop ringers turned out by the Portland high schools. For the past few weeks he has been playing with the strong Multnomah club five.

Prospects for Victory Good

According to Coach Leslie the prospects for a winning team look very good. With the abundance of all-star material, his one big job is to get them all playing the same style of basketball. The recent final examinations did not affect the basketball squad to a great extent. However, three good prospects, Martin, DaMert and Green, were lost through failure to make the scholastic requirements. Basketball practice is now being held daily for two hours in order to whip the team into shape before the big games of the schedule are played.

The yearling basketball schedule is now being arranged. It will include two games, perhaps four, with the Oregon Aggie Rooks, and possibly a series with the University of Washington babes. Strong high school fives, and several minor college teams will be met.

Men making the trip are: Keith Emmons, Mervyn Chastain, Gordon Bidings, Joe Bally, Scott Milligin, Claire Scallon, Dave Epps, Bernard Hummelt, Donald McCormick and Ted Pope.

tales than a human craft voluntarily rudderless, drift on the turbulent tide of destiny.

"Tradition is not alone a monument to mark the burying place of memories but an inspiration to help build the things of tomorrow. We should kindle the fire of today in order to be assured of light for the time to come."

In conclusion Mr. Dana declared, "The University is not only the University of Oregon, but the University of you, and the state in which it is established is the state of you."

Dean John Straub presided at the assembly; and Eugene Carr, instructor in the school of music, presented two baritone solos.

Story of Selection of Coach Is Outlined By Athletic Officials guard. Diek Smith 1903-04 Columbia, fullback.

John J. McEwan 1913-14 West Point, center.

And all of them were selected by the late Walter Camp. The profession of coaches is stopped by McEwan who begins the "new era of athletics" for Oregon with his five year contract. He brings with him a colorful and impressive record.

Seldom has a university received so much publicity from the selection of a coach. Columns have been written about his acceptance of the position at Oregon in every paper in the country. From Maine to the Coast, clippings concerning Captain McEwan have been received by Virgil Earl.

The Biggest Watch Sale Ever Held in Eugene
