College folk found the past week-end filled with formal dances, teas, initiations and other smaller affairs.

Aside from all the more or less "expected" affairs, there have been a score of other worth-while attractions such as Sousa's band, the lecture by Sherwood Anderson and the Mu Phi Epsilon concert last week.

Considerable interest is being shown in Mr. Schreff's annual exhibit of paintings which will be open for the remainder of this week.

A lovely tea of Saturday afternoon was that for which members of Sigma Beta Phi were hostesses at Alumni hall in honor of their house mother, Mrs. J. Warren Kays, and their patronesses, who are Mrs. Alfred L. Lomax, Mrs. Louis E. Bean and Mrs. Alonzo E. Roberts.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Clara Fitch, Mrs. H. G. Tanner and Mrs. Henry W. Davis. Miss Mildred Hawes and Mrs. Louis L. Simpson assisted in receiving.

An interesting event of Friday evening was the "Bootlegger's Ball," given by juniors of Kappa Sigma and Phi Delta Theta at the house of the former.

The huge "bar" was perhaps the most effective part of the decorations and in addition to this there were many bottles, kegs, jugs and other relics of former days.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mr. Del Stannard were patrons and patronesses.

The Hotel Osburn was the scene of the Alpha Chi Omega formal dinner-dance Saturday evening from 7 until 12.

Patrons and patronesses were Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mrs. Anna C. Hart, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly and Mr. Robert Hunt.

Spring flowers, ivy and other greenery adorned the Gamma Phi Beta chapter house for their formal grille dance Saturday.

The programs were of white kid with the sorority crest embossed in gold. A number of out-of-town girls attended the dance and were entertained at the house during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mrs. Bruce Bogart, Mrs. Josephine Stewart and Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly were chaperones.

An attractive affair among the week-end dances was the formal dinner-dance of Alpha Omicron Pi at the Eugene Hotel Friday evening.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mrs. Lucy Abrams, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Miss Laura Hurd and Mrs. Katrina McDonald.

Mrs. Henry Sheldon was hostess for an informal tea Thursday afternoon, entertaining members of Pi Lambda Theta for their monthly tea.

The Delta Zeta house was transformed into an ice palace as the setting for their formal dance Saturday evening.

A Russian ballet dance was given as a feature dance of the evening. Guests of the house were alumni of the chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Husband, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Thomas O'Day, Mrs. Eugene Holmes and

Mrs. Grace Russell were patrons and patronesses for the event.

Members of Alpha Delta Pi gave an informal dance Saturday evening at their chapter house on University street.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Packard chaperoned the dance.

As a courtesy to Miss Laura Hurd, of Seattle, past grand president of Alpha Omicron Pi, and Mrs. Katrina McDonald, the present grand president, members of the campus chapter gave an informal tea at their house Thursday afternoon.

Receiving were Mrs. McDonald, Miss Hurd, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Lucy Abrams and Mrs. Arthur Miner.

Members of Alpha Xi Delta entertained their patrons and patronesses at a dinner party last Thursday evening at their chapter house.

UNIVERSITY HI TEAM IN CHAMPIONSHIP LINE

The University high school basketball team leaves Eugene Friday to play Roseburg. If it wins there, and in the near future beats Cottage Grove and Albany, it will play Eugene to determine which will be sent to the state tournament, held at Salem.

The present team deserves a great deal of credit for not a player is over 16 years old and all are small boys in height and weight.
