Piping Hot Roast Beef

There's only one place besides home where you can get that good old roast beef—the Peter Pan. Roast beef is our one "all the year 'round special" and believe me you'll never taste anything better. Tender and juicy with creamy brown gravy—well it just can't be beat!

Rally Cook's Getting Good

It will start the day off with a bang to serve the gang with "Little Pig" sausages and hot cakes. It puts punch into everyone's pep. The simplest kind of thing to prepare—link sausages are fried until brown and dripping with savory seasoning, such as we put into all our prepared meats. Served hot with a stock of "hots," you could wish for nothing more.

We put only the best of meat into our sausages and are very particular with the seasoning.

A Meal That Tempts You

When you are weary of fried and roasted meat—try a pot roast of beef. A cut from the shoulder is very nice for this recipe. The meat is sprinkled lightly with flour and placed in a hot kettle in which an onion has been fried. Sprinkle the meat with seasonings and, tightly covered, cook it over a low fire until it is tender. One hour for each pound of meat is usually required. The fat in the pan makes a most delicious brown sauce.

We understand what a house manager faces when it comes to planning meals. We are in the meat business, and it is our pleasure to help you solve the problem.

A Red-Letter "Fish Day"

Why eat fried salmon when so many varieties of fish can be had? One of the most delicious dishes to be prepared from fish is baked white fish—stuffed and served with white sauce. The delicately browned fish and the white sauce sprinkled with paprika makes an attractive and delicious dish.

We keep our fish supply always freshly stocked. Let us suggest some other different fish dishes for you.
