

Nominees to be Named Today at League Meeting

April Frolic Chairman to Outline Final Plans for Spring Fete

An important Women's League mass meeting will be held this afternoon at 5:10 in Villard Hall, which all campus women are urged to attend. The primary purpose of the meeting is the report of the nominating committee, consisting of Dorothy Myers, chairman, Eloise Buck, Imogene Lewis, Ellen McClellan and Margaret Boyer, which will submit a list names for Women's League officers for the next year. Anne DeWitt, president, is very anxious that women in the audience feel free to make any nominations from the floor.

The officers to be nominated are, president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, serpent-at-arms and reporter. Reports will be given from standing committees, and the final plans for April Frolic will be outlined by Louise Inabnit, general chairman of that affair. Musical numbers will be given by Alma Lawrence and Adelaide Johnson.

Election of the newly nominated officers will take place Tuesday, April 6th. The retiring president, Anna DeWitt, and the president for next year will attend a Women's Convention at the Southern Branch of the University of California at Los Angeles which will be held about the middle of the spring term.

The last Women's League executive council meet was held Tuesday evening in the Woman's Building. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's Clubs was present and told the members of the council of the work of the larger state organization, of which Women's League is a member. Two movements which are of special interest to college people which the Federation has been forwarding are the Doernbecker Hospital drive in Portland and the Scholarship Loan Fund. Over $27,000 is available in the fund for college women who need financial help, Mrs. Dunbar said.

Rosebraugh Winner in Oxford Athletics

Arthur Rosebraugh, '24, winner of the Rhodes scholarship that year, won the third prize in the low hurdle at Oxford, according to a letter just received from Colonel John Leader. His time was 25 2-5 seconds. This puts him in line for an Oxford "blue," which corresponds to our "O" here in athletic achievements. The "blue" hadn't been officially granted to Rosebraugh at the time the letter was written, but it was expected to be given the last part of March. This is the first time that an Oregon man at Oxford has won this type of athletic honor.

Constance Cole of Portland, former University of Oregon student and member of Kappa Omicron sorority, arrived in Eugene last week and is studying art under Prof. N. B. Zane.

Howard E. Powers, graduate student at the University, has received a fellowship at Harvard University where he will work for his doctor's degree.

The Portland extension class in elementary newswriting will be conducted alternately by R. D. Casey and George Turnbull, professors in the school of journalism, this term. The class was taught last term by Mr. Turnbull and fall term by Mr. Casey.

Mrs. Lucy Perkins, curator of the Warner Museum and house mother of Alpha Delta Pi, is now in Seattle. She is expected on the campus about April 7.

Arthur H. Kent, assistant professor of law at the University of Oregon, recently accepted an appointment to become a member of the teaching staff of the University of Michigan law school during the summer session. Prof. Kent, who will leave in June for Ann Arbor, will teach classes in Bills and Notes.

Four Alpha Xi Delta girls from the University of Washington were guests of the local chapter for two days during spring vacation. The visitors were Lois Laundson, Phyllis Kemper, Katherine Higgins and Thelma Parker.

Dr. Edwin T. Hodge is expected to return today from Lake County where he spent spring vacation. Dr. Hodge is interested in the geology of the Cascade and coast regions.

Ruth Corey of Marshfield, sophomore in the school of education, has resumed her work at the University. Miss Corey, who is a resident of Susan Campbell hall was forced to withdraw from school last term on account of ill health.

Miss Margaret Carter, ex-'25, will teach Latin and English at Gold Hill, near Medford, next fall. At present Miss Carter is teaching at Cottage Grove.

Emma Stephenson, a former member of the University library staff who is now working in the Spokane Public Library was a campus visitor yesterday. Miss Stephenson was called home because of the illness of her father.

Georgia Shipley, '25, from San Francisco, is visiting the Gamma Phi Beta house. She arrived on the campus Monday and plans to spend the week here.

Gordon Wilson, ex-'25, was on the campus for several days at the first of the month. Mr. Wilson is collegiate supervisor for the Real Silk Hosiery mills of Indianapolis.

Real Estate, Marketing, Advertising, Talked at Convention

At the state convention of secretaries of Chambers of Commerce which met on the campus during vacation under the auspices of the school of business administration, such subjects as real estate, marketing, advertising and the problems of unpaid secretaries were discussed. Noon luncheons were furnished the various service clubs in Eugene, the Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary and Chamber of Commerce. In the afternoons, round table groups were formed and in the evenings there were informal programs around the fireplace.

A feature of the convention was the series of five lectures on "Human Nature in Business" given by Irving E. Vining, president of the state Chamber of Commerce. For the accommodation of the townspeople, the addresses were given down town in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Two of the delegates, Mary Hathaway of Oregon City, and Joanna Beard, of Albany, were women. Miss Hathaway, a graduate of Oregon, received her B. A. degree from the school of business administration in 1925. While on the campus she was prominent in activities, and won the Gerlinger cup in her junior year.

Y.M.C.A. Report Shows Increase in Student Jobs

Earnings Gain $2,107 Over First Two Terms of Last Year

Mrs. Donnelly Interested in Foreign Scholars

Compilation of the record of activity of the University employment bureau, which is conducted by Mrs. C. R. Donnelly at the Y. M. C. A. hut, shows the total earnings of University men who have obtained work through the bureau during the fall and winter terms of this school year to have surpassed those of last year for the same period of time by $2,107.

The regular jobs during the winter term this year amounted to $12,468, and the odd jobs to approximately $900, making a total of $13,368 for the term. In the fall term this year the regular jobs brought $13,003 and the odd jobs approximately $3,000, or a total of $16,003. There were 129 men employed regularly during the fall term and 119 during the winter term.

Foreign Students Work

The foreign students, in whom Mrs. Donnelly takes a special interest, made a total of $4,110 in the fall term, and have made about $4,400 this last term. Of those employed, 28 were Filipinos, two were Japanese, and one Chinese.

"There aren't so many men working now because these hasn't been near the work this term that there was last," said Mrs. Donnelly in discussing the work of her bureau. "And then you can't tell about the amount for the odd jobs," she continued. "For example a boy whom we had sent on an odd job came in to me some time ago and said he had been working five days on that one job, so you see we can't tell just what they do make."

"I wish I knew what the total student employment amounts to. What we have is yet a drop in the bucket. And yet I am simply appalled when I go to add the figures up every year."

Statistics filed away in the office of the employment bureau show better than anything else the steadily increasing scope and importance of its work on the campus. In 1921, when Mrs. Donnelly was first connected with the work, then as an assistant to her son, Hal Donnelly, student secretary, the total year's employment amounted to approximately $10,000, and in the following year to $20,000. In 1923 the total employment was $27,896; in 1924, $36,074; and in 1925, $39,349. The total for the first two terms this year is $27,264, or practically as much as the employment for the entire year in 1923.

"I am glad to do this work," said

Mrs. Donnelly enthusiastically. "I taught for 21 years at Wooster college in Ohio, and I would much rather do this. There is the contact with the boys, and especially I am in a position where I can do something for the foreign students. I first came here to help my son. I was lonely after having worked with young people for so many years. Then my son went east and the advisory board asked me to stay, so I stayed."

Mrs. Donald Barnes has been ill for about a week from an injury received while on a vacation hiking trip.

Buy Properly Aged Meats

It is a popular idea that the fresher the beef you buy — the more tender. If it were killed and dressed today, then tomorrow it should be cut up and sold. That is a fallacy. Beef must be aged—hung up in a proper temperature for the proper length of time — to be at its best — its most tender and delicious state.

Tang O' the Sea Clam Chowder

Tang O' the Sea Clam Chowder is a home made product from Rockaway Beach — an Oregon product. It contains all the ingredients of clam chowder except salt and pepper which are added to suit the taste. After it is heated, it is ready to serve.

We sampled this chowder before we would buy it. We found it to be delicious and on a par with the rest of our foods of which we carry none but the best. We are sole agents for Tang O' the Sea Clam Chowder in Eugene. If you like clam chowder or clam soup, you should try this by all means. It comes in 16-oz. tins only.
