Canoe Fete Tickets Go on Sale April 20 Kuykendall's, Co-op

Tickets for the canoe fete will be on sale April 20 at Kuykendall's drug store and at the Co-op. This early date was decided upon to prevent a last minute rush and to make it possible for those townspeople and others, who in the past have found difficulty in getting their seats, to buy their tickets early and so make sure their possibility of procuring a seat.

All the permanent bleacher seats will be reserved and will be on sale for 50 cents. Others which will be put up temporarily on the night of the fete and which will sell for approximately 1000 will be on sale for 25 cents. Booths will be erected at which general admission tickets will be sold.

Ushering will be worked under a system this year. Regular usher rehearsals will be held under the guidance of Kirk Bolliger.

Dick Reed to Tangle With Williams Tonight

Dick Reed, former Oregon football captain, will again enter the boxing arena tonight when he meets Sailor Mike Williams of Portland in a six round special event at the winter garden. Reed won his first professional fight here recently by an early knockout.

Dance Drama Has Atmosphere of Colorful and Dreamlike Fairyland

Moods Range From "Midsummer Night's Dream" to "Song of the Volga Bargemen"

Naiads, fairies and swans danced on the stage of the McDonald theater in the third annual dance drama given by Orchestis last night. In the first episode of the "Midsummer Nights Dream" the first fairy of Titania's train wandered in the woods, and met Puck. Titania and her fairy train entered and Oberon and his elves came in to beg Titania for the Changeling Boy. Titania refused to give him up. Oberon vowed to torment her and called Puck to get the flower Love-in-Idleness.

Regularity of Job Aim, Says Labor Authority

Contrary to the general belief that the mighty dollar is uppermost in the mind of the laborer, Whiting Williams, idealist, scholar, and nationally known authority on the problems of the working man, yesterday told 2500 students and members of the faculty at the first assembly of the term that it is not so much the pay, but the regularity of the job, and the certain spiritual satisfaction the man feels in his indispensableness as proved by his job that is vital to the working man.

"Irregular work, tends to make an irregular worker," Mr. Williams declared. "The laborer, like everyone else, lives his way into his thoughts, more than he thinks his way into his life. The laborer can see life only as a result of his job."

Week-End Discussed By Juniors at Meeting

Reports of progress on plans were made by various committee chairmen of junior week-end at the junior class meeting in Villard hall yesterday evening. It was decided that a class picnic will supplant the usual class dance this term. Hugh Biggs was appointed chairman of the affair, and Katherine Graef, assistant. Professor George Turnbull, class advisor, made a brief address.

Capable Candidates Vie for Berths as Pitchers and Catchers

Only One of Seven Fingers is Southpaw

Wealth of Material Out for Backstop Job

If old-time baseball men are right in believing that a good battery is half the team, Coach Billy Reinhart should have little trouble in turning out a winner this year. A corps of 12 battery men are turning out daily for practice and some of them are showing good stuff.

Song Leaders Appointed for Living Groups

Committee Asks Houses To Observe Practices During Week

The song leader for each house on the campus is being asked by the committee for "Song Week" to cooperate in putting the practice week across with punch and good spirit, since the success of the whole affair depends upon them.

Williams is Guest Of Faculty at Lunch

Members of the faculty of the University were hosts at a luncheon at the Anchorage yesterday noon to Whiting Williams, sociologist, writer and lecturer, who spoke at yesterday's assembly.

Oregon Nine's Strength Lies in Batterymen

Sub-committees Will Assist Directorate in Making Arrangements

About Seventy-Five Appointments Made

Completed Personnel Soon To be Announced

Appointments of sub-committee to serve with the Junior Week-end committee were completed yesterday as far as possible. The directorate, in appointing the respective committees, is now ready to start work on every phase of the event. There are still two or three committees which have not been appointed but which will be announced in the near future.

Harrison Gains Control

"Frisky" Harrison, who did his initial mound work last year for the varsity is in better form than last year. Harrison's big trouble last year was his control. With last summer's semi-pro experience behind him he seems to have overcome this fault. New in this position, but familiar to all is Fred West, last year's varsity shortstop, who is making a strong bid for a living position. West worked in the Idaho game last year at Moscow and had the Vandals fanning the air for a few innings.

Bill Baker, moundsman last year for the freshmen moundsmen, is showing up well. Last summer Baker turned in a number of wins while pitching for the Independence ball club. Bill Ashby, member of the 1924 freshman team and since one of the mainstays for the Salem Senators, is pitching good ball and should receive the pitching assignment for several games. Walter Fenwick, member of last year's varsity squad, is shooting the ball over the plate in good shape. Bill Bamber, only southpaw turning out, is shooting some fast ones over. Bamber was a member of last year's freshman team.

Behind the plate Coach Reinhart has five capable receivers. Jack Bliss, member of the varsity for the past two years, is out with his usual good form and chatter. George Minnaugh, catcher and outfielder from the 1925 varsity, is showing good form, Charles Orr, second string catcher for the past two years, is working hard for a varsity berth. From last year's freshman team the coach has Bob Henningsen and John Coughell, both capable backstops.

Send-Emerald-Home Cavass Flourishes

THE Send-the-Emerald-Home drive is to end tomorrow. Thus far the circulation department reports very good results. All students wishing to subscribe are urged to do so before Saturday, either with house representatives or at the Emerald business office. Extra copies of the Emerald are being saved this week so that the new subscribers will not miss any issues. After this week no extra copies will be saved.

Plans Made for Leap Week at Senior Meeting

First Annual Class "Sing" Next Week; Picnic Discussed

The first annual senior "sing" to be held in connection with the campus "Song Week" was voted last night at the senior meeting, at 5 o'clock in Villard hall.

A committee, consisting of Bob Hunt, Carl Dahl and Esther Davis, appointed by president Bob Gardner to arrange the time and manner of the "sing", decided, in a meeting immediately following the class meeting, that Wednesday evening preceding the musical assembly on Thursday would be the time, and that the event should take place from 7:30 to 8:00 around the senior bench before the library steps when all the seniors should gather in a group and sing the Oregon songs.

At the class meeting, Imogene Lewis, chairman of the Leap Week committee, outlined the schedule for the week, beginning April 14th, and offered a tentative plan for Open House. Details of the order in which the girls' houses will go is yet to be arranged.

The schedule for Leap Week, as outlined, is:

Wednesday night—Open House.
Thursday afternoon—Bow-Wow Brawl, Tri Delt House.
Thursday night—Open for individual dates.
Friday afternoon—Coffee Bust, Kappa Kappa Gamma house.
Friday night—Bar Room Bust, Hendricks Hall.

Saturday—Beginning about 3:30, Saturday picnic and dance.

Transportation will be provided by the class for the Coburg picnic, which will be a no date affair and will extend into the evening, when the class party will take place in the form of a dance.

Announcement was made by the president that invitations for commencement may now be obtained at the Co-op. He also announced that if any functions were being planned that involved the use of caps and gowns that notification should be given the Co-op in advance so that they would be available. A $5.00 deposit will be necessary on the caps and gowns, $2.50 of which will be refunded when they are returned.

Freshman Class to Meet This Afternoon

At a meeting of the freshmen class to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in Villard hall, 40 numerals will be awarded for football, basketball and swimming, says Arthur Anderson, class president.

It is important that all freshmen attend this meeting as a general discussion concerning nominations for class officers for next year will be held. Nominations will be made at a later date in the month, according to the announcement.

Old Oregon to Print Sketch of J. H. Gilbert

Mrs. Grace Edgington Jordan, '16, is writing a character sketch and an estimate of Dean James H. Gilbert, acting dean of the college of literature, science, and the arts, and head of the department of economics. The article will be published in the next issue of Old Oregon as one of the series entitled "Under the Gargoyles."

Regents Vote Extra Money For Pavilion

Board Allows Expenditure For Improvement of Girl's Field

Changes Recommended In Infirmary Structure

Outdoor Gymnasium To Have Handball Courts

The building committee of the board of regents at a meeting Wednesday allowed money to build a basement under the new basketball pavilion to house the outside athletics, money to build four new handball courts, grade a freshman baseball field, to finish the women's athletic field and build a track on it, it became known yesterday. Plans to build a new hospital for the health service were abandoned.

Under the plans adopted by the building committee of the associated students for the new basketball pavilion the building would be built on the ground with no basement. The building committee of the board of regents allowed money to the students' building committee to build a basement under the pavilion. The basement will be 80 by 160 feet and will give ample room for the housing of the outside sports. Lockers, showers and equipment rooms for the sports will be built in. This is more room than is now available in the old building and will also give more room for the physical education department.

Basketball Courts to Be First

Enough money is not available to build and finish the entire basement but room for the basketball squad will be finished first.

Four new handball courts will be built in the outdoor gymnasium. They will be built on the plan of the present courts but will be of better material and will have a better system of ventilation. This will double the present capacity for handball and squash.

A baseball field will be graded for the freshmen just northwest of the present varsity field. This will put all the baseball fields together.

Girls' Field to Be Finished

Money was also allowed to finish the women's athletic field that has been started just south of the Woman's building. The field will be (Continued on page four)

Faith Priddy to Go On European Tour With Student Group

The University of Oregon will be represented in the second annual student pilgrimage to Europe during the coming summer by Faith Priddy, of Salem, Oregon, a senior major in sociology who entered this year from Willamette University.

Miss Priddy was active in Y. W. C. A. work on the Willamette campus, being among the students who attended the Seabeck conference last summer. Due to her interest in students of other countries and a desire to do social service work after graduating, she was given the opportunity to apply for membership in the party of 24 women.

The party will sail from New York about June 23 according to present plans, and it is possible that they may travel on the same ship with the Sherwood Eddy party. Miss Henrietta Thompson, of Berkeley, California, secretary of the committee on friendly relations with foreign students, will act as one of the two guides on the pilgrimage.
