The April Frolic and Men's Smoker, which occupied their annually important places in the University events, attracted numberless alumni and out-of-town guests to the campus this past week-end. Matinee and breakfast dances, informal and formal evening affairs, and afternoon teas made the social calendar for the week-end a gay and busy one. Spring was prevalent in the decorations as well as in the type of entertainments given.

Springtime blossoms formed artistic decorations for a tea given by the Delta Delta Delta girls Thursday afternoon in Alumni hall, honoring their visiting delegate, Mrs. L. L. Thompson of Tacoma, Washington. Two hundred faculty and townswomen called between the hours of three and five o'clock.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mrs. R. A. Booth, Mrs. R. A. Sweetser, Mrs. Beatrice Fitzsimmons, Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Katharine Reade and Delia Sherwood. Mrs. George W. Coisan, Mrs. E. W. Ellis, Miss Carmen Espinosa, Mrs. Martha Spafford and Miss Germaine Corrier poured.

Pauline Knowland, Alice Jean McClellan and Alma Lawrence gave a musical program for the afternoon.

A surprise to their friends was the announcement of the engagement of Dorothy Dodge and Ralph H. Olson, the news being told at the dinner hour Saturday evening at the Alpha Omicron Pi house. The table was decorated with a bouquet of red roses and lavender tulips for the centerpiece in the center of which was a large heart. At each place was a key. Running from the key to the heart was a ribbon on the end of which were the names of the couple.

Miss Dodge is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Dodge of Portland and is a senior in the school of social work in Portland.

Mr. Olson is a senior in the school of forestry at Oregon Agricultural college and a member of Sigma Pi fraternity.

The date for the wedding has not been announced.

The To-Ko-Lo formal dance given Friday night at the Woman's club building, was attended by 50 couples, both members and alumni. Scotch Broom, apple and other spring blossoms were used in the decorations. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker.

The Eugene Country club was attractively decorated with shrubs and greenery for the Alpha Xi Delta informal dance Friday evening. Eight out-of-town guests enjoyed the affair with the local group. Patrons and patronesses were, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McClain, Mrs. Yerex, and Mrs. Charles Grey.

The Sigma Nu house was the scene of an informal dance given jointly by the sophomores of the Kappa Sigma house and the Sigma Nu houses Friday evening. Ronald Kretzer and Beryl Hogden sang during the evening. Patrons and patronesses were, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, and Mrs. and Mrs. Wilson B. Coffey.

At a luncheon given in Portland Friday, Katherine DeForest Henderson announced her engagement to Victor Risley, '25. Miss Henderson is a member of Gamma Phi Beta and Mr. Risley is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta and was prominent while on the campus.

The wedding is to take place May 20.

Kappa Alpha Theta was hostess for a matinee dance at the chapter house Saturday morning. Spring flowers added color to the rooms. Several out-of-town guests enjoyed the hospitality of the girls.

Mrs. Mabel Foulkes, Miss Fanny McCamant and Mrs. Lettie Mowrey were patronesses.

The girls of Alpha Gamma Delta were hostesses Friday evening for an informal spring dance. Wild flowers and vines, artistically placed, formed the main decorations, while the doorways were latticed with apple blossoms. The feature of the evening was a dance by Henryetta Munney. Mrs. Oscar Hater and Mrs. R. C. Marsh were patronesses.

Apple blossoms formed an attractive background for the Chi Omega informal dance given at the Anchorage Friday evening. Two feature dances, one by Bettie Pratt and Rose Roberts, and the other by Camille Barton, added to the enjoyment of the evening. About 14 out-of-town guests enjoyed the hospitality of the girls. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McClain, Miss Julia Burges, Mr. and Mrs. Melville, and Mrs. L. E. Woodring.

A Japanese tea house and tea gardens formed the colorful background for the Alpha Omicron Pi breakfast dance given Saturday morning at the chapter house. One room was cleverly transformed into the tea house by use of grey walls and Japanese prints made by the girls. The other two rooms and porch were banked with flowering dogwood, Scotch broom, lilacs and hawthorne, and screens and drapes were used on the porch to complete the effect of a Japanese garden.

Mrs. Lucy Abrams was patroness for the affair.

The sophomores of the Alpha Chi Omega house were entertained with an informal dance Friday evening by the freshmen of the house. Pastel shades of colored tissue paper and confetti formed the attractive decorations. Dorothy Brown gave the feature dance for the evening. Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Manderud and Mrs. Anna C. Hart.

Thirty couples attended the Sigma Beta Phi formal dance given Friday night at the Eugene hotel. Tall palms hid the orchestra, and were grouped about in different parts of the two main dining rooms of the hotel.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were, Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly and Mrs. J. W. Kays.

Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalism fraternity, held initiation ceremonies for Alice Kraeft Sunday morning at the apartment of Grace and Minnie Fisher and Marian Lowry. A waffle breakfast followed the ceremonies, twelve members attending.

The Pi Beta Phi house was attractively decorated with apple blossoms for the breakfast dance at which the girls were hostesses Saturday morning. Dance programs were cleverly concealed within the place cards. Several out-of-town guests were present for the event. Mrs. F. W. Benson was patroness for the affair.

The members of Alpha Phi sorority entertained with a matinee dance at their home Saturday afternoon. Scotch broom, dog wood and flowers, placed about the room, emphasized the spring season. Coffee and wafers were served out on the terrace late in the afternoon. Ten out-of-town guests were present for the affair. Mrs. Henry W. Augustine was patroness.

Miss Mary J. Shelley and Miss Florence Jones, winners of the first prize and of honorable mention in the Edison Marshall short story contest recently, were the inspiration for a dinner party at which the girls of the Three Arts club were hostesses at their house Wednesday evening. Miss Irene Stewart winner of the second prize five years ago and Miss Margaret Skavlan, winner of the first prize three years ago, were honor guests. Tall white candles, dainty hand-painted placecards and a centerpiece of Japonica made the table very attractive.

The marriage of Helen Harper, ex-'25, to Vern Isom of Glendale California, took place last Tuesday evening in the bride's studio in the Columbia building, Portland. Mrs. Isom was prominent in musical circles while in the University. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Mr. Isom is a violinist of Los Angeles. They are to make their home in Glendale.

The Eugene hotel was the scene of the Delta Zeta breakfast Saturday morning. Sweet peas and wisteria of lavender and yellow formed the decorations. Ten out-of-town guests enjoyed the affair with the members of the house. Patrons and patronesses were, Major and Mrs. Bubb, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. O'Day and Mrs. Grace Russell.

The Girls Oregon Club was hostess for a silver tea given at Alumni hall Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:00. Proceeds from the affair are to go to the Fine Arts building fund. An interpretative dance by Helen Robson and Elda Wilson and a musical program were features of the afternoon. Mrs. George Rebec, Mrs. Harry B. Youcum and Mrs. E. H. McCallister

Funeral Services Held For Miss Hawes' Father

Funeral services for George L. Hawes, father of Mildred Hawes, instructor in English were held in Portland yesterday. Mr. Hawes died suddenly Saturday morning of heart trouble. He has been living in Eugene this year with his daughter, and has had fairly good health. Miss Hawes is the only child.

Miss Hawes English classes did not meet yesterday, but will meet the rest of this week under substitute instructors.

R.O.T.C. Bans Old High Collared Army Coats

The army coats of the type that Captain Murray, of the R.O.T.C. department is wearing, and which has been admired openly by the Seven Seers, have been officially approved by the Secretary of the War department since early in January, the captain said.

Captain Frank Culin, when asked the reason for the change, said that it was because of the discomfort of the high collar on the old type of coat.

Alfred Powers Head Of Oregon Council On Adult Education

Alfred Powers, dean of the extension division, was elected president of the Oregon council for adult education, at the conference held Saturday at the Portland central library building.

The conference, the first of its kind in Oregon, was attended by about 250 delegates including representatives from the University of Oregon extension division, Oregon Agricultural college, Library association of Portland, state department of public instruction, Portland Labor college, state supervision of industrial education and the state board of Americanization.

The adult education movement is world-wide, according to Dr. Dan E. Clark, assistant director of the extension division. Interest in this work is notable in England, Denmark, Poland, Czechoslovakia, India and other foreign countries, Dr. Clark said. Alfred Mansbridge, president of the World Association for Adult Education, who spoke at a luncheon in Portland, attended by members of the extension division and teachers of the Portland center, was influential in stimulating interest in Oregon adult education, and in bringing about the state conference.

Large advertisement for Prince Albert pipe tobacco. Decorate yourself with the degree of P. A. THAT means "Pipa Amoroso" in the Latin, or "pipe-lover" in plain campus English. P. A. has certainly endeared a pipe to more men than any other letters in the smoke-alphabet. Because Prince Albert lets a fellow smoke all he wants to—and makes him want to! Cool as the stare of a marble Venus. Sweet as the approach of vacation. Fragrant as spring blossoms. Think up your own similes, Fellows. You will when you pick P. A. and a jimmy-pipe for permanent roommates. Prince Albert is great tobacco, and that's not blah. Get yourself a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. Fill the bowl of that old jimmy-pipe to the brim and borrow a match. Then you're set for some great smoke-sessions, as sure as you're a foot high. PRINCE ALBERT —no other tobacco is like it!
