

Track Stars of High Schools to Come Saturday

One Hundred or More Expected in Meet With Freshmen

Yearlings' Possibilities Remain Mystery

This week-end will see one of the greatest arrays of high school track stars probably ever assembled on Hayward field. Jefferson and Franklin high schools, of Portland, and Corvallis high school have already accepted invitations to meet the Oregon frosh next Saturday afternoon. There is a strong possibility that Salem, Albany and Eugene high schools will enter the meet. If the valley high schools accept, there will be more than one hundred athletes participating.

The yearling squad still remains a mystery but they have been training hard all season. Bill Hayward and Spike Leslie will make no comment on the meet other than to say that the boys will have to be on their toes in every event. Kircher, the star freshman sprinter, should win the century in fast time as he has been improving every week. Scott and Hunter, the other entries, should finish close to Kircher.

Oregon Material Good

In the 220 Hunter and Scott, the only ones entering, will probably have to fight it out between themselves for first place. In the 440 Clark Price, Jones and Standard all look good. Coates, the other quarter miler, will be on their heels at the finish. In the half mile McKittrick, Rasmus and Bauman will enter. It will take a good half miler to beat them as they have been turning in fast times. In the high hurdles we find lanky Bob Foster and Jackson as the only entries. After a poor start this season Foster has been improving steadily and both he and Jackson should finish in time to watch the high school entries finish.

Foster, McGee in Low Hurdles

Bob Foster and McGee will enter the low hurdles with honors about evenly divided as they both cover the ground in fast time. The high jump will be taken care of by Bill Crawford, with Boyden and McCulloch to back him up. The preppers will have to step along to keep up with Little, Jensen and Hill in the mile. Little ran the mile last Saturday in 4:42 and is able to do better when pressed closely. It is hard to forecast the result of the broad jump as Ord, McGee and Foster, the Babe entries, all leap about the same distance. Dobbie Sanderson should not have much trouble in taking first in the shot put. Sanderson has been heaving it in varsity style and has been improving steadily. The other entries will be Byington and Stager who are capable of giving the shot quite a ride.

In the discus will be the same entries as in the shot put. George Stager should throw it out of sight. The ex-La Grande high school star has improved his style greatly since coming here and he should show the result of it next Saturday. Speed Burnell is the only Babe entry in the javelin. Speed has shown that he is capable of throwing it away if necessary. Kircher is the only frosh entry in the pole vault. On paper it looks as if Kretzmeier, the Franklin star, should win this but if Kircher can pole vault as well as he can sprint it may be a different story.

Oregon Relay Team Ready

In the relay Spike Leslie will enter Kircher, Scott, Hunter and Burnell. This is as fast a relay team as can be found anywhere about this part of the country. All this does not mean that the freshmen will take the meet hands down, as the Portland and valley high schools have some good track men and of course there will be the usual "dark horses" with which to contend.

According to Bill Hayward the meet will start exactly at 2 p. m. The list of officials as given out are: starters, Obertuffer and Dave Evans; referee, Earle; judges of the finish, Kuykendall, Jeffries, Snyder and Ager; field judges, Eby, Flannigan, Wetzel, Garden, Gooding, Sherman and Crowley; judges on the turns, Don Peek, Staley, Holder and Neidermeier; clerk of course, Don athletics, but there is a slight social cleavage," Mr. Blue said.

"The scholarship is excellent as far as the size and opportunities of the school permit," he continued. "The social diversions are few, and traditions and school spirit have not taken root to any appalling degree. Last year the student body revolted against compulsory R. O. T. C."

"The classes are all conducted in the morning, with the exception of laboratories. This gives the students an opportunity to spend the afternoons on the beaches, which is almost necessary in that climate."

Mr. Blue told of his experience spearing fish by torchlight, on a lagoon inside the coral reef at Honolulu. Eels, makimaki and apokapa are sea food caught in this manner.

Probable Candidates For Mortar Board Selected by Juniors

Probable candidates for membership to Mortar Board were chosen by only a small representation of junior women at a meeting in Villard hall yesterday.

Mortar Board, senior women's national honorary society, has in former years elected new members without considering the popular sentiment of University upperclass women. The system being tried this year is similar to that used by the University of Washington in choosing candidates for a scholastic society.

Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, dean of women, in explaining the qualifications for Mortar Board membership, said that scholarship is one of the main requisites, the average being set at 2.9. Other points are leadership, based on character, honesty and high-mindedness, and service, including activities and general attitude. In short, eligible women are those who are distinguished in all lines.

It is the hope of the society that the junior class will accept the system and that more democratic representatives will result. The names on the lists, which were checked yesterday, will be investigated by the registrar's office and Mortar Board. The successful candidates will be announced by the traditional ceremony, during the Junior week-end campus luncheon.

Four of Five Entries Of University High Win in Vocal Contest

In spite of the fact that the University high school has the smallest student body of any of the schools entered in their class, at the vocal contest at Forest Grove last week-end, the girls' quartette tied for second place. Kermit Stevens received first prize for the bass solo, competing with all classes.

Oris Page won the second prize for the tenor solo. In the girls' high voice section, Ruby George placed fourth in competition with twenty-two voices.

In class A, schools with 500 or more students, there were only two entries. Most of the schools were entered in class B, of which the University high school was the smallest.

The students went to Forest Grove to represent their high school, and from their five entries, they placed in three and received honorable mention in a fourth, according to Mrs. Anne Landsbury Beck, who accompanied them.
