The gala event of the week-end was the Seven Seers' Costume Cabaret at the Campa Shoppe Friday evening. Many brightly colored balloons attached to the tables, glowing beneath shaded lights, and festoons of serpentine lent a carnival air to the room in dress that ranged from elaborate costumes to humorous make-ups. The guests entered by a slide, and were greeted by the Seers who appeared in person for the first time. From the arrival of King Olaf, sovereign of Moronia, for whom the dance was given, and who was portrayed by Jack Seabrook in royal purple and ermine, to the final feature, the affair was one to be remembered.

Music by the Oregon Aggravators, and punch, pastries and cigarettes were important factors in the success of the affair while acts and special features between dances including a soft shoe solo, blues songs, musical comedy hits, a magician act, Maypole dance and a wild horse fight, kept the spirits at a high pitch. Prizes for the most appropriate costumes were awarded to Rables Epping and his partner, Catherine Sartain, who appeared as Bachanalian revelers, and second prizes were given to a colored gentleman and his wife.

Hosts for the event were Phillipa Sherman, Paul Luy, Gregg Millet, Al Clark, Sam Kinley, Donald Johnson and James DePauli. Patrons and patronesses included Miss Gertrude Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oberteuffer, Captain J. T. Murray, and William Maddox.

Concealed on a small paper scroll held in the hands of dolls at each place was the announcement of the engagement of Flora Edwards and Ray McKeown, which was made at a supper late Saturday night at the Pi Beta Phi house. The table in the dining room was banked with flowers in the Beta Theta Pi and Pi Beta Phi colors and the pastries were very cleverly made with the Greek letters of the two organizations.

Miss Edwards is a member of the Pi Beta Phi and a junior in the school of music. For the past two years she has played in the University orchestra.

Mr. McKeown, whose home is in Marshfield, is a member of Beta Theta Pi and active in student body affairs. He is also affiliated with Nu Sigma Nu in the medical school at Portland.

Members of Sigma Beta Phi were hostesses at dinner Wednesday evening honoring Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Al E. Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simpson. Covers were laid for twenty eight.

Mrs. Norman B. Mann entertained the members of Pot and Quill at her home last Tuesday evening.

Thursday afternoon the advanced riding class of that day rode up Spencer's Butte and dined near the summit. They returned by moonlight.

The members of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority entertained with an informal dance given at the Eugene hotel on Saturday evening. The dancing room was decorated with many spring flowers and Dorothy Brown gave a quaint little spring dance. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglas and Mrs. Anna C. Hart.

A banquet was held at the Anchorage on Sunday evening, given by the members of the Hermian club for the initiates. The new members are Katherine Schnell, Cornelia Meek and Elaine Mobley.

Miss Jessie La Rue Lewis, of Hood River, was married to Cedric B. Baldwin at Makeweli, Kauai, H. I. on March 26. The bride was a graduate of the University and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Mr. Baldwin graduated from the California Agricultural college and is at present the assistant manager for the Hawaiian Sugar company.

On Saturday evening the members of Beta Theta Pi gave a formal dance. The chapter house was beautifully decorated with pink and blue flowers and many ferns. The lights were shaded by parchment on which were painted the house crest. The light supper was served late in the evening at small tables.

Soft lights lined the walks on the lawn, and davenport were arranged under the trees. Catherine Sartain gave a dance of Bacchus and later in the evening Frank Roher and Bill Grantham came down the millrace in front of the house and played and sang several numbers.

The patrons and patronesses for the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas I. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rosson.

The members of the Oregon Normal Club enjoyed a breakfast picnic in Hendricks Park early Sunday morning.

The members of the Tri Delt sorority gave an informal dance at the chapter house on Saturday evening. The rooms were gayly decorated with spring flowers in orange and yellow hues. The special guests were Mrs. Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Carl, Mrs. Waldo and Mrs. Knowland.

The residents of Hendricks hall and Miss Gertrude Talbot were hostesses at a dinner given on Thursday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oberteuffer, Dean and Mrs. John Bovard, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, Captain and Mrs. John J. McEwan, Miss Florence Alden, Mrs. Evans, Miss Lillian Stupp, Dr. Wilmoth Osburne, Miss Ernestine Troemel, Miss Emma Waterman, Miss Mildred Stevens and Miss Mary Jo Shelley.

The engagement of Miss Ardis Welch and Robert H. Sommerville was announced at a tea in Portland on Friday. Miss Welch is a graduate of the University and a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Mr. Sommerville is a prominent business man in Portland and he attended the University of Michigan.

A sport dance was given on Saturday morning by the members of Phi Gamma Delta. Informality was the keynote of the affair as the hosts wore knickers and no ties were allowed. The rooms of the house were decorated with comic signs and the walls were adorned with boxes of many varieties of breakfast foods. The dance programs were cleverly written on window panels which were bonamied. The breakfast was served in cafeteria fashion and between courses Madge Normile sang several numbers.

The patrons and patronesses were (Continued on page four)
