

1926 Oregoniana Pictures to Be On Sale Friday

Committee Seeks Interest Of Campus in Student's Productions

A sale of all pictures which will appear in the 1926 Oregoniana will be held all afternoon Friday, says Wayne Leland, editor of the year book. The sale will be conducted in the Oregoniana office on the second floor of the journalism building and it will be possible to secure pictures at a much lower price than at any other time.

Pictures of fraternity and sorority groups will be on sale at $4.00; some of the panels show as many as forty or fifty individual pictures, which would cost fifty cents each at other times. These groups are made up in panels ranging from three to four feet in length and from one and one-half to two feet in width. Each individual picture in the group is the size of the regular proofs. The pictures are all in excellent condition and ready for framing, says Wayne Leland, and it will be possible for fraternity groups, who have panels of the organization made each year to get them at this reduced price.

There are also group pictures of honorary societies in the collection and those organizations desiring to frame such pictures may also take advantage of the offer. These range in price from one to two dollars, ready for framing. There are also feature pictures, including athletes, athletic events and campus buildings and functions. These individual pictures will be priced as low as five and ten cents.

Ordinarily the pictures from the Oregoniana are given to the publicity department, but Jack Benefield, graduate manager, has authorized this means of adding to the Oregoniana fund this year. The pictures that are left after Friday's sale will be turned over to the publicity department, says Wayne Leland.

Letters have been sent to all living organizations on the campus, giving them an opportunity to take advantage of the sale.

The Oregoniana, which is being printed by Koke-Chapman, is over half done, the printing itself being almost entirely finished. It is expected that the yearbook will be ready for distribution by the latter part of the month.

Mathematics Club to Hold Picnic Today

Members of the Mathematics club of the University will picnic this afternoon at Riverside, near Goshen.

Students wishing to go on the picnic are requested to be at the Administration building at 4:30 with a cup and spoon.

The afternoon will be spent in games and swimming. A basket supper will be served in the evening. New members of the club will be initiated.

Officers

Walter Malcolm will give a brief talk, after which Hugh Biggs, next year's student body president, will give an outline of plans for the year.

Entertainment for the assembly will be furnished by the combined glee clubs. There will also be one or two special musical numbers, according to Walter Malcolm.

Grantham and Clark Compose 'Everyone'

BILL GRANTHAM and AL CLARK of Oregon, are the youthful composers of the newly popular dance piece "Everyone." This waltz was first played as a feature at the Seven Seers ball and later as a special number at the canoe fete and the Junior Prom.

The copyright has been applied for and will probably be granted the first part of the summer. At this time it will be published, and later record tests will be made at Balboa Beach in California. The Brunswick company will make the record, and they hope to have Dean McCluskey's orchestra, the Oregon Aggravators, play the piece.

The tune of "Everyone" was composed by Bill Grantham, of Wilmington, Ohio. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi and a freshman in the school of journalism. Mr. Grantham plays the banjo in the Oregon Aggravator's orchestra. Allan Clark, a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, wrote the lyric of "Everyone." Mr. Clark's home is in Santa Barbara, California, and he is a senior in the school of music.

DeLoris Pearson Gives Dinner for Old, New Student Body Officers

DeLoris Pearson, retiring secretary of the student body, entertained the incoming and outgoing officers of the A. S. U. O. with a dinner at Hendricks hall, yesterday. Covers were laid for 35. Walter Malcolm, outgoing president, acted as toastmaster.

Hugh Biggs, newly elected president, congratulated the outgoing officers on their achievements of the past year. Miss Pearson complimented the officers on their comradeship. Frances Morgan, next year's A. S. U. O. secretary, declared that Mr. Malcolm's demand for a speech awakened her to the fact that secretaries are unlike children who are seen but not heard.

Edward Miller, retiring editor of the Emerald, complimented the Scalawags of the campus on their "successful hoodwinking of the student body." Duties called Mr. Miller to his office, so Sol Abramson, editor-elect, seized the occasion of explaining his stellar leadership in making the Emerald what it is today.

Janet Pearce, accompanied by Myrtle Janssen, rendered vocal songs. Dorothy Wilde, with May Tobin at the piano, presented a Spanish dance. Dealtry Beans, Carlotta Nelson, and Helen Pollock played for dancing between courses. Eight freshmen women from Hendricks hall, dressed as French maids, served the dinner.

Place cards were silhouette head cuts of the guests pasted on cartoon bodies. They were designed by Miss Pearson, and executed by Dorothy Chapman.

Events for Week Of Semi-Centennial Will Be Scheduled

The regular meeting for the semi-centennial committee, that was scheduled for Monday night, has been postponed until Wednesday night because of a conflict with the meeting of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors that night.

The Wednesday night meeting will be one of the important meetings of the committee, as it will consider the arrangements of the week's events and definitely determine the day on which Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, newly-elected president of the University, will be inaugurated.

Members of the Alumni association are to attend the meeting and will be consulted, since the semi-centennial will be held in conjunction with homecoming next fall.

Daly Memorial Picture Hangs in Dean's Office

A large picture of Dr. Bernard Daly has just been placed on the wall of Dean H. Walker's office. It is a memorial gift from the Daly Club students in honor of Dr. Daly. Engraved on a copper plate are these words:

"It is my earnest desire to help, aid, and assist worthy and ambitious young men and women of my beloved county of Lane to acquire a good education, so that they may be better fitted and qualified to appreciate and help to preserve the laws and constitution of this free country, defend its flag, and by their conduct as good citizens reflect honor on Lane county and the state of Oregon."

Tennis Matches in Women's Series Drag, Owing to Rainy Spell

With approximately 30 more tennis matches scheduled in the women's series, and next Monday, May 17, set as the playing deadline, the courts should hum with their activity this week.

Only five matches have been played off to date, with results as follows: Regina Davault, senior first singles, two wins; Genera Zimmer, sophomore first singles, one win; Virginia Lounsbury, sophomore singles, one victory; and junior first team doubles, composed of Margaret Pepon and Marjorie Horton, one credit.

Every effort must be made to get the remaining games finished before next Monday, says Elizabeth Lewis, head of the sport. The finals will be played off on Play Day, May 22.

The second class teams have not played a single game as yet, and this means that every game must be held the remaining days of this week.
