

French Author Gives Talk About Anatole France

M. Champion Presents Two Photogravures To U. of O. Library

Reception After Lecture Given Litterateur

Two fine photogravures of manuscripts kept at Chateau Chantilly, which contains one of the most valuable libraries in France, were presented to the University by Edouard Champion, noted French author, editor and publisher, at the illustrated lecture on Anatole France last night, in Guild theater.

Faculty, students and townspeople crowded the hall to hear this delightful and illuminating talk by a man who knows most of the famous literary people in France.

Anatole France, like many famous people, was very poor, and also quite lazy, Mr. Champion said. His friends forced him to write, and he was not allowed to have a comfortable chair because he would fall asleep if given one. Under this pressure the most famous French writer of the last half of the nineteenth century produced four of his best known books in one year.

The speaker has introduced many literary men to Anatole France, among them Remy de Gourmont, a well known recent writer.

At Dr. Bowen's request, Mr. Champion spoke of Marcel Proust, the most talked of writer of the last few years, and showed the only picture of this man the public has ever seen.

Mr. Proust lived in his bedroom with the windows sealed and never went anywhere, except, rarely, at night; yet he wrote the most interesting novel of social life in Paris anyone has produced since Stendhal.

A reception at the Woman's building where those interested had an opportunity to meet Mr. Champion followed the lecture.

Mail Students Favor Literature Courses

More than 74 Oregon students took correspondence courses from the University this summer; from this number 28 students completed their courses and 46 enrolled but did not finish. Enrollment was mostly in written English and literature courses with some in psychology and history.

Special students, those more than 21 years old who were deficient in some subjects, and other students who had the necessary 15 units but not distributed in the right courses, took the correspondence courses.

Cosmopolitan Club To Meet Wednesday

The Cosmopolitan club will hold the first business meeting of the year next Wednesday, according to Edna Spenker, president. Extensive plans are being made for the coming year, including both lecture and

Slogansmiths Get New Chance to Beat 'Jim'

A CHANCE! Everyone is looking for a chance to make a name for himself. Write a slogan for Homecoming, get your name in the paper, and also, get two reserved seat tickets to the Stanford-Oregon football game.

Now is the time for the bright student to show that he knows more than his instructor for anyone connected with the University may submit a slogan.

For several Homecomings past, Dean James H. Gilbert has turned in the prize slogan. Can anyone break his jinx?

The Homecoming combined with a Semi-Centennial celebration should offer ample material for ideas.

We want slogans. What have you? Drop your idea in the box to the right, just inside the door of the main library.

social meetings, various sorts of entertainments, and the annual cosmopolitan pageant.

The membership drive will begin next week, and it is hoped that many new members, both American and foreign, will be added to the lists.

Close touch is being maintained between the cosmopolitan clubs of the University of California and its Southern Branch, and the club here on the campus, said Miss Spenker.

Returns

(Continued from page one) this afternoon or the World Series in New York will have a chance to get the score by innings and the pigskin returns at the Y. M. C. A. hut today.

At 2:30 the football results will come in over the radio and will be kept track of by an improvised grid-graph. World Series scores will come in at 10:30 this morning. Curious and rabid fans can view the games by proxy without endangering their financial status.

Varsity

(Continued from page one) the lemon-yellow line for victories. Another interesting item is that in the three Homecoming games played in 1916, 1920 and 1924, the Oregon Webfoots have emerged victors twice. The 1916 game ended in a scoreless tie.

In the 20 football contests played between the two schools, the University of Washington Huskies have won 9, with 8 victories for Oregon. Three games played between the schools have resulted in ties. Looking back into history, the purple and gold gridsters seemed to hold a jinx over the Webfoots from 1908 to 1916. In that period of time the northerners won six consecutive games.

This season's record thus far gives Bagshaw's men a slight advantage. In the three games played, "Baggy's" men have totaled 81 points. Oregon's only points thus far have come from the Willamette contest, when the Bearcats were forced down to a 44 to 0 defeat. The tilt with the Pacific Badgers resulted in a scoreless game.

Former Oregon-Washington football games:

Date	Oregon	Washington
1900	43	0
1903	5	6
1904	18	0
1905	12	12
1906	16	6
1907	6	0
1908	0	15
1909	6	20
1911	3	29
1912	14	30
1913	7	10
1914	0	10
* 1916	0	0
1918	7	0
1919	24	13
* 1920	17	0
1922	3	3
1923	7	26
* 1924	7	3
1925	14	15
1926	?	?
	209	198

Total scored by Oregon209

Total scored by Washington198

1926 Oregon

Oregon, 44; Willamette, 0.

Oregon, 0; Pacific, 0.

1926 Washington

Washington, 20; U. S. S. New Mexico, 0.

Washington, 28; Willamette, 0.

Washington, 33; Puget Sound, 0.

Capt. McEwan

(Continued from page one) up. Adequate reserves for this position are Carl Johnson, another regular, and Carl Klippel, playing his first conference season.

Captain Sinclair and Homer Dixon, tackles; Beryl Hodgens and Bert Kerns, guards; form the forward wall of the lemon-yellow eleven. These men bring the weight average up 187, heavier than that of the Huskies.

The coaching staff which accompanied the players were: Captain John J. McEwan, head coach; Gene Vidal, backfield coach; Harry Ellinger, line coach; "Spike" Leslie, assistant; Bob Mautz, end coach; and Bill Hayward, trainer.

The players who made the trip include: Smith, Slauson, Riggs,

Pope, Greer, Hughes and Jamison, ends; Sinclair, Dixon, Warren, DeMott and Keeney, tackles; Kerns, Mangum, Hodgen and Harden, guards; Carter, Klippel and Johnson, centers; Mimnaugh, Woodie and Clark, quarterbacks; Vitus, Burnell, Ord, Wetzel and Green, halves; and Jones, Hagan and Gould, fullbacks.

Huskies

(Continued from page one)

second season in varsity company with a bang. Herm Brix, who has been on the shelf because of a knee injury, is another visiting giant who may get into the fray. Ken Olson, a frosh luminary from last season, is another man who is attracting the coach's eye for one of these jobs.

Gene Cook, Bagshaw's try-for-point artist, and famed drop kicker, will start at one of the guards and we will let his last season's record speak for his powers in smashing the foe's line plays. Either Bob Shaw or Elmer Huhta, both letterwinners from last season, will fill the other gap next to the center.

Lauzon Bests Bonamy

One of the big surprises of the season is the choice of Romeo Lauzon, another former scrub, to displace the 1925 all-coast pivot man, Doug Bonamy, for the center place. Lauzon has been showing plenty of stuff in the scrimmages and the fighting snapper-back has succeeded in getting the call for the center berth. Another man who should work out as a passer against the Oregonians is Harry Schneiderman, captain of last year's frosh aggregation.

The one hindrance in the minds of the 2,000 students who are making the pilgrimage to the Rose City, is, Can the Huskies overcome the Oregon "jinx?"

Rally

(Continued from page one)

over to the students. McElroy's band assisted in the program at the theater and several short and snappy pep talks were given by the coaching staff leaders on the campus, and men of note of Portland.

The rally special carried approximately 1,000 students from Eugene to Portland and as many more chose other methods of transportation to get to the Oregon metropolis. It is expected that the attendance at today's game will break any and all previous records for the state. So great is the interest in the event that people from all parts of the state are assembling in Portland to witness today's spectacle.

Stadium to Be Dedicated

The arrival of two special trains from Seattle bringing Washington students to the game will be the signal for the parade to start today noon and it is expected that the parade will arrive at the new sta-

Uncalled for Rain and Overcoats
Also Full Dress and Tuxedo Suits
REALLY A BARGAIN
University Tailor — 1128 Alder Street

Here's a Unique Combination!---

1. Student Lamp.
2. Ink Wells.
3. Penholders.

All In One

— For —
$5.25

Special Price

BAILEY ELECTRIC CO.

640 Willamette St.

Phone 234

TO THE LAST MINUTE

Rain or Shine —
Winning or Losing

We are fighting as hard as you and our spirit to win is incomparable.

Where College Folk Buy Footwear

828 Willamette 828

McDonald THEATRE

Coming Monday!

The Popular Favorite
MILTON SILLS

in Cosmo Hamilton's
"Paradise"

with Betty Bronson
Noah Beery
Charlie Murray

Pictures of the Oregon-Washington Football Game

The Merry-makers in "Campus Capers" Nightly at Nine

New Bell Theatre

SPRINGFIELD Sunday

Peter B. Kynes Famous Story

"Never the Twain Shall Meet"

Upholstered Spring Cushion Seats

Archery Gallery and School

127 West 7th Ave.

Open for the pastime of all who enjoy or wish to learn the new-old game.

Our bows and arrows are of high quality and fair treatment and moderate prices will prevail.

It is our intention to keep a clean, orderly place where ladies, with or without escorts, will feel free and safe to come and enjoy any afternoon or evening. If so desired, patrons may bring their own equipment to use on our targets.

Free instruction to beginners.

Bows and Arrows manufactured and sold.

W. A. WATSON, Proprietor.

Rialto Theater Junction City Sunday

The SEA WOLF

with RALPH W. INCE, CLAIRE ADAMS, THEODORE VON ELTZ, SMITZ EDWARDS, MITCHELL LEWIS

FROM THE STORY BY JACK LONDON

DIRECTED BY RALPH W. INCE

REX

THEATRE

Coming Monday!

"SUBWAY SADIE"

with

Dorothy Mackaill
Jack Mulhall

A comedy drama of love at sight—and in a subway at that

Regular Prices
Matinee, 20c; Nights, 35c
Children 10c.

Dutch Bulbs
Brilliant Tulips
Fragrant Hyacinths
Crocus

Plant your outdoor beds during October for early Spring flowers, or indoor in pots for winter flowers. We have just received a fine assortment of the most choice varieties of Holland bulbs. We have pictures to show actual colors on a number of varieties. Come in and look them over.

Elliott Implement & Seed Store

131 Ninth Avenue East

Balbriggans sketched, $13.85

New slip-on sweaters with student collars at $3.45

Slickers, $8.95

Gotham Silk Stockings, $1.95

ALL SET FOR A BIG WEEK-END

Saturday Morning — Shopping at Berg's for new sweaters, hose, slickers, dresses, coats, etc.

Saturday Afternoon — Off to help win the big game for Oregon!

Saturday Evening — Dinner, dancing and a joyous celebration with friends!

Charles F. Berg
who's your host?

309 Morrison Street
Portland, Oregon

"Thru—That—Line" Fight To Win—And Fight Until The—
—Last Gun Roars

UNIVERSITY PHARMACY

"THE STUDENTS STORE"