

Will Feature Oregon Fight At Big Rally

Pajama Parade Will Have Record Number in Line of March

Program of Rally Kept in Secrecy

Former Grid Heroes to Be in Attendance

THE keynote of the Homecoming rally this year will be the reincarnation of the "Old Oregon Fight," and from the time the pajamaro parade leaves the campus until the last loyal Oregon student files out of the armory, after the rally assembly, enthusiasm and fight will reign paramount.

The general outline of the rally program starts with the formation of a parade of 3000 students at the Sigma Chi corner in pajama attire. The parade will march down to Willamette street in torch-light formation, with the yell staff leading in Oregon yells.

"O" to Be Burned

With the student body at Willamette street, attention will be focused on Skinner's butte, where the flaming "O" will be set afire, preceded by a skyrocket display. The flaming "O" will replace the old freshman bonfire, and it is expected that the blazing "O" will be more symbolistic of Oregon victory than the heretofore bonfire.

The rally parade then will march down Willamette street in noisy procession under the light of torches to the armory. Bill James, rally chairman, refuses to give out much information on the program at the rally, but he promises that the program will instill the thought of victory in every student, even to the most doubtful grid fan.

Former Warriors to Attend

A number of former Oregon grid heroes will be on the stage to urge the varsity on to victory, while the Oregon band, in the new uniforms, will be on hand to play. According to present plans, the American Legion drum corps will also be at the rally.

The rally at the armory will be of a different nature than the one of last year. The committee is enthusiastic over the present plans and predicts that the 1926 rally will be one of the outstanding pep-assemblies ever staged at Oregon.

University Band to Don Nifty Uniforms Declares Director

"We must have a band that the University will be proud of," declared W. L. Ferris, director of the organization yesterday. "We have a wealth of material, and if the students co-operate and lend their efforts, there is no reason we can not have a band unsurpassed in any other college."

At present, there is instrumental material sufficient for three bands, according to Mr. Ferris. They will be ranked according to ability. The first band will give a student concert soon, he added, while the third band will be used as a training school for those students who have had little experience in band work.

The members of the R. O. T. C. band will wear their regular cadet uniforms, but those in the University band will have broadcloth uniforms of special design. "These will consist of four pieces," said Mr. Ferris, "blouse, breeches, Sam Brown belt, and cap. The blouse will be of regulation style. The blouse will be of green and in the same general pattern as those worn by the American Legion drum corps of Eugene. The cap will be in the Pershing army style with a green crown, yellow band, leather visor and chin strap."

John Barron Chosen Glee Club Accompanist

The members of the men's glee club held their first monthly "get-together" supper last evening at the Anchorage, for the purpose of discussing the plans of the organization.

John Barron has been chosen as accompanist for the club, and on the annual tour will act as piano soloist.

"Over the Top" Drive Of Y. W. C. A. Wins

"OVER the top!" is the motto of the Y. W. C. A. finance drive which terminates at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Five living organizations have exceeded their last year's quota. The victorious houses so far are: Kappa Kappa Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Beta Phi and Hendricks hall. Hendricks alone has raised $68 and Katherine Kneeland, who is in charge of the campaign in that organization, promises to report more today.

Pep talks will be given by Beatrice Mason, Julia Wilson and Pauline Stewart in various campus living organizations today at luncheon. All committee members will make their final report at 5:00 this afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow.

"Girls, work your hardest, this last report must be a good one," is the final word of advice given by the chairman.

Dr. Ely, Noted Economist, to Lecture Today

Students Privileged to Hear Noted Scientist At Eleven

Dr. Richard T. Ely, noted economist and head of the bureau of farm economics at Northwestern University, will arrive in Eugene early this morning from Hood River where he has been attending the Reclamation Congress. Immediately upon Dr. Ely's arrival he will proceed to President Hall's residence where he will be entertained. Dr. Hall and Dr. Ely were former associates on the University of Wisconsin faculty, Dr. Ely being a professor in the economics department.

Dr. Ely's first appearance will be this morning before Mr. Gilbert's class in public financing in room 106 Commerce building at eleven o'clock. He will discuss some phases of American land policy and problems of reclamation. Students not enrolled in this class are invited to attend. Additional seats will be available. This will be the only opportunity for undergraduate students to hear Dr. Ely during his stay on the campus.

This evening the Social Science club and members of the faculty will hear an address by Dr. Ely on some phase of research. This will be given at 6 p. m. tonight at the Anchorage. Faculty members desiring to attend should make reservations through Ralph Casey, secretary of the Social Science club.

Saturday Dr. Ely will accompany Dr. Warren D. Smith on a trip into the coast range mountains where students in geology will make investigations. Dr. Smith is a class friend of the distinguished economist, having known him during several years of residence at Madison, Wisconsin.

Saturday evening Dr. Ely will meet with graduate students at the Anchorage at 7:30 and will again discuss with them the field of research from the standpoint of the graduate student.

"Probably no American economist," says Mr. Gilbert, "has done more to stimulate and direct research in the social sciences than Dr. Richard T. Ely, formerly of Wisconsin, but now connected with a research bureau on land economics at Northwestern University. No graduate student can afford to miss the stimulus of personal contact with one of the best minds in the field of social science."

Dr. Ely has written several texts on subjects dealing with economics, and is considered as an authority on many subjects.

Personnel for Oregon Orchestra Selected

M. Haeske; bassoon—John Sprouse; cello—Robert Spicer, Miriam Little; bass viol—Evelyn Mortimore; drums—Martin Geary.

Big Contests On Schedule For Week-End

Aggies Invade Bear's Lair; California Rated Weak

Huskies Tackle Idaho As Oregonians Rest

Warner Says Stanford Team Is Poor

Coast Conference Standings
Oregon Aggies	1	0 1000
Washington	1	0 1000
Idaho	1	0 1000
Southern California	1	0 1000
Oregon	0	1 .000
Washington State	0	1 .000
Montana	0	2 .000
California	0	0 .000
Stanford	0	0 .000

TOMORROW afternoon every coast conference football team swings into action with the exception of the Oregon varsity. However, all are not playing conference games. The biggest game scheduled for this week-end is between the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of California at Berkeley. Yesterday morning Coach Paul J. Schissler and 28 grid warriors, with the cry, "California, here we come," boarded the Shasta at Albany for Berkeley. So high is the enthusiasm on the Aggie campus that over 250 students and business men are making the trip south.

O. A. C. Favored

To date the Aggies have made a very impressive showing. The huge Orange and Black machine has scored 139 points to its opponents' 6. Coach "Nibs" Price's Golden Bears have done nothing outstanding. In their first game of the season, the Santa Clara outfit fell before a 13 to 6 attack. The Olympic club proved a set up, 32 to 0, but last Saturday they met defeat at the hands of the St. Mary's eleven, 26 to 7.

In Seattle tomorrow the Washington Huskies entertain the University of Idaho Vandals. Each have won a conference game. The Washington State Cougars after a 16 to 7 defeat at the hands of the Southern California Trojans are ready to play their first home game against the University of Montana.

Cards Have Tilt

The Southern California Trojans and Stanford Cardinals are both playing non-conference teams. The Occidental college eleven invades the Los Angeles campus. "Pop" Warner's red-shirted Cardinals meet the crafty University of Nevada grid machine. Each year this throws a card a trip to the coast and eleven a big scare into the heart of some football coach.

While the rest of the conference teams are in action Coach John J. McEwan will be taking advantage of the rest period and put his men through a strenuous practice. By the end of next week each player will be ready to give the Cardinals

Order of "O" Is Proud Owner of Six Vice-moguls

Reinhart Gets High Job As Frosh Paddlers Elect Officers

At the first meeting of the Order of the "O" held yesterday, Frank Reinhart, baseball letterman for the past two seasons, was elected president for the ensuing year. Fred West was elected secretary-treasurer. A new idea was started in the way of a vice-president. Six vice-presidents were elected, each representing one of the four major and two minor sports of the campus. Those elected included Beryl Hodgen, football; Roy Okerberg, basketball; Ed Crowley, track; Bill Baker, baseball; George Mead, tennis; and Donald McCook, swimming.

These new-plan vice-presidents will act as a committee but any business arising pertaining to any one individual sport will be turned over to that respective vice-president. According to President Reinhart this will give each sport of the campus equal importance.

Plans have already been formulated for Homecoming. This is one of the big occasions for the Order of the "O".

Homecoming Slogan Won by J. H. Gilbert

"HOME to honor Oregon" will be the Homecoming slogan this year, written by Dr. J. H. Gilbert, acting dean of the college.

This makes the fourth time Dr. Gilbert's slogan has been accepted. His former ones were: "Home to meet 'em back to beat 'em," "Home hello hit the huskies," and "Back to back our Oregon."

The Homecoming committee thought the slogan chosen this year especially appropriate for the Semi-Centennial celebration as well as a good Homecoming and the game. Houses are asked to start building their signs to interpret the slogan immediately.

Schedule List For Oregon Pictures Ready

Chien Fei Ting Named As Art Director Of Year Book

In order that work may progress more rapidly on the 1927 Oregon year book a schedule has been arranged with Kennel-Ellis for having pictures made. Sittings are to begin immediately so that there will be no last minute confusion in regard to pictures, according to Frances Bourhill, editor of the publication.

As considerable time has been spent in arranging this schedule, it is urged that all houses and groups co-operate with the editor in regard to the time and date of their appointments with the photographers. These will start October 19 and continue regularly until December 8. The appointment of Chien Fei Ting, Chinese student, as art director was announced yesterday afternoon. The editor feels that this is a very important step as the entire scheme for decorating the book is Chinese.

The dummies of all sections are to be in by November 14, at which time it will be possible to announce the approximate number of pages to be in the entire issue.

The schedule of organizations to have pictures taken for the Oregon year book, and the student in charge in each organization follows:

- October 19: Sigma Nu, Lawrence Armand.
- October 20: Alpha Tau Omega, Ronald Hubbs.
- October 21: Alpha Chi Omega, Marian Sten.
- October 25: Beta Theta Pi, Jack Jones.
- October 26: Alpha Phi, Barbara Blythe.
- October 27: Kappa Sigma, Robert Warner.
- October 28: Phi Delta Theta, Ralph Staley.
- October 29: Sigma Phi Epsilon, Ronald Sellers.
- October 30: Alpha Xi Delta, Beth Ager.

- November 1: Kappa Alpha Theta, Virginia Lee Richardson.
- November 2: Sigma Chi, Dick Jones.
- November 3: Theta Chi, Fred Stanley.
- November 4: Delta Zeta, Betty Lewis.
- November 5: Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Bill Prendergast.
- November 6: Phi Kappa Psi, Don McCook.
- November 8: Pi Beta Phi, Claudia Fletcher.
- November 9 and 10: Hendricks hall, Alice Kraeft.
- November 12: Kappa Omicron, Flossie Radabaugh.
- November 13: Alpha Beta Chi, Wilford Long.
- November 15: Friendly hall, Joe Sweyd.
- November 16: Friendly hall, Allen Canfield.
- November 17 and 18: Susan Campbell hall, Ruth Corey.
- November 19: Delta Tau Delta, Chi Psi, Clayton Meredith, Jack Renshaw.
- November 20: Gamma Phi Beta, Virginia Bailey.
- November 22: Psi Kappa Lambda Psi, Elwood Enke, Pete Ermier.
- November 23: Chi Omega, Beatrice Harden.
- November 24: Alpha Gamma Delta, Sigma Pi Tau, Art Schoeni.
- November 29: Delta Gamma, Elizabeth Beans.
- November 30: Sigma Beta Phi, Tau Nu, Maurine Lombard, Margaret Pepon.
- December 1: Delta Delta Delta, Alice McKinnon.
- December 2: Phi Gamma Delta,

Committee Of Seniors Listed For Book Sale

Life of Late P. L. Campbell Work of Historian Of Note

Group to Hold Initial Meeting Tonight at 5

Campaign to Be Handled By 45 Students

A COMMITTEE of 45 seniors who will have charge of the sale of the new memorial biography of Prince Lucien Campbell during the week of the Semi-Centennial and Homecoming celebrations have been appointed and will be given their directions at a meeting this evening.

At a preliminary meeting last night Ralph Staley, chairman of the committee, laid before the group the plans and presented a schedule which will govern the working of the group.

Authentic Biography

The book which is to be sold is the work of Dr. Joseph Schafer, superintendent of the Wisconsin Historical society and former professor of history on the Oregon campus during the regime of Prince Campbell. Dr. Schafer is a historian of note and his personal collection of material concerning some of the leading men of the United States is of great value.

Besides the advantage which the book possesses in being written by an expert historian it also has a personal touch which could not be obtained except through a man who was personally acquainted with the late president. Realizing the true merits of the book and its worthy cause the senior class of 1927 has offered to sponsor the sale of the publication and to back the printing of it to the extent of $1000.

Committee Appointed

Those seniors who will make up the committee are: Esther Craddock, Glenna Fisher, Grace Cobb, Lee Luders, Harriet Dezenford, Marie Schulerman, Virginia Keating, Helen Davidson, Kathryn Inwood, Harriet Ross, Myrtle Mast, Flossie Radabaugh, Alice Kraeft, Anne Runes, Audrey Lundy, Edith Shell, Maurine Johnston, Alice Olsen, Lucille Pearson, Katherine Graef, Dorothy Ward, Georgia Davidson, Adelaide Johnson, Doris Brophy, Beatrice Harden, Camille Burton, Catherine Strupler, Elizabeth Beans, Lee Rapp, Milton Rice, Howard Osvald, Berwyn Maple, Louis Dammasch, Wilford Long, Joyce Albert, Kirk Bollinger, Elton Schroeder, Al Westergren, Bob Boggs, Harold Llewellyn, Lloyd Byerly, John Walker, Veryl Flynn, Lowell Hobbitt, Harold Barthell.

Meeting At 5 o'Clock

Every member of the committee is expected to appear at the meeting which will be held at 5 o'clock this evening in room 105 Journalism building. At this time the entire plans will be presented and a complete schedule for the workers worked out. This will be the last meeting of the committee, so every member will have to attend for the purpose of receiving directions.

School of Music Gives Program For Assembly

Centennial Program Open to Members Of A. S. U. O.

A large audience of students and faculty yesterday were present at the first weekly assembly of the year devoted to a musical program sponsored by the University of Oregon school of music, which was opened with a selection by the University orchestra, "Coronation March," by Kutschmeier, under the direction of Rex Underwood.

Although John Stark Evans, who was presiding, requested that no encores be asked for by the audience, because of lack of time, the numbers were enthusiastically applauded.

Among the features of the morning were included a trumpet solo by Lawrence Wagner, "Carnaval of Venice," by Arban; bassoon solo played by John Sprouse; and a harp selection, "The Song of the Volga".

Frosh Girls Needed For Pennant Making

"BRING your scissors and report at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow prepared to make Homecoming pennants," is the message sent to freshman girls by the Freshman Commission. There are 4000 pennants to make and five more days in which to make them, so full co-operation will be needed. Freshman Commission, under the guidance of its new officers, Beatrice Milligan, president, Eleanor Poorman, vice-president, and Marjorie Whetzel, secretary, is undertaking the work.

Sophomore girls have been appointed in each living organization to ask the freshman girls to report. A large number helped yesterday, and it is hoped that the enthusiasm will continue throughout the rest of the week. The money gained from the pennants will be given to Women's League for its Foreign Scholarship.

Get-wise Party Time Changed To Afternoon

Big Sister Requested to Bring Little Sisters To Party

The Get-Wise party for freshmen women, sponsored by the Women's League, which was to be given Saturday evening from 7 to 9, has been changed to Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 on account of the numerous pledge dances scheduled for Saturday evening that would conflict with it.

All Big Sisters are urged to attend the party and bring their Little Sisters. "To make the affair a success, it is absolutely necessary that we have the co-operation of all Big Sisters," says Kathryn Ulrich, president of Women's League, "and we hope that every girl will make it a point to bring her Little Sister."

Dean Esterly, Esther Hardy, Myrtle Mast, Esther Setters and Beatrice Peters will speak upon various phases of campus activities and talks will be given upon "Departmental Societies" and "Class Societies." Madeline Normile is to sing "Dumb and Devoted," Katharine Martin and F. H. Crane will give an Apache dance, and a ten-minute comedy act is to be put on by Alpha Omicron Pi. Between numbers of the program there will be dancing, with music furnished by the Alpha Xi Delta orchestra. The program is in charge of Mayanna Sargent, and Esther Chase is chairman of the refreshment committee.

Photograph Contract For Coming Oregon Let by Executive Body

Photograph work on the 1927 Oregon was let to Kennel-Ellis studio at a meeting of the executive council Wednesday in Johnson hall. They were awarded the contract on the same terms as last year. This year they are giving special attention to the University work and are fitting a special room for this work.

Budgets for the Webfoot, Emerald and Homecoming expenses were approved by the committee; also plans of the building committee were approved that call for a change in the plans of the pavilion basement floor. It was decided to make the entire lower floor of the pavilion of white cement. This will cut down the expense on the building, according to plans.

Frances Bourhill, editor of the Oregonian, announces that pictures will be taken for the yearbook beginning Tuesday.

Two Students Injured When Struck by Auto

Anita Williams and Sybil Weskil, juniors in the University, received injuries when struck by a car while crossing the street at Eleventh and Kincaid. The accident occurred about 1:30 yesterday afternoon. Miss Williams was taken to the infirmary where it was found she had received two fractured ribs and minor injuries to the head. However, her condition was not reported as serious and she is recovering satisfactorily. Miss Weskil was able to return to her home, having received only a few scratches. Both girls are members of Delta Zeta sorority.

Sydney Team Meets Oregon Debate Men

Australian Debators Use U. of O. Method of Argumentation

Forensic Battle to Be At Methodist Church

Bealar, Bailey Will Argue Heathwood and Godsall

THE University debating team will meet the University of Sydney team at 8:15 in the Methodist church tonight. The Australian team makes this their second stop after reaching the states, in their country wide debating tour.

The subject for the debate will be: "Resolved, that it is to the best interests of the United States that the English cabinet system be adopted." This is a subject broad enough to cover the faults and benefits of the two forms of government.

Judge F. W. Skipworth will preside in place of Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall who has found it impossible to officiate because of his executive duties. The audience itself will act as judges, slips will be passed out among them and each member will hand in his written decision.

The Oregon team will take the negative side of the question. Donald Bealar and Ralph Bailey, both experienced speakers, will represent the University, and Sydney H. Heathwood, John Godsall and Noel D. McIntosh will uphold the Australian University. The Sydney debaters are all alumni of the University and have had a great deal of experience on the subject.

Karl Onthank, in speaking of the debate, says, "This is a big thing. It is important not only because it is an international affair but because an issue is at stake that is important to every one of us." J. K. Horner, debate coach, believes that the Oregon men are well prepared to argue on the question but that they will meet up with stiff competition and will have to present good substantial arguments to win.

Hugh Biggs, president of the student body, commented: "I am deeply interested in forensics and their success. The Oregon system used in this debate is in my opinion a great improvement over the old style debate, and both for this reason and because the debate is an international one, it is well worth attending."

This will be the third international debate that the University has taken part in. The previous debates proved very interesting and attracted large crowds and it is hoped that this debate will bring out an even greater crowd.

University students will be admitted with their student tickets. Townspeople can obtain tickets for admission at Laraway's music store. The price of admission will be fifty cents.

The outcome of tonight's debate will give some idea of what to expect of the outcome of the radio debate to be broadcast over the station KGW, the Oregonian at Portland Saturday night. This will also be with the Australian debaters but Jack Hempstead and Benoit McCroskey will represent the University of Oregon. The subject for the debate will be: "Resolved, that this audience is opposed to the prohibition of the liquor traffic." The Oregon team will again uphold the negative side of the subject.

Avoid Rush, Alpha Phi's Jitney Dance Is Today

The first jitney dance of the season will be given today from 2:45 to 5:45 by the Alpha Phi's at their chapter house.

Abby Green's orchestra will supply the music and for food there will be lots of cider and doughnuts. Dates may or may not be taken as you desire, and students are advised to come early and avoid the rush, the girls announce.
