

Keep Traditions Of University Tells Dr. Hall

New President Addresses First Year Students At Assembly

Villard hall was taxed to capacity yesterday morning when the class of 1930 held their assembly. The frosh started their journey to the hall long before the appointed time and by 9 o'clock every seat in the hall was taken and standing room was at a premium.

H. Walker, dean of men, brought the gathering to order and Alonzo J. Jaman, president of the class, announced that all men would be requested to assist in building the flaming "O." This is to be constructed Thursday afternoon and Friday morning of next week. The girls of the class were told to report at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday afternoon to work on pennants. Dean Walker introduced Dr. Arnold Bennett Hall, president-elect of the University, who delivered the third of his series of lectures to the incoming freshmen.

Doctor Hall's message was "Spiritual Preparedness for Life," taking Abraham Lincoln as an example for the modern young man. He pointed out that Lincoln's two greatest assets were his great power of spiritual reality and great passion for welfare of mankind. The new president gave a very fitting example of how Lincoln acted in time of great importance when he told of the episode of the committee waiting on Lincoln with the nomination of the Republican party for president of the United States. Lincoln excused himself and went to another room of the house where he studied the map of the country and then asked God to give him power to lead the country through the stormy period.

Doctor Hall asked the freshman class to co-operate with him in upholding three, important traditions of the University, namely: obey the eighteenth amendment, continue the simplicity of taste and dress, maintain the tradition of chivalry. In closing he likened each student to a private in the army during war time and told how the army would not function without the privates, so would not the class function properly without the aid and support of each individual.

As a climax to the meeting the class responded to a man when a rising vote of appreciation of Dr. Hall's policies was called for. Dr. Hall responded with words of thanks and the assembly was dismissed.

of special musical selections was an orchestra number, "Overture to Sankanta," by Goldmark.

The assembly was then devoted to a rehearsal of "Oregon, My Oregon," led by the University combined men's and women's glee clubs, the audience joining in, John Stark Evans, leading. The singing of the Oregon Pledge Song closed the program.

At the opening of the session, Hugh Rosson, secretary of the general faculty Semi-Centennial committee, made an announcement regarding student participation in the events scheduled for the Semi-Centennial celebration to be held on the Oregon campus October 18-23.

The inauguration of President-elect Arnold Bennett Hall which is to take place Monday morning, will be open to students if the ceremony is held on Hayward field, Mr. Rosson announced. The exercises may be held in the Woman's building. In that case, because of lack of sufficient space to seat the entire student body, invitations will only be extended to the representatives of the educational institutions who are guests on the campus, other visitors and to all house mothers and heads of fraternity and sororities on the campus, he said. Tickets can be obtained from Dean Gilbert in the Administration building, stated Mr. Rosson.

The students are cordially invited to attend the various speeches and programs to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, he said. "The faculty will be willing to grant excuses from classes for any of these events which students wish to attend," he said. It will be necessary to study the program for the week's celebration and plan to attend the features of particular interest, he said.

"Enter into the spirit of the occasion. Let that famous 'hello' spirit prevail and although you don't know the visitors personally, greet them. We want them to go back with praise for Oregon," Mr. Rosson urged the students.

Social Swim to be held this evening at the Woman's building at 7:30.

Final Report of the Finance committee of the Y. W. C. A. must be given by all workers today at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow at 5 o'clock. Imperative that all committee members be there with all records.

Valleyball schedule changed. Tuesday, juniors and seniors from 5 to 6; Wednesday, sophomores, 5 to 6; Thursday, freshmen, 5 to 6.

Varsity Philippinensis important meeting tonight at 8 p. m. at the Y hut. Every member is requested to attend.

Dearest Anne:

Am pondering on the oncoming chaos of excitement which will deluge our esteemed campus next week. Inaugural services and Homecoming. Exciting—thrilling—devising, at least to the pocket book for one simply must have a few things to celebrate. Densmore-Leonard, as usual, lead the list of enticers with their new line of tailored sport frocks. Attractive and smart-fashioned of soft light weight jerseys—they are prime favorites with Fashion this fall.

With Letitia Abram's hats just above on the balcony the average victim readily succumbs to, at least, looking them over and inevitably ends up by buying one—for they are so utterly distinctive and of such ultra quality and value that to resist wearing one is simply impossible. Her felt and velours are extremely good this season and direct from the hands of master designers.

With skirts shorter than ever, hoiery is pretty much of a problem these days, however, for fall and school wear, light weight woolen hose is the accepted thing. Ruth Cyrus has just received a new shipment from the regular Portland Berg stock and they are obtainable in all colors and plaids at her home-shop, 241 E 12th.

It seems so good to have earrings in vogue again, and, altho, they are sold everywhere, to find something gratifying to one's taste is rather difficult, or, at least, it was, until The Aladdin Gift Shop introduced among their novelty jewelry the quaintest and most original specimens conceivable. They are of silver and enamel combinations and, are priced amazingly low.

To fix the house cozy and attractive for our old "alums" is now the issue before us, however, this year we have procured the services of Raup's Floral Co. and are now content to rest satisfied in joyful speculations as to the glories of the completed product. Raup's seem to have the knack of softening and enriching a room by the unobtrusive arrangement of their flowers.

In spite of their firm denials I believe all "alums" eat between meals so for their convenience we are having McKillops fill special candy jars with delicious confections to be placed in certain inviting spots.

With all this good weather descending upon us horseback riding is the popular diversion. Betty Lou and the Twins and myself had really a most gorgeous time yesterday. Got El Hot's and Underwood's to pack us a lunch and we devoured it 'way up in the hills. The food was truly so marvelous and every thing so pleasant that we are already anticipating a similar excursion, soon.

Sunny fall days and freedom of appearance is quite the paramount mode, as result one's crowning glory is much in evidence, and must be carefully coiffured. Hasting Sister's (Minor Bldg.) with their marceles, water-waves and curls, are the agents that bring about a woman's realization of her goal of hopes namely: to be beautiful.

You feel as you look and act as you feel. This is true, Anne, everytime I get a hair cut at the Co-ed Barber Shop I always feel so neat and trim that it tones up my whole system. Its an O. K. establishment that can bring about such a welcome physical reaction.

As a fitting culmination and as a reward for penning this espistle I think I deserve a tea at the Anchorage. So here's for thinking of you kindly during my enjoyment of the next hour.

Yours for always,
CAROL.
