The extreme cold weather of the last few days has not seemed to put any sort of damper upon campus activities. On the contrary, they have been carried on with more than usual enthusiasm during the past week. Chief among the events scheduled for the immediate future are the Dime Crawl on February 3, sponsored by the Woman's League, and the novel and unusual dance planned by members of Alpha Delta Sigma, men's national honorary advertising fraternity, to be given at the Campa Shoppe on February 4. This dance is something new in Oregon history and promises to be most entertaining, judging from the limited details already divulged. The fraternity plans to make it an annual affair.

Mrs. E. Bel Chandler, new house-mother of Delta Delta Delta, has been the inspiration for numerous delightful affairs recently. On Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Gilbert the Tri Delta alliance entertained with a small tea in her honor. Eugene alumnae and mothers of the Eugene members were present. Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, Mrs. Eugene Kelly, Mrs. Carlton Spencer and Mrs. Raymond Walsh were hostesses during the afternoon and Mrs. Frederick Kerr Davis poured.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Chandler was honored at a beautifully appointed formal tea given by active members of Delta Delta Delta at the chapter house. About three hundred and fifty guests called between the hours of three and six. In the receiving line were Miss Alice McKinnon, Mrs. E. Bel Chandler, Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly and Miss Mozelle Hair.

Pussy willows and spring flowers were used in decorating the rooms, where Mrs. D. J. McKinnon, Miss Daisy Plant, Mrs. Fred Moxley, Miss Alberta McMonies, Miss Constance Cleaver and active members of the sorority assisted in entertaining. Orange predominated in the decorations for the dining room, which were carried out by orange doilies and tapers and a centerpiece of margolds. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. Virgil Parker, Mrs. W. O. Swan, Mrs. Frederick Kerr Davis, Mrs. Frank Carl, Mrs. Frederick G. Jennings, Mrs. Eugene S. Kelly, Mrs. Fred B. Moxley, and Mrs. George Fitch.

During the afternoon Miss Anna Katherine Garrett sang "Mighty Lak's a Rose" and "The Boat Song," accompanied on the harp by Miss Emily Williams, and also "The Nightingale" and "Indian Love Call" with Miss Alma Lawrence accompanying on the piano. Miss Williams also played two selections on the harp, "Danse Slav" and "Samson and Delilah," and Miss Lawrence played several piano solos.

Large colonnades, pillars and arches, set off to advantage by brilliant colored lights formed an effective background for the annual Frosh Glee which was held at the Woman's building on Saturday evening. The scene was that of the festival hall in a mediaeval castle, and swords, shields and old portraits further carried out the idea. The orchestra too was costumed in the fashion of the period, and as the feature of the evening a group of girls from Portland gave several charming dance selections.

Receiving in Alumni hall were President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Governor and Mrs. I. L. Patterson, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Hon. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Dean and Mrs. H. D. Walker, Dean and Mrs. William G. Hale, Prof. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. C. S. Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schucking.

Members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority were hostesses at a formal dinner on Saturday night honoring some of the patrons and patronesses for the Frosh Glee that evening. Their guests included Governor and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Kay, Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schucking and Mrs. Lena Schenedecor.

Announcements of engagements and marriages seem to be quite in vogue just now, as evidenced by the numerous ones which have been the outcome of the past week. At the Chi Omega and Sigma Alpha Epsilon houses on Saturday night at dinner was announced the betrothal of Miss Betty Easterday and Robert F. Benjamin, both students of the University. At the Chi Omega house the news was told by tiny cards hidden in corsages at each place, and a large box of candy was passed by the daughter. Miss Easterday is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Easterday of Portland, and is a member of Chi Omega. Mr. Benjamin is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Benjamin of Portland and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon, of which he is treasurer.

Simple but effective decorations transformed the rooms of the Theta Chi house into a fresh and spring-like garden on the occasion of the informal dance given by its members on Friday night. Red and white streamers interwoven on a background of black gave the impression of a latticed garden trellis, and the atmosphere was further enhanced by potted palms in the corners, which concealed dim colored lights. On one wall were the huge Greek characters, Theta Chi, on a black background.

Jack Coolidge, a freshman, gave several comic selections on the barjo as a feature. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnes and Lieutenant and Mrs. G. F. Herbert.

Something delightfully new in the way of entertainment was the bridge breakfast given by the pledges of Kappa Delta on Saturday morning from ten until one o'clock at the chapter house in honor of their housemother, Mrs. Jeannette G. Lange. The other housemothers of all the living organizations on the campus were invited as guests. Bridge was enjoyed after breakfast was served, and Miss Elsie Wagini gave several vocal solos.

Several members of Upsilon chapter of Sigma Kappa at O. A. C., including the Misses Margaret Watt, Mildred Thomas, Evelyn Quine, Elvira Bowman, Helen Falbe and Milvye, were dinner guests at the Sigma Beta Phi house here on Sunday. Additional guests were Miss Mary Kirkwood and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Eugene. The Misses Irene, Mary, Lucile and Corinne Burton played several musical selections during the afternoon.

This seems to be the season of dinner parties of various types, judging from the numerous ones that have been planned recently. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eric W. Allen entertained the active members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalistic fraternity, at her home. Dinner was served on trays about the fireplace, and was followed by the regular business meeting of the group.

Upperclassmen of Sigma Phi Epsilon were hosts at a "Grocers' Ball" at their chapter house on Friday evening. Unique and interesting effects in decorations were carried out by clever signs and posters advertising all kinds of groceries. Sales slips bearing the words "Sig Ep Grocery" were used as programs. Patron and patroness for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Scott.

Sigma Beta Phi girls entertained with a faculty dinner at their home on Thursday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Barnes, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Homer P. Rainey and Mr. George Turnbull.

On Sunday morning in The Dalles, Oregon, Miss Charlotte Newhouse became the bride of Harry Holt, both of them former students of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Holt was a member of the class of 1925 and was affiliated with Delta Zeta. Mr. Holt is a member of Sigma Chi. The couple will make their home in Oakland, California, after a short wedding trip through the South.

News of the marriage of Miss Jessie Allyn Johnson and Robert Forbis on last Wednesday afternoon has just been received. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. C. N. Johnson of Portland, is a graduate of this university, where she was a member of Delta Gamma. Mr. Forbis was graduated from Brown University, and is affiliated with Sigma Chi.

A delightfully unusual "Pirate Dance" given on Friday night by Kappa Alpha Theta upperclassmen served as a refreshing departure from the usual line of entertainment. The rooms were decorated like a pirate den with boxes, barrels, gunnery sacks and flickering candles, and all the guests, who were dressed in costume, entered by means of a ladder.

Delta Zeta sorority sponsored a large benefit bridge at their home on Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of their town and campus friends. Bridge tables were arranged in the living rooms, and an enjoyable musical program was given. Miss Easter Craddock was in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Of great interest to the Oregon campus is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Lou Burton and Prof. George Turnbull of the school of journalism, which was told at a dinner at the home of Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen on Saturday night.

Cohn Wins From Two In Handball Tourney As Fray Progresses

There's an old adage about the rich getting richer and the poor getting poorer, which might be applied indirectly to the donut handball tournaments now in progress.

Only in this case, it happens to be that the good players are getting better and the punk ones getting beaten, nor does it imply that the losers last week are necessarily punk, just unlucky.

First on the list today comes the Benson-Cohn match with Cohn the winner by 21-7, 21-16.

Bill Sorsby had an easy time defeating Rafferty 21-0, 21-9 and "Dutch" Widmer won from Bogne 21-11, 21-4.

Mobley beat Renshaw 21-2, 21-19 and Gabriel took Mobley's measure 21-6, 21-0. The final match recorded on the score board is the Cohn-Glenn Howard match which Cohn won after a hard fight 17-21, 21-7, 21-17.

Benson and Neer defeated Coffey and King in the doubles side of the tournament 21-16, 21-13. In a private little law school scuffle, Cohn and Long defeated Dahl and Mautz 21-10, 29-21, 21-7 completing the contests to date.

Hatton Stars as Frosh Win From Franklin High

Kretzmeier Quakers' Star; Spike's Proteges Take Trip North Next

Table with 2 columns: Frosh 33 and Franklin 21. Lists names and scores for various players like Potts, Robie, Clark, Cheny, Coleman, Dowsett, Hatton, and Kashuba.

Hal Hatton, football backfield star, basketball player and what not, shone in the 33-21 defeat handed the Franklin high school quintet of Portland Saturday by Spike Leslie's Frosh.

Things looked bad for the Frosh, who after taking the lead in the first minutes of the battle, were headed by the Quaker artists in the third quarter.

Kretzmeier, Franklin's star guard, had just sunk a long shot, putting his cohorts ahead 16-14, when Hatton went on a little war path of his own and dropped in baskets from all angles, netting 11 points in the course of events.

Seales, forward, and Kretzmeier, guard, played the best game for the prep school layout with Hatton's shooting and Coleman's guarding the spectacular work done by the Frosh.

A return game with Franklin will be played in Portland January 27, as the Frosh start on their northern trip which includes games with Columbia University's five and the University of Washington Babes on January 28 and 29 respectively.

Spike Leslie, Frosh coach, has not picked the men to make the northern invasion but the "primary election" is scheduled to come about Thursday when 10 candidates will be elected.

Shrimp Phillips, ex-'23, is now engaged in work at the new broadcasting station, KGEH, at the Eugene hotel. The station, in addition to broadcasting local talent programs and Eugene advertising, also broadcasts the results of athletic games at the University.

Results of the basketball games will Gonzaga and Idaho were broadcast through KGEH, and the returns of last night's game with Washington State College at Pullman were broadcast.

Shrimp was active in campus activities when a student at the University, being a member of the Order of the "O", and for four years a member of the Glee Club quartet. He was affiliated with Beta Theta Pi.

Captain

(Continued from page one) Coach Billy Reinhart alternates his team pilots, using Swede Westergren one game, Jerry Gunther the next, and Roy Okerberg the following game. Edward Abercrombie, swimming mentor, does not believe that it is to the best advantage of an athletic team to have an elected captain, and therefore does not use one.

Four men are eligible for the captaincy of the football squad, having campaigned for two years under varsity colors and having gained the required two stripes. They are Victor Wetzel, halfback and fullback; Beryl Hodgen, guard; Nick Carter, center; and Homer Dixon, tackle.

of view and anything they can contribute may be of very great value. Insofar as I'm concerned constructive criticism is of very great value."

"I am in favor of the student investigations, but at the same time I do not think that they will be immediate agencies of reform," said Mrs. Mary Watson Barnes, professor of English. "There is value to the students themselves in taking conscious thought of their own educational aims and being given occasion to evaluate their purposes and opportunities. There is also value to an administration in getting the students' point of view.

"However, there are many students who take no interest in the investigation, do not read the reports, or consider the questions, and I doubt whether an undergraduate report represents a very general body of student opinion. The faculty is grateful that the students are taking an interest in their own education. However, students who object to the existing institution need to give evidence of a serious willingness to take advantage of their present opportunities."

"The most hopeful sign is the fact that the students seem to be sincerely interested in it," said Dr. H. R. Taylor, professor of psychology. "No possible change that could be made, either in courses, instructors or methods of instruction would do much good unless the students were vitally interested in improving educational processes. I don't feel you could compel students to take active rather than passive attitude toward college education. "We should be open minded enough not to blame the other person for poor results. Often a professor, if he hasn't done well in his teaching, excuses himself by saying that the students lack interest. Or the lax student blames the professor, or his methods."
