

Society

By HELEN SHANK
One's popularity seems to be estimated these days by the number of formal one rates, for just now dances seem to be the chief source of diversion. It is interesting to note the variety of clever ideas in the way of entertainment which appear at these festivities, all of which combine to make the winter semester one of the most enjoyable of all from a social standpoint.

Honoring Miss Elenor Bennet, national officer of Kappa Kappa Gamma who was a visitor on the campus last week, members of the chapter here entertained with a reception and tea on Tuesday afternoon between the hours of three and six at the chapter house. About three hundred guests were invited to call.

Receiving were Miss Edith Sorenson, Miss Bennet, Mrs. Lettie Mowrey, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly and Mrs. E. W. Allen. Mrs. C. L. Teshner, Mrs. J. Bishop Tingle, Mrs. J. M. Miller, Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. Homer P. Rainey and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers poured.

A yellow color scheme was charmingly carried out by yellow tapers and a large bouquet of yellow spring blooms on the tea table. During the afternoon a delightful musical program was given, including numbers by Miss Emily Williams on the harp, Miss Katherine Inwood at the piano, and Miss Margaret Inwood on the violin, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Janssen.

The spirit of the Valentine season was predominant at the formal supper dance given by members of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the Eugene hotel on Saturday night. At each table was a colorful centerpiece of red candles and greenery, and tiny red leather programs with a heart cut out in the center bearing the sorority crest told the order of dances. A large Oriental rug and tall potted palms gave a beautiful background for the orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Lettie Mowrey, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Prof. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller.

At dinner at the Sigma Beta Phi house on Sunday were several members of Sigma Kappa at the O. A. C., including the Misses Norma Brastead, Velma Morgan, Birdene Pheese, Betty Rolfe, Ruth Bartruff, Blanche Hurd, Marion Graham, and Miss Bertha Whillock, district councillor. Two French dolls in red and black, each holding valentines, formed the centerpiece of the table, and at each place was a tiny red heart-shaped box filled with Valentine candies.

A musical program was given by the four Burton sisters.

Thirty couples enjoyed the delightful formal supper dance for which members of Alpha Beta Chi fraternity were hosts at the Eugene hotel on Friday evening. The rooms were made most attractive with cut flowers and potted palms, and dance programs in white leather served as place cards. The feature of the evening was a group of popular songs by Ted O'Hara who accompanied himself on the mandolin.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson, Dean and Mrs. D. H. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Merrill.

On Saturday afternoon the Girls' Oregon club entertained with a skating party at the Winter Garden, which provided something new in the way of amusement. Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon acted as patroness for the affair.

The formal dance given by Phi Sigma Kappa at the Woman's building on Saturday night had as a setting a Holland scene. A huge Dutch windmill in the midst of a bed of tulips gave a still and quiet Old-World atmosphere to the affair. The rooms were lavishly decorated in tulips of many colors, and on the walls were picturesque scenes with Dutch children and geese as the central figures.

Supper was served in the sun room at little tables where the Dutch motif was further carried out. As the feature of the evening Miss Margaret Holbrook gave a cunning little Dutch dance in costume.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Hon. and Mrs. Sam A. Kozier, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Dr. and Mrs. Willem von Hoogstraten, Dean and Mrs. D. H. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale, Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Kelly, Mr. Louis P. Artau and Dr. Wm. P. Maddox.

One of the outstanding affairs of the week was the bridge party and tea at which members of Gamma Phi Beta honored their housemother, Mrs. Josephine Stewart. Bridge was played between two and four o'clock and additional guests were invited to call during the tea hour.

The rooms were made bright and colorful with spring flowers, and centering the tea table were tall pink tapers and a large bouquet of pink carnations with yellow acacia.

In the receiving line were Miss Esther Setters, Mrs. Stewart and Miss Harriett Dezenendorf. Mrs. I. L. Patterson and Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks of Salem poured. Included among the guests were a number of women from Salem, Albany and Corvallis.

Robert McKnight sang several solos during the tea hour.

Garbage cans, tin cans and every other kind of cans lined the walls and filled the corners while the Tin Can Alley Ball was in progress at the Pi Beta Phi house on Friday evening. It was a middle-class dance in fact as well as in name as only juniors and sophomores could attend.

One of the illuminating features was the clothesline which stretched its perilous way across what is usually a dining room, and the walls were covered with suggestions as to what's what in picture shows and circuses. To step into the dance, it would recall stories told of Bowery days and Bowery ways.

The chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leslie and Mr. and Mrs. Nowland B. Zane had dressed the part, and light sweaters, plaid skirts, caps over one eye and thumbs in vest pockets all helped to create the atmosphere which made the Tin Can Alley Ball one of the most unusual dances of the season.

Members of Alpha Xi Delta and their housemother, Mrs. Charles Gray, were hostesses at dinner at the chapter house on Saturday night for a number of their out-of-town friends. Covers were laid for Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. Ben Schucking, Mrs. Anna Gilbert, Mrs. Isaac L. Patterson, Mrs. Reuben Boice, Mrs. John Lauterman, Mrs. Robert Hendricks and Miss Margaret Casper of Salem and Mrs. Josephine Stewart of Eugene.

Oregon colors carried out by lemon yellow streamers and potted palms and greenery made a truly collegiate atmosphere at the formal supper dance given by members of Sigma Pi Tau on Saturday night at the Osburn hotel. The chandeliers were covered with lemon yellow, giving a softly shadowy effect. The programs were in red leather.

Several guests from out-of-town attended the dance, including Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Clark of Portland and some members of Delta Upsilon at Corvallis.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Prof. and Mrs. H. G. Tanner, Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Kelly, and Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Milne.

Alpha Delta Sigma, men's advertising fraternity, struck a new note in the way of parties at the unique and unusual Krazy Kopy Krawl given at the Campa Shoppe on Friday night. The room was decorated with cut-out advertisements displayed in humorous fashion, and the dancing during the evening was interspersed with a number of clever features, all take-offs on modern advertising. At each table were copies of a miniature newspaper in which the guests were instructed as to the correct method of procedure at such an affair, and in which the list of features was given. It is planned to make the dance an annual occasion.

The Anchorage was the scene of the enjoyable informal supper dance for which members of Sigma Chi were hosts on Saturday night. The rooms were made bright with twisted streamers of gold and blue, the fraternity colors, and on one wall was the fraternity crest. A dim lighting effect was achieved by the candles at the tables, and at each place was a white rose, the Sigma Chi flower. Gold and blue programs, crested, told the order of dances. The orchestra featured the last dance by singing the Sigma Chi sweetheart song.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Reinhart, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. McCready and Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Reinhart.

Mortar Board initiated two honorary members, Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall and Miss Florence Magowan on Sunday afternoon at six o'clock at the home of Mrs. P. L. Campbell.

The wedding of Miss Alberta Griley of Portland and Holt Wilson Slaughter of Tacoma was an event of yesterday at the Griley home in Portland. The bride was a student of Oregon Agricultural College, where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. She has a number of friends on this campus. Mr. Slaughter formerly attended the University of Oregon, and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The couple will make their home in Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Woodward of Portland are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Virginia Brewett. The Woodwards will be remembered as former students here. Mrs. Woodward was Lillian Ward Baker, and a member of Delta Delta Delta, and Mr. Woodward, who was a prominent member of the Emerald staff and active in student body affairs, is affiliated with Theta Chi. Their wedding was an event of last year at the Delta Delta Delta chapter house here.

The engagement of Miss Mary McCullagh, '25, to Mr. J. Lee Stewart, a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College, was announced during dinner at the Delta Zeta house on Sunday. Telegrams hidden under each chair told of the event.

Miss McCullagh was a former student here and is affiliated with Delta Zeta. She is now teaching in Roseburg high school. Mr. Stewart is a member of Kappa Psi fraternity at O. A. C. The wedding will be an event of next summer.

Freshmen and sophomores of Beta Theta Pi were hosts at an informal dinner dance at the chapter house on Friday night. The rooms were simply and effectively decorated in potted palms and cut spring flowers. Crested programs lettered in gold stood at each place. Music was furnished by four members of the Campa Shoppe orchestra, and Ted O'Hara gave a few selections with his mandolin.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Nish Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Manerud and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McLardy.

Dean Virginia Judy Esterly invited the fifteen active members of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary society, for dessert and coffee at her home on Tuesday evening. An interesting discussion was carried on, followed by the regular meeting of the group.

Mrs. A. E. Roberts was hostess at her home on Sunday evening for an informal supper party honoring the officers of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's musical honorary. The guests were the Misses Nina Warnock, Olga Jackson, Grace Potter, Wanda Eastwood, Frances Pierce, Adelaide Johnson, Claire Whitten and Celeste Campbell.

Well dressed gentlemen acknowledge the preeminence of Stetson smartness... and appreciate the economies of Stetson quality

Eight to Forty Dollars

Write for interesting booklet "THE STETSON HAT in LITERATURE" John B. Stetson Company, Philadelphia

STETSON HATS

Styled for Young Men

Wade Bros.

Exclusive Stetson Dealers
EUGENE

Carnival Dance

SATURDAY NITE at Thurston

When We Say Carnival We Mean Carnival

LOFFER'S ORCHESTRA

When you eat out---

You want something different from the ordinary. You can find it at the Manhattan Cafe—where food isn't just food, and where you can get the best of service. You will enjoy the delicious Chicken Tamales, Noodles and Chili Con Carne.

Special Sunday Dinners—75c

Whatever you want—simply ask for it.

And remember, we stay open All Night

Manhattan Cafe

685 Willamette

Do You Like Good Home-Made Pastry?

Try our home-made pies and cakes made fresh daily. For lunches our French Egg Waffles and Toasted Sandwiches will satisfy you.

Electric Toastwich Shoppe

786 E. 11th St.

It'll tickle you pink LAST DAY

BETTY BRONSON RICARDO CORTEZ

THE CATS PAJAMAS

With THEODORE ROBERTS

REX

Dance

Every Wednesday 8-to-10

Ye Campa Shoppe

Type 'Em

Can you read your notes after they've grown cold. Buy your own typewriter taking advantage of our Special Student Terms

Office Mach & Supply Co.

The Whitman College Professor has issued a style sheet after 31 years of doing without one. The editor of the Emerald has a few selections with his mandolin.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Nish Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Manerud and Mr. and Mrs. Richard McLardy.

Dean Virginia Judy Esterly invited the fifteen active members of Kwama, sophomore women's honorary society, for dessert and coffee at her home on Tuesday evening. An interesting discussion was carried on, followed by the regular meeting of the group.

Mrs. A. E. Roberts was hostess at her home on Sunday evening for an informal supper party honoring the officers of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's musical honorary. The guests were the Misses Nina Warnock, Olga Jackson, Grace Potter, Wanda Eastwood, Frances Pierce, Adelaide Johnson, Claire Whitten and Celeste Campbell.

HUNGRY GREASE CUPS!

"Little squeaks and little rattles, if neglected multiply on a car about as fast as fleas on a pup."
—P. Troleum.

All the little grease cups—and the springs "S. O. S." you with their hungry high-sign. They want good grease—and they won't be happy 'till they get it. Bring 'em around to our grease cafeteria and we'll feed 'em all—and add to your joy of motoring. We serve you right.

SEIBERLING CORDS

BETTIS & WYATT

SUPER SERVICE STATION
Ninth and Olive Streets
PHONE 2240 EUGENE, OREGON

NOW PLAYING —Till Thursday Midnight

Here She Be---

The Epic of Entertainment
"Filmed in Oregon"

BUSTER KEATON

in "The General"

Comedy Masterpiece!

Admission 50c
Matinee or Night

NOVELTY AND NEWS MERRY-MACKS Nightly at Nine FRANK'S ORGAN SOLO