

By HELEN SHANK

The past week-end marked the end of the social season for the winter term as far as dances and most other festivities are concerned, and students are turning their undivided attention to last minute cramming, preparation of term papers and equally delightful occupations. However, the many affairs already scheduled for spring term promise to make it an equally interesting one. Foremost among these is the Seven Seers dance, which has been set for April 23. The custom as started by the Seven Seers of last year's regime to give a dance which would be a departure from the ordinary run of entertainment, to which all those whose names had been mentioned in the Seven Seers column were invited. The dance this year will be, as before, a costume cabaret, and Paul Luy declares that the attractions and features will be clever and unique in the extreme.

The interesting Coffee Dens of San Francisco's underworld furnished the motif for the informal dance given by Phi Gamma Delta upperclassmen at the chapter house on Friday night. A most impromptu atmosphere prevailed. The guests came in costume and entered by a coaster slide in the doorway which furnished a great deal of amusement. A false ceiling of red draperies, with dim red lights, gave the effect of subdued color.

When the dancers were called to supper they were seated at small tables and provided with small hammers with which to rap their summons for the waiters, who promptly served them with the typical underworld fare of tamales, ham buns and coffee in huge mugs.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Henningsen and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kiggins.

One of the largest affairs of the week was the benefit bridge party and tea given on Saturday afternoon by Kappa Kappa Gamma at the chapter house, from two to six. Bridge tables were placed in the sun parlor and the dining room, and additional guests called at four o'clock for tea, which was served in the drawing room. The house was softly lighted, and brightened with masses of bright yellow daffodils. Guests included a number of town and campus women, and in the evening from ten to twelve a group of campus folk called for bridge and dancing.

A delightful musical program was given during the afternoon, consisting of numbers by Miss Margaret Inwood on the violin, Miss Katherine Inwood at the piano, and vocal solos by Miss Janet Pierce and William Forbis.

One of the numerous parties made possible by the Washington's birthday holiday was the breakfast dance for which members of Phi Kappa Psi were hosts on Tuesday morning at the Eugene hotel. The breakfast dance is an annual event of Washington's birthday and has become a house tradition.

Guests were seated at small tables in the hotel dining room, and dancing was enjoyed between courses. Each table was centered with a colorful bouquet of spring blossoms. As a special feature Tom Hanley gave a clog dance.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. McCook and Mrs. Raley of Pendleton.

An old fashioned lawn gay with flowering trellises transformed the Kappa Delta house into a quaint and spring-like garden on the occasion of the informal dance given by its members on Friday night. Pastel colored streamers covered the ceiling, and the walls were embanked by tall slender hollyhocks with trailing orchid and yellow mistaria clinging to the lattices. Soft shaded Japanese lanterns further enhanced the scene.

Etha Jeanne Clark gave a dainty colonial dance as a feature. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Jeannette G. Lange, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Caswell and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Koke.

Members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority were hostesses at a formal grille dance at the Eugene hotel on Saturday night. The guests were seated at small tables centered by tall pink tapers set in banks of spring flowers and ferns, and programs of black suede with a gold crest marked each place.

Among the out-of-town guests at the formal were Odile Matthews, Frances Smith, Velma Shattuck, Kathleen Skinner, of the O. A. C. chapter of Alpha Xi Delta, and Hulda Guild, a former member of the chapter here.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Douglass, Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Beardsley, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Fols, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Johnson and Mrs. Chas. A. Gray.

Underclassmen of Sigma Phi Epsilon were hosts at an informal dance at their chapter house on Friday night. The rooms represented a young man's college study with typical accoutrements. At one end stood a dresser heaped with the usual line of things, and on another side was a study table and typewriter. Covering the walls were pennants of various colleges and schools, tennis rackets, canoe paddles and other implements of warfare. Music was furnished by Sharkey Moore's orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Parsons.

An interesting informal was that given by Susan Campbell Hall girls at the Woman's building on Friday night, at which the pirate idea predominated in the decorations. Bows of red carnations, and chandeliers shaded with red further carried out the color scheme, and the players in the orchestra were dressed in typical costumes of Captain Kidd days. Programs in the shape of pirates' heads told the order of dances.

The committee in charge of the decorations consisted of Emmabell Woodworth and Ailie Laudien. Margaret Holbrook gave a feature dance in pirate costume.

Patrons and patronesses were Miss Ernestine Troemel, Miss Fanny McCamant, Mr. Lawrence de Rycke and Mr. Edward Kelly.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave its annual formal on Friday night in the form of a dinner dance at the Eugene hotel. Beautiful bouquets of fresh spring flowers and ferns made charming centerpieces for the small tables at which the guests were seated.

During the evening a number of selections given by two pianists in duet made an attractive feature.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Paul P. Shaw of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodworth of Tacoma, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rapp and Capt. and Mrs. Frank Culin of Eugene.

A number of out-of-town girls of the younger set were guests at the informal dance given by members of Alpha Delta Pi at their home on Saturday night. The scene was that of a cocoon tent, filled with tall palms in whose branches perched tropical birds in varied hues. Softly shaded lights and red candles furnished the only light.

Refreshments were served from an oasis at one end of the room, where stood a striped tent circled by palm trees.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Jewett, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Griefe, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly and Mrs. Lucy Perkins.

Miss Frances Bourhill and Miss Ruth Gregg entertained with an informal dinner party at their apartment on Tuesday evening. Their guests included members of Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalism society. Covers were laid for the Misses Geneva Drum, Alice Kraeft, Minnie Fisher, Flossie Radabaugh, Genevieve Morgan, Mary Benton, Grace Fisher, Claudia Fletcher, Barbara Blythe, Marian Lowry, Wilma Lester, Eva Nealon, Margaret Hensley, Mrs. Helen Reynolds, Mrs. Jane Dudley Epley, and the hostesses.

Sigma Nu upperclassmen entertained with a formal grille dance at their chapter house on Friday evening. Softly shaded lights and tall potted palms made a clever but attractive background. Clever hand-painted programs bearing a comic menu on one side and the order of dances on the other stood at each place.

During the evening Margaret Holbrook featured with a song and dance, and Ted O'Hara gave several popular selections with his banjo.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. H. D. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter.

The decorations for the formal dance given by Pi Beta Phi at the chapter house on Saturday night were designed to carry out the motif of a trip into fairyland and a glimpse of all the queer little creatures who live there. Little bugs with suitcases in their hands and shoes on their feet had taken their places in the corners and on the cobwebs of tinsel which fairy spiders had woven on the walls.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. H. D. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oberteuffer and Mrs. Frank Benson.

Freshmen of Alpha Phi and Gamma Phi Beta were joint hostesses at a tea dansant at the Alpha Phi house on Saturday afternoon. Yellow daffodils and tall yellow tapers lent color to the rooms. Dancing was enjoyed from two until five.

Patronesses were Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Ada L. Patterson, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. Henry W. Augustine and Mrs. Stearns, who is acting as housemother for Gamma Phi Beta sorority in the absence of Mrs. Josephine Stewart.

The Girls' Oregon club held a delightful dancing party Friday night at the home of Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, the club advisor. The guests all came in colonial costumes and during the intermission an interesting program of short plays and feature dances was enjoyed.

Mrs. Robert D. Horn was welcomed as a patroness of the group at that time.

Another holiday event was the benefit grille dance sponsored by Alpha Chi Omega sorority at the Campa Shoppe on Tuesday afternoon from three to five. A number of campus folk attended the affair. Music was furnished by the usual Campa Shoppe orchestra.

Basketball

(Continued from page one) that characterized last week's play will be gone.

The completed standings of both the Northern and Southern divisions of the Coast conference show that California is the only aggregation to finish its season undefeated, although the Southerners played only five games to Oregon's ten.

Coast Conference Standings

Northern Section:
	W	L
Oregon	8	2
Washington	7	3
Idaho	7	3
O. A. C.	4	6
W. S. C.	3	7
Montana	1	9

Southern Section:
	W	L
California	5	0
Stanford	3	2
Southern California	0	6

Jack Benefiel has announced that tickets will be obtainable by Oregon students at 50c while high school and O. A. C. student will be charged 75c. General admission will be $1.00 while reserved seats will cost $1.25.

New Yorker to Talk To Phi Beta Kappa

Hugh Black, professor of theology at the Union Theological Seminary, New York, and author of numerous works of a religious nature, will visit the University during the se-

Open Every Hour

Tamales, noodles, sandwiches, Special Dinners

Drop in and get acquainted

Manhattan Cafe
685 Willamette St.

Jim Says —

You had better get your galoshes repaired before the next flood.

JIM THE SHOE DOCTOR

From "Oh, Kay!"

838-D 10 in. 75c

Take in the Sun, Hang out the Moon
Clap Yo' Hands From "Oh, Kay!"
Male Quintets
The Singing Sophomores

Columbia Records
NEW PROCESS

Eugene Music Shop

1038 Willamette St., Eugene Oregon

cond or third week of April, it was announced by M. H. Douglass, who has been in correspondence with him.

He will at that time speak before the spring meeting of Phi Beta Kappa, and efforts are being made to have him speak before the general assembly.

Dunn to Tell Preppers Of Caesar's Monuments

Frederic S. Dunn, head of the Latin department, will speak to the Latin classes of the Eugene high school tomorrow on "Caesar and His Monuments." Professor Dunn has given other talks to the high school Latin classes, the last one about a week ago on "Greek Musical Instruments."

Contest

(Continued from page one) in geology, Herbert Socolofsky, Salem, junior in business administration, Beryl Ludington, Eugene, senior in economics, and Florence Alberta Watters, Pendleton, freshman in romance language.

Essays Well Written The judges say that the essays are of a high character and well written.

Judges for the contest were William G. Hale, dean of the law school, Dan E. Clark, assistant director of the extension division, and Mary Perkins, professor of English. The names were not on the manuscripts but were identified by the title alone. The title was placed in an envelope with the name of the person on the outside. The names were attached to the manuscripts after they had been judged.

The contest was started by Mrs. Murray Warner a number of years ago with only a prize of $50. It was later expanded to $100 and last year she offered $300 in prizes which was divided into the first prize of $150, second of $100 and third of $50.

George Berezovsky, a student from Russia, junior in business administration, won the first award last year; Winnogene Penny, Grants Pass, senior in sociology, won second; Phil Bergh and Wallace Paek tied for third; Ruth Gregg received honorable mention.

Returns from the Oriental section of the contest, which includes stories written by Orientals, have not yet been announced.

Week's Athletic Schedule

Basketball—The Pacific coast championship basketball series with the University of California, McArthur court, Thursday, Friday and possibly Saturday, March 3, 4, 5 at 7:15 p. m.

Handball—Continuation of the free-lance doubles tournament.

Squash—Continuation of the free-lance squash tournament.

Classified Ads

COACHING in French. Phone 2437R. For further information, Mrs. R. V. Vadnaia, f22-24-25-26

LOST—Key ring and six keys. Finder please call 425L. Reward. ml

R. C. Clark to Write History of Willamette

Dr. R. C. Clark, head of the history department, has made an agreement with S. A. Clark Co. of Chicago to write a "History of the Willamette Valley." It will be three hundred thousand word volume to cover the developments of social and religious life, educational and political history and is to be written ready for publication the first of January, 1928.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE EMERALD

March Birthdays

and other Anniversaries

Are best remembered by Flowers

On your birthday remember your mother. A flower taken to your mother on your birthday brings you right to her. It's the nicest compliment you can pay "the best pal you ever had" and is next best to flowers delivered by you in person.

The University Florist

598 13th Ave. East

Phone 654

Emerson Once Said:

(of Emanuel Swedenborg, eminent scientist and philosopher.)

"He is not to be measured by whole colleges of ordinary scholars, his books alone constitute a sufficient library for a mental athlete."

Hear This Lecture Tonight On

"Emanuel Swedenborg"

Prophet of this new age by

Rev. Wm. R. Reece, of Portland

—at the—

OSBURN HOTEL GRILLE ROOM

Tonight, 8 P. M.

Miss Violet Mills will offer several vocal solos

Accompanied by Miss Frances Wardner, at the piano.

This lecture has been given in all principal cities of the Northwest and furnishes an intriguing answer to the WHY of modern scientific and spiritual progress.

FREE QUESTIONS ANSWERED

SECOND DAY McDONALD STOPS THURSDAY

IF THERE'S a Drop of Romance in Your Blood---

The Magic of Romance That Thrills Every Heart

Now, Comes the Most Glorious of All Love Dramas— With "The Screen's Greatest Lovers"—

"The NIGHT of LOVE" with Ronald Colman Vilma Banky

FELIX & NEWS SPECIAL NEWS REGULAR PRICES

Silk Underwear

A New Shipment Just Unpacked

Dainty, frilly, lace trimmed crepe de chine teddies, step-ins. Tailored silk jersey step-ins, vests in plain and two toned effects, with lace trimming, a marvelous assortment of fine underwear at prices never before equaled for merchandise of similar quality. All wanted pastel shades.

Hosiery Special

All colors and sizes, full fashioned chiffon and service—

$2.00 Value, $1.50

Gilmore's

Willamette at Ninth