

Floats Limited To Even Dozen In Canoe Fete

Presentation Undergoes Radical Changes; Expense Cut

Only twelve floats will be entered in the Junior Week-End canoe fete this spring, according to an agreement of the Pan-Hellenic and Inter-Fraternity councils. To make this possible, Herbert Socolofsky, chairman of the fete, has arranged a plan whereby twelve representatives will be selected from the men's living organizations and women's living organizations.

The dozen floats from each gender will cooperate with partners picked by lottery from the opposite persuasion. Houses left over will move up the next year and participate, while the houses that are supplanted will remain idle until their turns come again. The possibilities under this plan are enormous. As there are 18 men's organizations and 23 women's houses, the mill race will be a memory before each house has paired with each other house.

Eventually, as the University grows larger and more dormitories and fraternities come into existence, each house will be required to present a float only every other year, or even every third or fourth year, which will make it possible to prepare new features, and to concentrate time and energy instead of broadening it as has been done in the past.

The resolutions presented to the Pan-Hellenic and Inter-Fraternity councils by Socolofsky follow:

"WHEREAS, the number of floats entered in the Junior Week-End Canoe Fete is considered too large for successful presentation, and

WHEREAS, a feeling is believed to exist that it has become too great an expense and effort for every organization to enter a float each year, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED: that, henceforth the number of floats to be entered in the Junior Week-End Fete shall be twelve (12), and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: that, each organization draw a permanent number which will determine the position of order and rotation of the organizations entering floats each year in said Canoe Fete."

McArthur Court Able To Seat 6000; Bears Want Large Crowd

Sufficient seats are available for this week's playoff series with the University of California for the coast basketball championship, to seat comfortably all that are expected to attend. The new pavilion has been completed at a very opportune time in view of the coming series.

The newly-constructed edifice, financed by student funds, has an approximate seating capacity of 6000. Reserve seats are available for 1000 spectators, the bleachers will accommodate 2000 more, and the balcony is designed to hold 3000. The structure has a playing floor, being 94x50 feet in area. The ceiling is 80 feet above the playing floor.

Due to a conference ruling, 50 cents will be charged to students for the coming series, and $1.00 will be charged for general admission tickets. Reserved seats are selling for $1.25. Student tickets are now on sale at the Co-op. This ruling was designed to protect the visiting teams, particularly if the series chanced to be played at a school having only a limited seating capacity.

California is carrying a party of 21 players, managers, and coaches, and has a guaranty of $1250 for this purpose, with an option of 50 per cent of the receipts. As it will cost approximately $100 for each member of the party, the Bears are pulling for plenty of gate receipts.

Virgil D. Earl, director of athletics, announced yesterday that the proposed Pacific coast high school basketball tournament tentatively scheduled for McArthur court sometime this month has been called off, because of inability to find a suitable date.

door; he picked up an object on the side walk—a bandit's gun. He took the number on the butt and went off around the corner toward the "Co-ed."

This morning George Joseph is being held under suspicion by Sheriff Paul Sayre as the bandit and will await trial in April at the Lane county court house.

It was Sheriff Sayre who picked up the gun. He tells this: "The bandit intended the throw the money bag back of the hedge along the Co-op but it fell short and I found it on the walk. A few minutes later I arrested Joseph coming back from Rheams hall.

"Joseph is said to have approached Hyman Samuels yesterday and asked for a loan. Samuels refused and last night the College Side Inn was robbed."

The accused has engaged Attorneys Bruce Currey and Carl Dahl, Frank Meyer and Robert Clapper-ton will attempt the prosecution.

Eugene City Council Shown About Campus

Members of the Eugene city council were shown around the campus, and taken through the buildings yesterday by student body officers, President Arnold Bennett Hall and other members of the administration.

Debate

(Continued from page one) Australia, when their representatives were here last term. This is the third year both have represented Oregon on the rostrum. In the oratory tryouts held the first of this term Donald Beelar was selected to represent Oregon in the State Peach contest to be held at Willamette University in Salem. McCroskey will go to Los Angeles to represent Oregon in the National Constitutional contest this spring.

League Benefit Committees Are Now Complete

Marian Barnes, General Chairman; E. Waara, Assistant

Entirely different from anything else ever given in Eugene will be Jean Gros' French Marionettes, a puppet show, which is to be presented at the Heilig theater, April 11. Woman's League is sponsoring the production, the proceeds to be donated to the proposed Fine Arts building. Two performances will be given, "Uncle Wiggly" at a matinee and "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" in the evening.

Committee appointments for the puppet show have been completed and were announced last night by Marian Barnes, general chairman. They are: assistant chairman, Elizabeth Waara; finance committee: Ruth Burcham, chairman, Agnes Chipping, assistant chairman; tickets: Frances Plimpton, chairman, Margaret Nugent, Helen Webster, Edith Bain, Frances Vermiere, Mayanna Sargent, Norma Stamp, Dorothy Dougal, and Glenna Heacock; publicity, Margaret Long, chairman, Marion Sten, La Wanda Fenlason, and Sonia Wilderman; advertising: Dorothy Carter, chairman, Alice Douglas, Gladys Calef, Kathleen Rodgers, Nancy Peterson, Julia Wilson, and Marie Palo.

Speeches advertising the show will be given at local high schools and grammar schools, community and civic organizations, and living organizations on the campus. The ticket sale will commence immediately after spring vacation and at this time, men and women from fraternities and sororities will be appointed to take charge of the tickets sold in their respective houses.
