

Society

The publication of the social calendar for spring term indicates that the students will be exceptionally busy this term socially as well as intellectually. The first week-end was crowded with informals, tea-dances, and entertainment of all kinds, in many cases given in honor of guests who were visiting on the campus for April Frolic. Besides the activities on the campus, Portland has also been the scene of interesting announcements and entertainments.

The next man who has the audacity to speak slurringly of a woman's curiosity should be reminded of the fact that sometimes the stronger sex is not immune to that instinct. At least there is fairly good evidence that curiosity played some part in the desire experienced by some of the campus men to be present at the annual April Frolic held at the Woman's building last Saturday night. When the Frolic was well under way, the fashion show ready to start, and everything progressing beautifully, piercing screams announced the presence of men in the vicinity. Men about fifty strong, or they seemed that many, had rushed the gates, and it was some time before quiet was restored after the guards succeeded in expelling them. After the excitement, the stunts went on as usual, with a vaudeville act between the stunts put on by the classes. The sophomore stunt was awarded the cup as the best and most original stunt presented.

In addition to the social affairs contingent with the April Frolic, the installation of Eta Gamma chapter of Phi Mu took place this week-end. Pledging ceremonies were held Thursday afternoon and evening, followed by initiation Friday night.

Mrs. Z. W. Keller, of Chicago, Illinois, national executive manager of Phi Mu, was the guest of honor during the week-end. There were 30 girls visiting from Eta Beta and Tau chapters of University of Washington and Whitman College.

A formal reception was held at Alumnae hall from 3:00 to 5:00 Saturday afternoon for which 350 invitations were issued to campus and town people. In the receiving line were Mrs. Z. W. Keller, Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Dean Walker, Mrs. Nelson Maeduff, Virginia Priaulx, and Miss Sue L. Badollet. Assisting about the room were all the active girls and alumnae as well as the visiting girls from Washington. The freshmen and pledges served the small tables in the sun room, which were decorated with rosebuds.

The decorations were baskets of pink carnations, the sorority flower, and palms in the sun room. There was a musical program consisting of vocal selections by Mrs. Prudence Clark, violin solos by Edward Best and Nina Warnock, a piano solo by Alma Lawrence, and a vocal solo by Don Ostrander.

Those who poured were: Mrs. L. E. Woodring, Mrs. George Reed, Mrs. Henry W. Augustine, Mrs. Katherine Yerex.

The formal installation banquet was held at the Eugene hotel Saturday evening. The table was decorated with pink carnations and rose-shaded candelabras. There were covers laid for sixty.

The formal installation dance was held immediately after the banquet at the Eugene. The decorations were the same as those for the banquet.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Z. W. Keller, President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dean and Mrs. Walker, Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Maeduff, Miss Sue L. Badollet, and Miss Virginia Priaulx. The feature was a waltz given by the Stang studio.

Members of Chi Omega were hostesses at an informal dance at the chapter house Friday evening in honor of their guests for the week-end. The house was decorated with spring flowers and the programs were light green with the Chi Omega crest. Patrons and patronesses were Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Schreff, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McClain, and Captain and Mrs. John J. McEwan.

Spring flowers and palms with colored lights shining through them were the decorations at the Alpha Delta Pi house for their informal dance Friday evening in honor of guests who were down for the week-end.

The feature was a clown clog dance given by Marjorie and Lelah Horton. Patrons and patronesses were: Dr. and Mrs. Milne, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Packard, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Greife, Mrs. Lucy Perkins.

The engagement of Thelma Riley of Baker, Oregon, to Roger Woodrow of Spokane was announced at her home in Baker last week. Miss Riley graduated from the University of Oregon in the class of 1925, and was president of the Girl's Oregon club while on the campus.

A tea dance from 2:30 to 5:30 was given at the Alpha Omicron Pi house in honor of their guests for the week-end. Refreshments were served upstairs on small tables lighted with tapers. Mrs. Lucy Abrams was the patroness.

An engagement of interest to the Oregon campus was announced in Portland at a tea given by Mrs. Caroline Benson Under for her niece, Miss Georgia Benson, at which the engagement of the latter was formally announced to Mr. Paul Patterson.

Miss Benson attended the University and is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority. After the completion of her college work, Miss Benson acted as assistant dean of women on the campus. Mr. Patterson also attended the University and was affiliated with the Chi Psi lodge. He completed his work for a J.D. degree last year.

Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, dean of women on the Oregon campus, presided at the tea table during a part of the afternoon.

The news was told by cards presented at the door. The wedding has been set for May.

Delta Gamma sorority gave a formal dance at the Eugene hotel, Friday evening. The guests were seated at small tables which were decorated with center pieces of spring flowers and tapers. A feature was given by Ed Chaney.

The patronesses were: Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, and Mrs. Grace Russell.

Members of the Delta Zeta sorority were hostesses for an informal tea dance Saturday afternoon in honor of their guests for April Frolic. They decorated with spring flowers and the programs carried out the flower motif. A buffet lunch was served. The patronesses were Mrs. Eunice Zimmerman and Mrs. Grace Russell.

A Wizard of Oz dance was given at the Alpha Xi Delta house Friday night. Cartoons of the characters of the Oz books were on the walls and the programs were hand-painted pictures of Raggedy-Ann.

The feature was a Raggedy-Ann dance by Wayse Hockett.

The patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Beardsley and Mrs. C. A. Gray.

The engagement of Miss Marguerite Galvin and Mr. R. Royanne Brand, a graduate of the University of Oregon with June class of 1926, was announced on March 26 in Portland. No date has been set for the wedding.

Many friends of Harris Hampton Allen will be interested to learn of his engagement to Miss Katherine Whitlock of Searsdale, New York. Mr. Allen attended the University of Oregon where he was a member of Theta Chi fraternity.

Another engagement was announced which Oregon people will be interested in, that of Miss Frances Senter to Robert Fleming Hill which was recently announced in Portland. Mr. Hill attended the University and was affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta.

Don McCook, business manager, is about ready to broadcast a wave of advertising propaganda. He has art students tinkering with plans for novel programs just now. Altogether, the plans are breezing along as merry as a wedding bell, but the real grind will begin just as soon as the choruses and character parts are satisfactorily filled.

Representatives for Junior Week-end Meet Today in Johnson Hall

The Junior Representatives committee for Junior Week-end will meet today at 5 o'clock in room 110, Johnson hall. The committee, which is made up of one delegate from each campus living organization, will be told Junior Week-end plans in detail by the chairmen of the various week-end features and discuss the arrangements as outlined. In this manner the living organizations will be well informed as to what will be expected of them during the Junior affair.

Herbert Socolofsky, chairman of the Canoe Fete, will make a report on this feature of the week-end, while Benoit McCroskey, in charge of the Bevue, and Bill Powell, head of the Junior Prom committee, will outline the complete plans for these two events.

Attendance at the meeting today is very important, said Donald Beelar, chairman of the week-end, today, in order that every organization may have a full understanding of plans for the week-end activities. Members of the committee are:

IT HAPPENED IN THE SECOND ACT! A TRAGIC SCENE . . . BUT IT HAD A HAPPY ENDING

1. It was the "big moment" in the play. The suspense was terrific. "At last, my proud beauty, I have you in my power" . . . the villain snarled. "I am going to . . ."

2. Just then Clarence started to cough. Great Guns! How he coughed. He couldn't stop; his throat tickled so.

3. "Put him out!" . . . someone yelled. If looks could kill, Clarence would have been murdered by fifty people around him.

4. The curses of the villain were drowned by the "cussing" of Clarence. But what could the poor fellow do! When a man's throat tickles . . . he's gotta cough!

5. The next morning Clarence switched to Old Gold Cigarettes. "No more sandpaper smoke for me," he said. "From now on, I'll smoke the blend that soothes the throat while it thrills the taste."

Dear friends—

I was just thinking this morning about Time.

First thing I did when I 'woke up was to look at my watch. It told me I had to hurry. While I ate breakfast, I looked at my watch three times. On my way to the store I looked at it twice. And now, while I'm writing this, I've done it again!

Funny, isn't it?

And yet, everybody does it. As Mr. Skeie said yesterday, "Take all the watches out of Eugene and business would be in a Dickens of a fix."

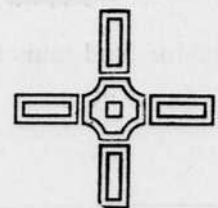

Is your watch doing its duty? If not, bring it in and let Mr. Skeie feel its pulse.

TICK.

Sticking to a good idea

Several years ago the Peter Pan started business in Eugene with the idea of catering to college trade. In other words giving the "eds" and "co-eds" the best food as quickly as possible.

The Peter Pan has kept this idea up to the present time, and it is this that accounts for its popularity.
