For Your Summer School Rendezvous

HE most delightfully cool and refreshing spot of seclusion you'll find around the campus at the University Summer/ Session this year is the Anchorage, situated over the cool, quietly flowing depths of the old Millrace.

Here, you will always find a quiet, congenial atmosphere which goes hand in hand with delicious, expertly prepared food.

Then you will know why the Anchorage and the old Mill Race embody so many of those old and time-honored traditions which "Old Grads" of the University of Oregon always cling to so tenaciously.

Club Luncheons

Campus groups will find our luncheon nooks most delightful places for social or business gatherings. Time and orders will be arranged to suit your convenience, and prompt service is assured.
