Williams, of the phys ical education department at Columbia university. Leaving at 8:30 a. m. Teachers' Convention Sunday morning, five cars reached Blue River in a few hours, where a stop was made for lunch.

Dr. Williams was taken for a ride on the river, and after lunch, the entire party continued up the Mc-Kenzie in hopes of seeing the Three Sisters. The weather was too cloudy, so they turned back, reaching Eugene at 5 p. m.

Track

(Continued from mage one) against Washington Saturday. An other unknown, Clarence Hill, ran a beautiful race in the two-mile to Finish second to Johnny Divine, the Congar distance king, and has a good chance to grab a first, at Seattle. Johnny Neidermeier, the old warborse, also turned in a good two-mile.

The old hands-Flanagan, Extra, Price, and Wetzel-furnished the bulk of the points, but the performances of the new men furnished the element of chance which is so essential to sporting events The complete results follow:

One mile-Won by Williams of W. S. C., Divine, W. S. C., second; Hall, W. S. C., third. Time-4:26. 100-yard dash-Won by Extra, Oregon; McGillivrae, W. S. C., second; Flanagan, Oregon, third. Time -10 1-5.

440-yard dash-Won by Standard, Oregon; Price, Oregon, second; Ouilette, W. S. C., third. Time-50 3-5 seconds.

Shotput-Won by Wetzel, Oregon; Smith, W. S. C., second; Hansen,
