Warm sunshine and a blue sky in the day-time, accompanied by a full moon and warm summer evenings led many up the McKenzie to various picnic resorts during the past week-end. The Junior Vod-vil played to crowded houses regardless of the warm weather and proved to be a great success. Those who missed it because they feared it would be an amateur production with all the marks of the latter, should be pitied for their distrust. They are the only losers.

One of the many picnics planned for the week-end was given by the members of Kappa Delta sorority. The affair was a combination picnic and dance and was given at Thompson's resort on Friday evening. After a picnic supper on the banks of the McKenzie, the couples spent the evening dancing and swimming. The patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Jeannette Lange, Miss Sue Badollet, and Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Cameron.

Miss Mary Stewart and Miss Ruth DeNeff were in Portland this week-end to attend the wedding of Miss Mina Miner to William Granville Smith which took place on Saturday evening. Miss Stewart, who is secretary to Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, dean of women, acted as maid of honor for Mrs. Smith.

The seventy-sixth anniversary of Alpha Delta Pi was celebrated at the annual Founder's Day banquet at the Hotel Benton in Corvallis, Sunday evening. Alpha Lambda, the University of Oregon chapter, were guests of the Oregon Agricultural College chapter, Alpha Omega.

Covers were laid for 85 members among whom were guests from the University of Washington, the University of California, the University of Iowa, and the University of Kansas. The tables were decorated with pink and white roses and spring flowers. Clarabell Mintoyne, president of the Alpha Omega chapter, was toastmistress.

The engagement of Miss Leota Biggs to Harold T. Trebbe was announced in Baker at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Biggs, while Miss Biggs was visiting for a few days. Mr. Baker attended Oregon Agricultural College for two years where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega and is now living in Seattle. He formerly lived in Baker. Miss Biggs is a junior on the campus and is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega and Mu Phi Epsilon, national musical sorority. The couple expect to be married in Seattle on June 1.

A Grille dance was given at Friendly hall on Friday evening. Palms were used to decorate the rooms and the fire-place was converted into a miniature mill-pond with a tiny mill-wheel turning in it and live fish swimming gayly around. John Mohr sang several songs as a feature. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. Paul Sayre, Mrs. Josephine McCornack, and Dr. and Mrs. Warren D. Smith.

An informal spring dance was given by the members of Pi Beta Phi at the chapter house on Saturday evening, May the fourteenth. The walls of the house were decorated with designs of large flower-pots, filled with conventional flowers. The programs were of parchment with the crest embossed on them in silver. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. F. W. Benson, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Horn.

The engagement of Miss Evelyn Joy to Mr. Harold Evans was announced Thursday evening at her home in Portland. Miss Joy attended Oregon Agricultural College and was affiliated there with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Evans graduated from the University of Oregon and was a member of Delta Tau Delta. His home was formerly in Eugene. The wedding will take place on June 11 and the attendants will be Miss Carolyn Joy and Mr. Arthur Larsen.

Miss Georgia Benson, whose marriage to Mr. Paul L. Patterson took place last night, has been extensively entertained, since the announcement of her engagement. The wedding took place at 8:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Patterson's aunt, Mrs. Caroline Benson Under. Other members of the family and a few friends were present. Dr. E. H. Pence read the service.

A breakfast dance at the Eugene hotel was given by the freshmen of Delta Gamma sorority on Saturday morning, from nine to twelve. The tables were decorated with spring flowers and the programs were designed to represent old English scrolls. The patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, and Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Romig.

The annual Phi Delta-Beta underclass Apache dance was held at the Beta house on Saturday evening, May the fourteenth. The house was decorated with posters and advertisements of all kinds. A keg of beer was placed on the front porch for the benefit of those who became thirsty. The only entrance was by way of a ladder up through the wood-chute, and it was a motley crew of Apaches which climbed hand over hand into the living room. Blackened eyes, short, tight kirts, roughneck sweaters and rakish caps lent atmosphere to the dance, which was far from dignified. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Obersteuffer, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Banks.

The members of Phi Mu were hostesses at an informal spring dance at the chapter house Saturday evening. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers and weeping-willow branches were used to cover the lights. The programs were of parchment with the silver crest and a silver cord. A ballet dance was given by Miss Lucy Wendell as a feature. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Macduff and Miss Sue M. Badollet.

Parent's week-end on the campus brought many fathers and mothers to the campus. Visiting at the Kappa Alpha Theta house were: Mrs. C. K. Higgins, Mrs. A. C. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Martin and daughter, Mary Alleen, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Price, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Effinger, and Mrs. W. L. Muncy.

A picnic at Robinson's grove on the Willamette river was given by the members of Phi Delta Theta on Sunday, May the fifteenth. Recreation of all kinds including baseball games and horse-shoe pitching was enjoyed during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Banks acted as patron and patroness.

Lucky or unlucky, Friday the thirteenth was chosen at the date for the Delta Zeta picnic at Co-burg bridge on the Willamette river. About 35 couples were present. Dancing, ball games, and recreation of all kinds were enjoyed during the day. Refreshments were served about six o'clock. Patronesses were Mrs. Grace Russell and Mrs. Katherine Yerex.

Mrs. Louis Dodge of Ashland, Oregon, spent the week-end at the Alpha Delta Pi house as a guest of her daughter, Miss Edith Dodge. Mrs. Dodge arrived on Friday and left for home on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Reynolds, Mrs. A. L. George, and Mrs. E. H. Norman were guests at the Gamma Phi Beta house this week-end, parents' week-end on the campus.

About thirty couples were present at the Girl's Oregon club barn dance at Swimmer's Delight on Friday evening. Bright gingham country-gowned maids and farm hands in overalls joined the Paul Jones and rush dances which interspersed the regular program. Box lunches added another rustic touch to the occasion. Mrs. H. D. Sheldon and Hugh C. Frame acted as patron and patroness.

An upperclass picnic dance was given by Sigma Alpha Epsilon at Triangle Lake last Saturday. The picnic started about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and swimming and dancing were some of the diversions which occupied the guests during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ford acted as patron and patroness.

Miss Morieta Howard, who recently announced her engagement in Portland, and Miss Beatrice Crewdson, both graduates of the University, visited at the Alpha Delta Pi house during the week-end. Miss Howard, who is now teaching at Franklin high school in Portland, is to be married on June 18.

The junior class in the Alpha Phi house entertained last night with a bridge party and shower for Miss Clare Whitten, who recently announced her engagement.

Miss Lora Johnson, a graduate of '26, visited at the Alpha Delta Pi house on Friday and Saturday. Miss Johnson's home is in Pendleton, Oregon.

Mrs. W. U. Douglas is visiting her daughter, Miss Alice Douglas, at the Pi Beta Phi house. Mrs. Douglas, whose home is in North

Old Oregon Has Story Of '79'er by Turnbull

In the May edition of Old Oregon, alumni magazine, just off the press, the main features are interviews with old grads and articles on the scholarship standards and the junior college.

"Random Recollections of a '79'er" is an article by George Turnbull, professor in journalism, told to him by Joel N. Pearcey, Portland lawyer. Pearcey attended the University when Deady hall was the only building on the campus.

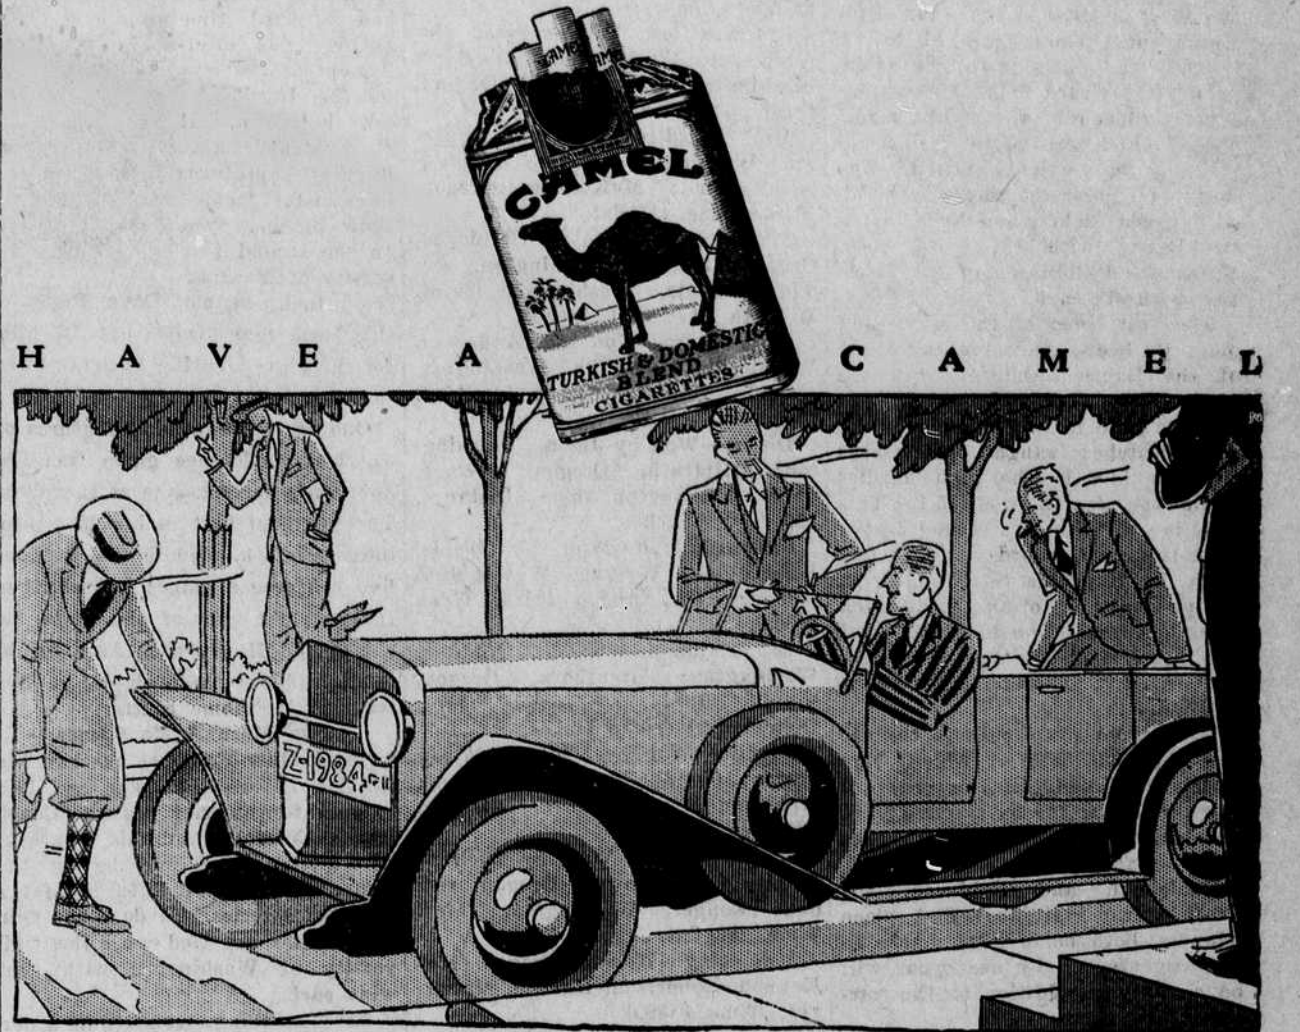

The advantages of the honor system are illustrated in "Honor Students and the Junior College" by Carlton E. Spencer, registrar.

Dr. James H. Gilbert, acting dean of the college, discusses Oregon's favorable rating with eastern colleges in regard to scholarship, showing how its strict grading system has helped to bring this about. The name of his article is "High Standards of Scholarship."

Other stories are: "An Interview with Tirza Ann Dinsdale," Dorothy Duniway Ryan, '20; "Faculty Member Writes from Egypt," Julia Burgess; "McEwan Fights Spring Grid Practice as Grid Evil," Harold Magnum.

"Speaking of fine tobaccos —Have a Camel!"

MODERN smokers find in Camels a nicety of blending, a friendly cordiality of flavor, an inherent goodness that thrills from the first puff to the last. That is why Camels are the favorite of the present age. The warmth of golden sunlight or autumn fields gleams in their smoke. Camels are the modern expression of all that is the finest.

Camel quality and Camel excellence are recognized wherever modern smokers gather. Particular smokers in this hard-to-please age find the best of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos blended in this famous cigarette. They find a consistent goodness that never fails, no matter how liberal the smoking.

And wherever modern smokers gather, wherever the conversation turns to tobacco, to the world's best, someone is sure to say:

"Speaking of fine tobaccos . . . —Have a Camel!"
