

Varsity Wins From Aggies In 5 to 2 Tilt

Aggies Must Win Today To Tie Washington For Honors

Lemon-Yellow Hitters Make 12 Safe Bingles

Arnie Kiminki Has Good Day With Six Assists

By DICK SYRING

THE Oregon Aggie baseball team, aspiring for the championship of the western division of the north-west conference, ran into a stumbling block in the form of the Oregon team yesterday afternoon on the local diamond and lost 5 to 2. Yesterday's defeat places the Orangemen with an average of .571 in second place to the league-leading Arnie Kiminki Huskies' .625. With another contest this afternoon, the Beavers have one chance to tie the Washingtonians. A loss will place the Aggies at the .500 mark, only one game ahead of the Webfoots, and give them an even break in the Aggie-Oregon series.

An ability to hit and bunch them when they counted gave Oregon its second conference game and the first over the Corvallis Aggies. The Webfoots started early, and before the final man had been retired, the local batsters had garnered 12 of Glenn Winters' choice offerings. While the local nine were finding Winters with ease, Coach Coleman's proteges were having a hard time solving Bill Baker's slants. Bill's underhand ball had the visitors at sea so only five hits were made. Of the two runs scored against him, only one was earned.

Gould and Baker Home Home runs and excellent fielding came in for their share to the claim of victory. Cotter Gould displayed Babe Ruth tendencies in the first inning while Pitcher Bill Baker was content to make his four-ply swat in the second. Arnie Kiminki broke into yesterday's line-up for the second time since the last O. A. C. series. An injured ankle has kept him on the bench but the rest apparently did him good. All Mr. Kiminki did yesterday was to handle seven chances with only one bobble, start a double play and made three putouts. The one error came in the fifth after Kiminki had fielded two hard hit balls for outs.

Oregon Scores in First Oregon scored in the first canto when Ridings doubled into left field. He scored when Gould knocked out a home run into the same garden. The Aggies made their first counter in the second after Schulmerich and Maple fled out. Quayle received a walk and scored on Dal Ward's scorching triple into left field. Bill Baker's home run in the second gave Oregon its third run.

It was the fourth inning that Quayle's single over second base and Minnaugh's error gave the Aggies their second and last score. Quayle's hit went through Mr. Minnaugh's legs and before he could recover it, the Aggie short-patcher had crossed the home plate.

A short Texas leaguer over second by Arnie Kiminki scored Lynn Jones who had got on through a walk. Ira Woodie singled in the sixth. A well placed sacrifice by Bill Baker put him on second and scored when Ridings singled.

Dorothy Mielke, New Rosaria Queen, Junior in Education on the Campus

New Ruler Likes Dancing and Horseback Riding Good Cook, but Won't Mend Stockings

By L. F.

Miss Dorothy Mielke has been chosen Queen of Rosaria to rule over Portland's Rose Festival, June 13-18. Dorothy is a junior on the campus, majoring in education, and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi.

Since Saturday when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Mielke of Portland, came down to tell her that she had been selected, Dorothy has been even more smiling and vivacious than usual—and, indeed, who could blame her?

Dorothy is a brunette, with blue eyes, dark brown hair, and dimpled chin. Her skin is fair, with just a suggestion of freckles—which any girl who likes swimming, tennis, and horseback riding is apt to acquire. She is a typical college girl, always busy, but always ready for a chat with any of her campus friends. The high school students at Springfield know her not as "Dot," the charming co-ed, but as "Miss Mielke," math teacher.

"I love to drive dad's car just as fast as it can go," she declared. That's one of my hobbies, and sketching is another."

Dorothy loves to cook but does not relish sewing, at least not darned stockings—but who ever heard of a queen mending hose, anyway? She's an expert at housecleaning, too, and rather enjoys it.

Her grammar school days were spent in Irvington grade school, Portland, and she is a graduate of St. Helen's hall.

Queen Dorothy will receive the royal crown Monday, June 13, in Laurelhurst park at the hands of E. R. Wiggins, prime minister of the Royal Rosarians. Tuesday she will officially open the rose show, and also honor a number of distinguished guests by raising them to knighthood in the Rosarians.

The junior pageant presented at Laurelhurst park by over 1000 Portland school children, the gorgeous floral parade, and the day of carnival festivity will keep Queen Dorothy busy and happy for the rest of the week.

Gerlinger And Koyl Awards Made at Prom

Cups Given Esther Hardy And Benoit McCroskey For High Record

Students Have Active University Careers

Junior Week-end Reports To be Made

ESTHER HARDY and Benoit McCroskey were awarded the Gerlinger and Koyl cups at the Junior Prom Saturday night. The awards were made on the basis of character, scholarship, service and interest in activities.

As the recently elected president of the Women's League, Miss Hardy had a high scholastic record. In her freshman year she was made a member of Kwama and in the following year she was appointed chairman of the Big Sister committee for the following fall term. This year she was selected secretary of the junior week-end directorate and was elected to Mortar Board. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and has a high scholastic record.

Have High Averages Benoit McCroskey, a member of Phi Gamma Delta, was president of his sophomore class, and a three-year debate man.

He was the winner of the State Peage contest in 1925 and semi-finalist in the national intercollegiate constitution contest this year.

He is president of the campus chapter of Delta Kappa Epsilon. He has been a member of the Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Rho, honorary forensic society. This fall Mr. McCroskey will make a debate tour of all the English speaking countries. During the three years of college he has achieved a high grade average.

Reports To Be Made "I feel that the entire week-end was successful, especially the Prom," said Don Bealar, chairman of the Junior Week-end. "The Vod-Vil was undoubtedly a show with superior merit, and worthy of a Portland performance."

"It was regrettable that the term was so far gone to make this impossible. I am sincerely sorry that this year's junior class was unable to hold a canoe fete. One realizes the gap made without this and I hope that next year it will be possible to have one."

Mr. Bealar asks that all chairmen of various Junior Week-end committees hand in their reports as soon as possible.

Fraternity to Petition Delta Kappa Epsilon

Only Three of Seventy-five Alumni, on Campus

BACHELORDON, a local fraternity which has been dormant on the campus for two years, will be revived, according to word received yesterday. Work of reorganization has been going on for some time and plans have been perfected to the extent that the group will occupy its own house in the fall.

Founded in 1919, Bachelordon remained active on the campus until the fall of 1925, during which time it built for itself a prominent place in the fraternity circle. In spite of the temporary retirement of the last two years, the fraternity has not disbanded, and the group will continue the policy of petitioning Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Three Alumni on Campus

There are about seventy-five alumni throughout the United States, of whom only three are on the campus. These are Professor Frederic S. Dunn, head of the department of Latin, Harmon M. Chapman, graduate student in philosophy, and William S. Hopkins, graduate assistant in economics. It is under the guidance of these old members of Bachelordon that the reorganization is taking place.

Installation and initiation will be held Saturday, May 28, at which time many of the alumni from Portland and other parts of the state will participate.

Wednesday Voting Determines Editor

SHORT but intense, the campaign to fill the vacancy in the office of editor of the Emerald, caused by the death of Harold Mangum, will come to an end with tomorrow's voting.

In addition to selecting a man to fill the office, the votes cast will tell whether those voting prefer to have their paper edited by a journalist or a non-journalist. Phil Bergh is the non-journalist candidate, and Ray Nash, the opposing candidate, is present managing editor of the Emerald.

'Charm School' Will Be Given Tonight by Sophomore Players "The Charm School," well known three act comedy by Alice Duer Miller and Robert Milton, will be presented tonight by the Sophomore Guild Theatre Players.

The play centers around the slogan "Girls must be charming" as enforced by Austin Bevans, handsome young man who inherits a girl's boarding school. The idea seems to work very well as everyone falls in love and all ends happily after numerous "thrilling" adventures.

The leading parts are taken by Frances Wardner as Elise Benedotti, president of the senior class, who falls in love with Austin Bevans, played by Glen Potts. Others are Helen Hembree as Miss Hayes, dean of the school Sarah Benethum who plays the part of Sally Boyd; and the twins Jim and Tim Simpkins portrayed by Daryl Myers and Dean Condon.

World Tour Plans Are Completed

McCroskey, Hempstead, Thompson, Start Trip Early in Fall

Itinerary Includes India and Australia

List of Debate Questions Sent to Schools

PLANS for the tour of English-speaking countries by Oregon's three-man debate team are shaping and agreements have been sent to universities in all the countries along the line of the trip.

The three debaters, Benoit McCroskey, Jack Hempstead, and Avery Thompson, will sail from the western coast early next fall, debating first the University of Hawaii at Honolulu. From there they will go to Manila, then to New Zealand, then to Australia. From there they will go either to South Africa or to India, according to pending arrangements; then to Egypt, to England, Ireland and Scotland, and from there across the Atlantic to New York where American and Canadian universities will be debated on the return trip across the continent.

Guarantee Asked Letters which have been sent to Canadian universities by the general forensic manager request a guarantee of seventy-five dollars for single delegates from each university or college met in the United States and Canada, in view of three facts, that the men will have completed an eventful circuit of the globe; that the undergraduate team is of an exceptionally high calibre as may be noticed from their individual records, and that the "Oregon Plan" of debate to be used primarily in this country, is an interesting innovation.

Will Debate in Hawaii The men will be in Hawaii and Manila during the latter part of October, in New Zealand from November 1 to November 15, in Australia from December 10 to November 20. From December 6 to December 11 they will be in Ceylon, and from then until December 31 in India or South Africa. They plan to be in England, Scotland, and Ireland from January 1 to February 25, and in Egypt from February 25 to March 15. Entering the United States again they will meet universities in the United States and Canada from March 1 to May 30.

Will Talk on American Life The Oregon men will be prepared to make either formal addresses or informal talks upon contemporary American life and problems, and will accept invitations to appear before societies, clubs, and radio audiences. A list of questions for debate has been chosen and sent to schools along the route, with the debate and side of the question desired by each respective institution undetermined. The questions are as follows: Resolved, that Democracy is a failure; Resolved, that the prohibition of intoxicating liquor is not practicable; Resolved, that H. L. Menck is a greater man than George Bernard Shaw; Resolved, that foreign nations immediately abandon extra-territorial rights in China; Resolved, that the United States should cancel all foreign war debts. In addition to these the University of Oregon will debate the question submitted by the forensic society of Delta Sigma Rho for the year 1928 to be chosen later.

Cooperation is being received from the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce and the extension division of the University in the matter of the men performing certain duties which can be accomplished to advantage en route. By such means expenses will be partially defrayed.

League Officers to Have Annual Dinner

Kathryn Ulrich, retiring president of Women's League, has planned the annual dinner for the old and new members of the league's executive council, which it is customary for the retiring president to give every year. The dinner this year will be at the Pi Beta Phi house, Wednesday at 6:15, and the honor guests will be Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, and Mrs. F. W. Benson, Pi Beta Phi housemother.

Greater Oregon Work Headed by Hal Socolofsky

Directorate to be Chosen Later in Week; Card System Initiated

Greater Oregon committee work for the coming year will be directed by Harold Socolofsky, junior in business administration, who was appointed yesterday by Don Bealar, A. S. U. O. president. The chairman will name his directorate later in the week.

This committee endeavors, especially during the summer months, to get in touch with possible Oregon students, and aims to encourage high school graduates of the state to attend the University or other institutions in Oregon.

State Divided in Districts Socolofsky's home is in Salem, a central location which will make it possible for him to direct the work of his helpers easily. Twelve districts have been mapped out, Portland being one, so that the state is thoroughly covered. A new card system of correspondence to be used for the first time will be of value, Bealar explained.

"In choosing a man for this position I carefully considered several who have shown marked ability in initiating, organizing and directing projects on the campus. I decided upon Harold Socolofsky because I think he has the qualities that will make the Greater Oregon committee a valuable institution," the president stated.

Junior College Attractive It is predicted by the administration that the Junior college plan which will be introduced here in the fall will attract many freshmen to the campus.

Socolofsky has been active in athletics, manager of varsity basketball this year. He is a member of the men's glee club, and took a leading part in the Junior Vod-vil.

H. C. Howe Will Give Weekly Reading Today

Ex-Oregonian Sends Card From Australia

Douglas Branch Blasts Halo Over West's Cowboys

New Book in Library Gives 'Straight Goods' on Ranch Hands

A great cowboy myth has grown up, and the mythical cowboy has become a strong, silent man. He is nature's "rough nobleman or else a powerful bandit, a super badman," but this popular idea is dealt a blow by "The Cowboy and His Interpreters," by Douglas Branch, one of the books in the last shipment received at the library.

In this book, Mr. Branch stands the cowboy of reality and the one of popular fancy side by side and shows the actual cowboy to be a more interesting person than his fictitious and aggrandized twin.

"Ask Me Another," the second question book compiled by Justin Spafford and Lucien Esty, is another of the new books. It contains 2100 questions and answers.

"Fine Clothes to the Jew," a new book of poems by Langston Hughes, author of "The Weary Blues," is the only book of poems included among the new books.

Other books received are: "Modern English Laywrights," a short history of the English Drama from 1825, by John W. Cunliffe; "Chains," lesser stories and novels by Theodore Dreiser; "A Study of Costume," by Elizabeth Sage; "French Society in the Eighteenth Century," by Louis Dueros; "Mother Knows Best," by Edna Ferber; "The Outline of Sanity," by G. K. Chesterton; "Power," by Lion Feuchtwanger; "Literature in a Changing Age," by Ashley H. Thorndike; "Fire Under the Andes," by Elizabeth Shipley Sergeant; "The Woman Who Stole Everything," by Arnold Bennett; "Essays on Faith and Immortality," by George Tyrrell; "Gifts of Fortune," by Tomlinson; "Some United States," by Irvin S. Cobb; "In Unknown Arabia," by Major R. E. Cheesman; Psychology, a Simplification, by Lloyd Ring Coleman and Saxe Commins.

Dean Esterly Reported On Road to Recovery

Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, dean of women, who was taken to the Eugene hospital Friday evening, suffering from tonsillitis and infection in the hand, was reported to be doing well yesterday.

Mrs. Esterly, who is under the care of Dr. Bertha Stuart, Dr. Willmoth Osborne, and Dr. A. H. Ross, will probably remain in the hospital for several days. She is not permitted to have visitors.

Mrs. Esterly became ill Thursday noon, and when her condition did not improve before the following evening she was taken to the Eugene hospital.
