

Final Track Meet of Year On May 27-28

Conference Tilt to Be At Seattle; Aggies Defeat Oregon

Dixon, O. A. C., Breaks Record for Shot-put

Cinder stars of the northwest take the final curtain next Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28, in the University of Washington stadium oval, where the northwest division of the Pacific coast conference track and field meet will be held. Six universities and colleges of this section will vie for the largest share of 159 points to be won in the various events.

Should the Huskies annex a sufficient number of second and third placings, to swell the point total, dopsters feel certain that the Washington tracksters will triumph. Washington has already defeated Idaho, Oregon and O. A. C. and as Oregon was victorious over the Cougars, the Staters are practically out as winners. Montana will also compete.

Dope Upset Here
While the various institutions in the conference have one or two men, or even more, strong in a few events, Washington has the largest collection of tape-breakers.

While dope based on advance tips and past performances is more reliable in track than any other sport, optimistic dopsters who favored Oregon to defeat O. A. C. last Saturday, figuratively "took it on the chin."

By winning 11 first places in fifteen events the Aggies shattered the opinions stating that the meet was a toss-up, and triumphed decisively with 79 1-3 points to Oregon's 51 2-3.

Conference Record Broken
By tossing the shot 48 feet 5 1/2 inches, Jim Dixon, O. A. C. giant weight-man, broke the northwest conference record for the shot-put. Proc Flanagan, Webfoot captain, was high point man for the losers, with 11 markers to his credit. He took first in the broad jump, and second in the 100 and 220 dashes.

Oregon won but four first places. Extra taking first in both the 100 and 220, Flanagan in the broad jump, and McCulloch in the high jump.

O. A. C. Takes 11 Firsts

California Gymnast To Go to '28 Olympics

BERKELEY, May 19—Captain Glenn Berry, of the University of California gymnastic team, is practically assured of a place on the United States Olympic team next year when the 1928 Olympiad is held in Rotterdam, according to advice reaching here after his successful performance in the national gymnastic tournament in New York, Saturday.

Berry, who has won for himself the nickname of "the one-man gym team," placed fourth in the national meet. Practically every one of the scores of entrants held a championship of some kind, and critics characterized it as "the hardest in years," yet Berry beat veterans who have competed in the national contest many times. The Bear captain is a senior in mechanics, registered from Los Angeles. He will compete in the state intercollegiate meet, May 27, at the University of Southern California, on his return.

Chiles-Clark Handball Team in Semi-finals After Two to One Win

The handball team of Chiles and Clark reached the last lap of the tournament yesterday afternoon, by winning two out of three games from the Gower-Marsh combination. Marsh got out of bed to play a really fine game, but he couldn't stand the fast pace, and the pair lost 21-19, 17-21, 19-21.

Since a team must lose twice to be eliminated, Chiles and Clark will play the winner of the losers bracket, which has not been finished yet.

It was a star game, according to Ford Knutson, court attendant. Clark made some sensational kills that almost ripped out the bottom boards, he said. The three games were featured by splendid rallies and fast balls.

Medical Students Get Records, Is Warning

Students who plan to enter a medical school or some other institution of higher learning next year should make their applications for transcripts of their records immediately, said Miss Gertrude Stephenson, chief clerk in the registrar's office. Most of the medical schools can take care of but a limited number of new students each year, she said, so it is to the students' advantage to submit their qualifications as early as possible. It will be better for the students and for the registrar's office if this can be taken care of before examination week.

Latin Honorary Slates Initiations for Tonight

Pi Sigma, honorary Latin fraternity, will initiate five new members, Julia Brauning, Nellie Westra, Katherine Calouri, Rena Alexander, and Winifred Weter, Tuesday night in Alumni hall.

The initiation will be followed by a banquet at the College Side Inn at which Francis Powers, president of Pi Sigma, will speak on the subject, "Antares," and Professor Frederic S. Dunn, head of the Latin department, will speak on "The Classics Resurgent." This meeting will mark the close of Pi Sigma's first year at the University of Oregon.

Co-eds, Public Invited To Water Polo Games Tonight and Thursday

Aquatic stars will disport themselves tonight for the delight of all outsiders, who are invited to occupy the bleachers in the men's tank. "Every night is ladies night."

The Beta firm will put up a last stand for their high league standing when they meet the Sigma Nu team. Betas were first with no games lost until they dropped a battle to Phi Sigma Kappa, 2-0, last week.

Three marine engagements have been scheduled for Thursday, besides the big frosh-varsity fight. The last of the seven games series turned out a tie, when the frosh held the upperclassmen to a zero score. The series now stands frosh 1, varsity 2, tie 1.

Two make-up games are due tonight, those between Kappa Sigs and Delts; and Friendly hall vs. Chi Psi. Junior week-end and class picnics kept last week's schedule from being completed, so it will be made up as soon as possible by mutual agreement.

Oregon Sportswriters To Meet for Annual Election of Officers

The Sports Writers' Association, an organization composed of professional newspaper writers on the campus, will meet this noon at the College Side Inn to elect officers for the ensuing year.

The association is composed of the following members: Sam Wilderman, president; Paul Sletton, the Telegram, secretary; Dick Godfrey, the Journal and Seattle Times, treasurer; Arden X. Pangborn, Oregonian; and Sol Abramson, editor, The Emerald.

The honorary members of the association are: Bill Gregory, sporting editor of the Oregonian; George Bertz, sports editor of the Journal; Lou Kennedy, sports editor of the Telegram; Billy Stepp, sports editor of the Portland News; Cliff Harrison, sports editor, and George Varnell, football writer for the Seattle Times; and George Scherk, sports editor of the Seattle Post Intelligencer.

Pledging Announcement
Hermian, physical education honorary for women, announces the pledging of Evangeline Dascomb, Mae Moore, Marjorie Landru, and Eleanor Marvin.

Advertising pays you

Advertising brings to millions, at reasonable prices, comforts and conveniences that without advertising would be luxuries that only a few could enjoy.

America is an advertising nation. That is one reason why the man with moderate means here enjoys more comfort than most wealthy men abroad.

Because thousands on thousands of people ask for a certain article by the same name, which they have read in the same advertisements, it is possible for the advertiser to sell this item at a minimum of effort.

It is therefore possible to manufacture and to distribute this produce at a saving which you share with the advertiser.

When you figure the number of these items in your daily life built by advertising, you can appreciate that advertising does pay you!
