More than five million people have gone to see "The Big Parade," in its epoch-making runs in New York City and throughout the world, paying road-show theatre prices. It is here now for the first time at popular prices—the epic of love and war that has made motion-picture history.

Astonishment, awe, world-shaking laughter, sweetest romance, tears, thrills and throbs—truly there has never been a film to equal "The Big Parade" in its power to touch the imagination and move the heart.
