Reception for Freshmen Held

Much interest was aroused last year in the reception given by Women's League for the freshmen to meet Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall. Last Thursday afternoon the affair was repeated and sponsored by Dean Esterly and Dean Shirrell. The freshmen were received at the Women's building from 3:30 to 6 o'clock. In the receiving line were Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Miss Esther Hardy, Dean Elmer Shirrell and Mr. Donald Beclar. Ices and cakes and coffee were served on the sun porch by active members of Kwama and dancing was enjoyed throughout the afternoon. Members of Mortor Board and Friars assisted about the rooms.

Head Resident Honored at Tea

For the pleasure of Miss Margaret McMillan, Hendricks Hall gave its annual formal tea on Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. A large centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and pink roses decorated the tea table and pink and white candles provided a soft glow of light about the dining room. In the receiving line were Miss Margaret McMillan, Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, and Miss Agnes Petzold. Those who poured were Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mrs. A. T. Powell, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Mrs. Robert Wilcox, Mrs. N. B. Zan, Mrs. George Rebec, Mrs. John H. Gallagher and Miss Fanny McCamant. Cutting ices were Mrs. L. H. Johnson, Mrs. R. J. Marsh, Mrs. James Gilbert, Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Mrs. Lettie Mowry, Mrs. C. G. Grey, Mrs. A. H. Schroff and Miss Hazel Prutsman. The Misses Ira Saunders, Henrietta La Moree and Polly Povey were in charge.

Sorority Gives Formal Tea

In honor of Mrs. Etna C. Ransom, their housemother, Chi Omega sorority entertained at a formal tea Saturday afternoon at the chapter house. Over 450 invitations were issued and tea hours were from 3:30 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Ransom, Miss Julia Burgess and Miss Betty Easterday were in the receiving line and those who poured and cut ices were, Mrs. John McEwan, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mrs. Robert Horn, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. A. H. Schroff, Mrs. C. V. Boyer, Mrs. Marion McClain, Mrs. Lynn McCready and Miss Hazel Prutsman. Chrysanthemums and dahlias in autumn colors of bronze, reds and yellows were used. In the living room shaded from deep rose to light pastel shades, with tall tapers of green, orchid, pink, and yellow. The Misses Mary and Marjorie Clark and Mary Margaret Ferrall furnished the music for the afternoon and Miss Ina Lou Parkin had charge of the affair. For its pledge members, Eta Delta of Chi Psi fraternity, gave an informal dance Friday night at the Chi Psi Lodge. Characteristic of the week-end festivities, the decorative scheme was in the Hallow'en motif. Pumpkins overhung the lights and about the room were large bunches of corn stalks. Patrons and patronesses were Licht, and Mrs. George F. Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Simpson.

Mr. Kenton Case had charge of the dance.

A large harvest moon in one corner of the room surrounded by cornstalks and pumpkins, baskets of yellow and pink chrysanthemums, and softly shaded lights of yellow and orange formed the background in which Alpha Gamma Delta sorority entertained with its annual pledge dance Friday evening. Miss Lenore Durkee was in charge and patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Abbie Marsh, Dean Esterly, Miss Maudie Kerus, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibbs.

Purple and silver yellow was the color scheme at the pledge dance given by Psi Kappa fraternity Saturday night at the Craftman's club. Draperies of these colors on the light produced an added effect. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kelly were the patrons and patronesses.

Pledge members of Phi Delta Theta were hosts at a dinner dance Saturday evening at the chapter house. Featuring the fraternity pledge button, colors of blue and white as decorations were used. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Moward Hall, Mr. John Phibbs was in charge.

The pledges of Sigma Nu were honored at a grille dance at the chapter house, Friday night, October 28. The ceiling was almost entirely hidden by autumn leaves, the colors of which were accented by skillful indirect lighting. The small tables placed about the rooms were covered with white cloths that lent a truly urbane appearance to the house. As a feature, Kenneth Allen sang several songs. The patrons and patronesses for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. William Coffee and Mr. and Mrs. Sprague Carter.

Alpha Upsilon honored their pledges at a dance Friday evening, graceful palms and baskets of flowers forming the decorations, and softened lights adding to the general effect. Punch and wafers were served throughout the evening. Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Dean Esterly and Dr. Warren D. Smith acted as patrons and patronesses.

Members of Alpha Xi Delta gave a Hallow'en dance at their chapter house Saturday night in honor of their pledges. The rooms were decorated with pumpkins, black cats, and ghosts and skulls and cross bones were placed over the doors and on the tables. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Charles G. Gray and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Folts.

Pledges of Delta Zeta were hostesses at a dance given at the chapter house, Friday evening, October 28. Their decorations followed the Hallow'en idea, with pumpkins, cornstalks, cats, witehes, and orange and black streamers about the rooms. A feature dance was given by Miss Janice Clark and patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Dean Esterly and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Stewart.

Members of Delta Gamma were hostesses at an informal dance Saturday night at their chapter house, the rooms decorated to carry out the "Palm Beach Idea." Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. R. C. Scoffern, Professor and Mrs. Frederick Dunn and Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Endicott were patrons and patronesses.

With a fence which guests had to climb over before entering the house and bales of hay propped against each side of the doorway, the decorations at the "Hard Times" dance for which active members and pledges of Phi Gamma Delta entertained Saturday evening, truly conformed to the spirit of the occasion. The interior of the house was the scene of numerous cornstalks and pumpkins and in the dining room was a false ceiling of autumn leaves. Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Erb and

Mr. Gene Carr acted as patrons and patronesses.

The chapter house of Alpha Omicron Pi was the scene of a unique Hallow'en dance Saturday evening. Witches and goblins haunted the dancing rooms and ghostly forms were hidden among the pumpkins and cornstalks. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Lucy Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner and Mr. and Mrs. John Stark Evans.

Costumes varying from that of a sedate Russian or Dutch maiden to that of a pirate and a clown were represented at the informal dance held by the Girls' Oregon club at the Woman's building, Friday evening, October 28.

The dancing room was decorated with autumn leaves, red and black streamers and Hallow'en cutouts. Dr. and Mrs. Roming and Dean and Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon were patrons and patronesses.

The living rooms of Friendly Hall were turned into the interior of a barn Saturday evening when members of the hall entertained at a Barnyard Bust. Preceding the dance, dinner was served family style. At the table the engagement of Miss Edna Mathews and Mr. James Evanoff was announced. Patrons and patronesses were Dr.

and Mrs. W. E. Milne, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Oberteuffer.

Sigma Pi Tau entertained at an informal dance at the chapter house, Saturday evening. The rooms were cleverly decorated in evergreens and autumn flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Eyer Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kingsnill were patrons and patronesses.

Members of Kappa Kappa Gamma honored their pledges with a Mardi Gras Carnival at the chapter house, Friday night. The rooms were decorated to represent an old European street and the dance was a costume affair. Confetti and serpentine was distributed to the guests during the evening.

Mrs. Lettie Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mauerud, Mr. and Mrs. N. Zane and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hull acted as patrons and patronesses.
