Week-End to Be Busy One
The next few days will be filled with both last minute plans and those that have been in construction for over a month in making ready for the one time of the year that is put aside solely for the pleasure of former University of Oregon students and graduates.

The announcement that the annual Journalism Jamboree, to be given Saturday evening, November 12, will be open to everyone instead of being exclusively for journalism majors will be an added feature of the Homecoming week-end.

Sorority Gives Formal Tea

One of the largest affairs of the week was the formal tea sponsored by Alpha Lambda of Alpha Delta Phi, Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Lucy Perkins, their house-mother. The affair was given at the chapter house with tea hours from three to five o'clock.

The centerpiece for the tea table consisted of baskets of Cecil Brunner roses and asters of pastel shades. Glowing yellow tapers were used at each end of the floral pieces.

Those who poured were Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. Elmer L. Shirrell, Mrs. Lawson G. Bradley, Mrs. Lillian Seaton, Mrs. Murray Warner, Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Mrs. W. F. Jewett and Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg of Ashland.

In the receiving line were Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett, Mrs. Floyd Westerfield, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. F. J. Clark, Mrs. Julia Wilson and Miss Gladys Stofield.

Geneva Drum and James Manning Married

Coming as a complete surprise to their friends on the campus was the marriage of Miss Geneva Drum and James Manning last Saturday afternoon in Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Manning graduated last June and were prominent in journalistic activities while on the campus. Miss Drum was a member of the Girl's Oregon club and Mr. Manning was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi.

After a brief wedding trip they will reside in Klamath Falls where Mr. Manning is connected with the Ewanna Box and Lumber company. Autumn shades of gladiolas, dahlias and chrysanthemums in large floor baskets placed about the rooms, with autumn leaves lending an added note of fall, were the decorations at the grille dance for which members of Chi Omega entertained Saturday evening, November 5, in honor of their pledges. Programs were in the shape of the sorority pledge pin.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Elna C. Ransom, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Captain and Mrs. John McEwan, and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Johnson. Miss Alice McGrath had charge of the dance.

Underclassmen of Alpha Phi were

Why God Made Hell

Do you know why? If you don't, you should learn NOW—at once. One reviewer has said: "When Dante went to Hell he must have steered clear of the roasting apparatus. . . it remained for Dr. Saubrah to interestingly and fear-somely describe the nether regions." Over 2,000,000 have read it. Why not you? One Dollar post-paid.

No Matter How Much You Learn

YOU KNOW ONLY SO MUCH AS YOU REMEMBER. Your mind will obey you just in proportion to the requirements you place upon it if you give it a chance. You can always remember if you train your mind to serve you when and as you want it to serve. You can think and talk better and clearer with training that will take but a few minutes of your time. Prof. M. V. Atwood, formerly of the N. Y. College of Agriculture at Ithaca, now Editor of Utica Herald-Dispatch wrote: "I have all memory courses and yours is the best of the lot. You owe it to the public to publish it in book form." In response to this and other demands this course has been issued in a handy little volume to fit your pocket and the cost is but Three Dollars postpaid until December when Five Dollars will be the price.

hostesses at a tea dance, the Frog Hop, Saturday afternoon from two thirty to five o'clock. The house was decorated in rushes and autumn leaves and the programs were minute lily pads, covered with green frogs.

Miss Florence Grimes was in charge and the patronesses included Mrs. Henry Augustine, Mrs. Josephine Stewart and Mrs. Harriett Tisdale.

Of interest to college people in both Eugene and Portland was the marriage of Miss Josephine Ulrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Ulrich of Portland, to Rex Edmund De Long of Aberdeen, Washington, at the St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal church in Portland Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Ardis Ulrich acted as her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Jane Price, Ida Belle Tremayne, Mildred Johnson and Marjorie Swift.

Warren Ulrich, brother of the bride acted as best man and ushers were Harry L. Meyer, John G. Rivenbaugh, Charles D. Norton and Dewey Wilson.

Both Mr. and Mrs. De Long graduated from the University in 1925. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta and he was affiliated with Bachelorden. After an extended wedding trip they will make their home in Portland.

Pledges of Phi Gamma Delta were hosts at a grille dance Saturday evening at the chapterhouse. Yellow chrysanthemums decorated the tables and tall blue candles in grey holders on each table provided the lighting. Mr. Keith Kiggins and Mr. Gene Carr were patrons for the dance and Thomas Dunham was in charge.

Their chapter house transformed to represent Hades, members of Kappa Sigma entertained at a pledge dance Saturday evening honoring their pledges. Guests entered the house by way of a dark and gloomy passage through the basement and were led upstairs where the walls were covered with red and black paper, adorned with grotesque shapes and painted scenes from Hell, Stumps and broken tree limbs were placed around the room and small pots of fire kept constantly burning. Lights in alternating currents made a unique and different lighting effect.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Stannard. In charge were Billy O'Bryant and Ben Weatherwax.

Because of the rally Thursday evening preceding the opening of Homecoming on Friday morning, the Bachelorden reception which was to be held from eight to eleven o'clock Thursday night has been scheduled to open at nine o'clock instead.

Active members of Phi Sigma Kappa honored their pledges with a dance Friday evening at the chapter house. The rooms were decorated in the pledge pin motif with the fraternity colors of silver and magenta. Illumination behind several large pledge pins provided lighting.

Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rossom, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred L. Lomax, Mr. William Maddox, Mr. William Fowler and Mr. Louis Artau acted as patrons and patronesses and Kenton Hamaker was in charge.

A trip to Egypt was taken in the Bachelorden house Friday evening when active members entertained their pledges at a dance. Egyptian designs decorated the walls and about the rooms were palms and large mummies in cases. The color scheme throughout was blue and yellow.

Floyd Runk had charge of the dance and patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Professor and Mrs. F. S. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins.

White and green, their sorority colors were carried out in decorations of ivy and chrysanthemums at the Kappa Delta pledge dance, Friday night, November 4. A large pledge pin hung suspended over the fireplace.

Patrons and Patronesses included Mrs. A. T. Powell, Mrs. M. K. Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Caswell and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koke.

Pledges of Alpha Chi Omega were entertained at a dance given by the active members Friday evening at the chapter house. The downstairs was converted into a dancing room decorated in autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds, and the upstairs living room was decorated to represent a night club. Squares of red and yellow brightened the walls and French dolls and red and yellow balloons added a gay note of color. Red candles in whiskey bottles furnished lighting.

Acting as patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Anna C. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Manerud, Miss Marjorie Whetsel was in charge.

A formal reception honoring their house mother, Mrs. Catherine Yerex, was held at the Delta Gamma chapter house Saturday evening. The living rooms were attractively decorated in chrysanthemums and autumn flowers.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Yerex, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Dunn, Miss Jeanette Calkins, Miss Amy Dunn and Miss Lois Beth Seoffern.

Those who poured were Mrs. W. E. Powell, Mrs. S. C. Endicott, Mrs. Dan Johnson and Mrs. Hugh Ford. Miss Edith Bain was in charge of the affair.

Pledges of Sigma Beta Phi were honored at an informal dance Saturday evening at the chapter house with the rooms decorated to represent a Carnival.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Jennie Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bean and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts. Out of town guests were Miss Ruth Bartruff and Miss Ruth Hurt from the O. A. C. chapter of Sigma Kappa.

Members of Susap Campbell hall were hostesses at an informal dance held at the Craftsman's club Saturday evening. Baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were used in decorating the club house.

Patrons and patronesses were Miss Fannie McCamant, Miss C. C. Dunne, Miss Ernestine Troemel and Mr. Lawrence De Rieke.

Underclassmen of Phi Kappa Psi held an informal dance at the chapter house Saturday evening, using a Chinese den as the decorative motif, with trap doors, a Chinese incensed Buddha and embroidered panels of black and gold predominating. The guests were seated in deep booths dimly lighted by Chinese lamps. Shortly after eleven o'clock the den was raided by police who arrested the guests and conducted them to Buster Loves where Chinese tea and ices were served on a Chinese balcony.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher,

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. James Harding.

Members and pledges of Sigma Alpha Epsilon held their fall informal at the Osborne hotel, Saturday night, a barbershop being the decorative plan of the dance. A large striped barber pole stood in the center and pillars in the room were covered with striped paper so as to represent barber poles. Imitation hair surround the edges of the floor. Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell and Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Green. Larry Shaw and Pete Sullivan were in charge.

The Theta Chi chapter house was the scene of a formal dance Saturday evening, sponsored by the upperclassmen. The rooms represented the interior of an old Italian cafe, while smoky colored blue drapes formed a false ceiling and the walls. Guests were seated at small tables about the rooms and appropriate Italian food was served.

Patrons and patronesses were Lieut. and Mrs. G. F. Herbert and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hitchcock.

Phi Mu entertained its pledges at an informal dance Friday evening at the chapter house, using the color scheme of rose and white, the fraternity colors, as decorations.

Miss Sue Badollet, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tiffany and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McDuff acted as patrons and patronesses and Miss Flossie Rada-baugh was in charge.

For the pleasure of their pledges, Alpha Beta Chi entertained with a Barn dance, Saturday night at the chapter house. The usual barn accessories decorated the rooms in the form of cornstalks, pumpkins, oxen yolks and harnesses. As a feature Winston Strong gave an accordion and mouth organ solo.

In charge of the dance was Curtis Hambo and Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Shumaker and S. Stephenson Smith.
