Fathers Are University Guests

Social activities during the week-end constituted, in the main, entertainment for the fathers visiting their sons and daughters attending the University. Dad's day, inaugurated for the first time, Saturday, January 28, and which will hereafter be an annual event, brought "Dads" to the campus from all over the state, and Saturday and Sunday witnessed few students in any of their favorite haunts unaccompanied by their fathers, one party thoroughly enjoying such an opportunity as much as the other.

The Administration building was the scene all day Saturday of University people registering their "Dads" and becoming acquainted with other student's "Dads" at the same time. Honoring the fathers, a banquet was held at the Woman's building, Saturday evening, at 5:45, and at the Oregon-Washington game at McArthur Court Saturday night, which was the guests of honor. All living organizations entertained the "Dads" at dinner on Sunday, and the week-end terminated with vespers at the Music building, and a reception given by President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall at their home Sunday afternoon.

R. O. T. C. Give Military Ball

A dance which probably holds more attraction for the co-ed than any other social affair during her college career is the annual military ball, which was held Friday evening, January 27, at the Eugene hotel. The atmosphere gained by the dignified and stately uniforms of the men was an attractive one, and implements of warfare formed the decorations.

The personnel of the directorate in charge of the dance included: general chairman, Roy Herndon; decorations, Lawrence Shaw; music, Bob Keeney; program and invitations, Palmer Schlegel; feature, Phil Smith; refreshments, Robert Walker.

Patrons and patronesses were President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dean and Mrs. Elmer L. Shirrell, Colonel and Mrs. W. S. Sinclair, Captain and Mrs. Clarence H. Bragg, Captain and Mrs. F. M. Moore, and Lieutenant and Mrs. George F. Herbert.

S. A. E.'s Receive At Open House

Over 500 guests attended the formal open house of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at its newly completed chapter house on Fourteenth and Alder streets, Saturday night, January 28, from 8 to 12 o'clock. Members of the fraternity acted as hosts, and in the receiving line were Mrs. Robert P. Hynd and Mrs. George Joseph of Portland, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. A. F. Rapp, and Mrs. Warren D. Smith, of Eugene, and Robert Benjamin. Larry Shaw was chairman of the committee in charge.

Members of Tau chapter of Alpha Phi entertained with a formal dance Saturday evening at the chapter house. A winter scene was the decorative scheme used, and the rooms conformed to the idea involved, with large hanging icicles on white walls, and glistening window panes covered with frost and ice. In the dining room a large snowman reigned, and wisps of strung cotton suspended from the ceiling gave the impression of falling snow. Miss Wilma Enke and Miss Harriet Medernach danced as a feature.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Henry Augustine, Mr. and Mrs. James Harding, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Merryfield, of Corvallis. Miss Sally Hughson was chairman of the dance and Miss Katherine Rochester had charge of the decorations.

An approaching marriage of interest to a large number of students on the campus is that of Miss Betty Beans, of Everett, Wash., to Archie Knowles, of Seattle, formerly of Eugene, both members of the class of 1927, which will take place at the home of the parents of the bride-elect in Everett, Friday afternoon, February 10, at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Knowles and son, Kenneth, of Eugene, will drive to Everett to attend the wedding.

A supper party was given by members of the Girls' Oregon club, Friday evening, honoring a number of unaffiliated girls on the campus. Dancing was enjoyed later in the evening.

The Osburn hotel was the scene of a formal dance given by members of Susan Campbell Hall, Saturday night, January 28.

Patrons and patronesses included Miss Fanny McCamant, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Miss Ernestine Troemel, Mr. John Siefert, and Mr. Lawrence de Riecke. Miss Alice Laudien was in charge.

Mrs. Kenneth L. Shumaker entertained Sunday afternoon at her home, 1369 Emerald street, with an informal tea for members of the Mask and Buskin chapter of Pi Epsilon Delta.

Alpha Lambda chapter of Alpha Delta Pi held its formal dance Saturday evening, January 28, at the Eugene hotel. The ballroom was attractively decorated with palms and evergreens, and dim yellow and red lights produced a soft lighting effect. During the evening Baynard Sager of Corvallis played several violin solos, and a spotlight feature dance was given by Sid Woodhouse.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Dean and Mrs. Elmer L. Shirrell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eichenlaub, Captain and Mrs. John J. McEwan, Dean and Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Rev. and Mrs. Fred J. Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Jewett. Miss Esther Taylor had charge of the dance.

Miss La Verne Kight entertained her sister, Miss Evelyn Kight, of Portland, over the week-end at the Gamma Nu house.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wade of Portland visited at the Alpha Omicron Pi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon houses Saturday and Sunday.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Thelma Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Hopkins, of Portland, to Lawrence King Fraley, was made at a luncheon for which Miss Ruth Campbell entertained at Campbell Court hotel, in Portland, last week. Mr. Fraley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fraley of Portland.

Both Miss Hopkins and Mr. Fraley attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta and he was affiliated with Sigma Nu. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Alice McGrath, Miss Jane Cochrane, and Miss Janet Plimpton spent last week-end in Portland.

Miss Helen Connell, '29, of Hillsboro, was a guest at the Alpha Phi house over the week-end.

The marriage of Miss Marcia Phy, daughter of Mrs. Edith Wright Phy, of Union, to Paul R. Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spencer, of Denver, Colorado, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, January 22, Reverend R. C. Lee officiating.

Mrs. Spencer attended the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Delta Gamma. Mr. Spencer is a graduate of the University of West Virginia and is affiliated with Kappa Sigma. After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home in Denver, where Mr. Spencer is engaged in business.

Miss Frances Perry, Miss Ruth Ray, and Miss Frances Schroeder spent the week-end in Portland.

At a large bridge party given at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Tyrell, of Portland, Miss Vera Prudhomme announced her engagement to Dr. Milton Byrd Steiner. Miss Prudhomme is the daughter of Joseph Prudhomme of Portland, and Dr. Steiner is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Steiner of Salem.

Both Miss Prudhomme and Dr. Steiner graduated from the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi, and he of Beta Theta Pi and Nu Sigma Nu. The date of the wedding has not been set.

Miss Betty Jane Schultze, Mrs. Dorothy Compton, Miss Katherine Kneeland, Miss Hope Howland, and Miss Emily Babbidge spent the week-end in Portland.

Miss Edith Shell, '27, who is teaching at Sandy, Oregon, was a week-end guest at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Miss Daphne Hughes visited at her home in Roseburg Friday and Saturday.

One Hundred and One Neglect Fet Payment

Students to the number of 101, were unable, either physically or financially, to pay their fees during the allotted time, and as a result must pay this week. A fine of $3 is added for the first day late, and 25 cents is charged for every other day during the first week.

This term almost held the record for late and slow payments, according to Mrs. Ruth Fry of the comptroller's office. Friday and Saturday of last week they were rushed to death with last minute payers, although all those waiting were served and none turned away when the windows closed on Saturday.

There was a continual slow payment of fees yesterday, but many are still unpaid.
