House Dances Fill Week-ends

House dances, both informal and formal, continue to lead in the social functions of the college week-end. Washington's birthday, February 22, being a legal holiday, will provide an opportunity for a number of living groups to entertain, and the evening preceding this being the incentive for the scheduling of numerous dances. Notable among them is the Crazy Kopy Krawl, which was introduced successfully for the first time last year by members of Alpha Delta Sigma, honorary advertising fraternity, and which will be made an even larger affair this year.

The campus will be honored the latter part of the week by the arrival of newspaper men and their wives throughout the state to attend the annual newspaper conference, February 9, 10, and 11. During the conference, Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalism fraternity, will sponsor several social events honoring the wives of the editors in session.

Banquet Held For Dr. Muhl

Honoring Dr. Anita Muhl, noted psychiatrist, who visited on the campus last week, a formal banquet was given at the Eugene hotel, Thursday evening, February 2. Guests were Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Prince L. Campbell, Miss Ruth Catlin, Miss Hazel Prutsman, Miss Kathryn Ulrich, Esther Hardy, Mary Benton, Pauline Stewart, Claudia Fletcher, Constance Roth, Frances Plimpton, Dorothy Baker, Gladys Calef, Helen Webster, Edith Dodge, Marian Barnes, Maizie Richards, Edna Ellen Bell, Nancy Peterson, and Marion Sten. Miss Ira Saunders played several piano selections during the evening and Miss Marjorie Clark sang.

Craftsmen Club Scene of Formal

Members of the Craftsmen and Temend clubs, campus Masonic organizations, entertained with their annual formal, Saturday night, in the ballroom of the Craftsmen clubhouse, 850 east 14th street. The committees for the dance were: programs, Ethel Gasman, Raymond Voegtly; refreshments, Kenneth Shumaker, Lucille Cornutt; music, Frances Wood, J. Alden Woodworth.

Patrons and patronesses were, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic S. Dunn, Captain and Mrs. John McEwan, Mrs. Edith Pattee and Mr. Sam Mosher.

Miss Mary Fitch has returned to her home in Eugene after spending several months in San Francisco and Seattle.

Members of Hendricks Hall were hostesses at a formal grille dance Friday night, February 3, at the Eugene hotel. Miss Shirley Rew was in charge.

Miss Margaret McMillan, Dean Virginia Esterly, Mr. William Maddox and Mr. John Siefert acted as patrons and patronesses. Robert Warner danced as a feature.

In honor of their house mother, Mrs. Lucy Abrams, members of Alpha Omicron Pi entertained at a large bridge party and tea, Saturday afternoon, February 4. During the hours between 2 and 4 o'clock, ten tables were in play, and from 4 to 6, additional guests called for tea. The rooms were artistically decorated in spring flowers and greenster house. A revolving windmill and the centerpiece on the dining room table was carried out in yellow and blue flowers. The room was lighted by blue tapers on the table.

Mrs. Rex Underwood, Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mrs. J. M. Miller and Mrs. P. L. Campbell poured and cut ices, and active members and pledges assisted in serving. Miss Catherine Mahew was in charge.

Preceded by a formal dinner at the chapter house, Beta Omega chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma gave its formal dance Saturday evening, at the Eugene hotel. The colors, gold and white, were carried out in flowers decorating the tables and white tapers were used.

Miss Louise Clark was chairman of the committee in charge. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Lettie Mowry, Mrs. Virginia Esterly, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller, Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers, and Mr. William Maddox.

The Sigma Pi Tau chapter house was transformed into a Chinese abode Saturday evening, when members of the fraternity entertained at an informal dance. Chinese inscriptions and tapestries were hung about on the doors and walls, and at one end of the room, a large Chinese idol threw forth alternating colored lights on the dancers. The feature of the evening was a dance given by Miss Edith Pearson and Jack Reynolds.

Charles McDonald was in charge of the dance, and patrons and patronesses included Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Mr. John Siefert and Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Milne.

Nu chapter of Gamma Phi Beta held its formal grille dance at the chapter house, Friday evening, February 3. The decorative motif was a Chinese garden and lattice against the walls and windows of the rooms were intertwined with wisteria, and cherry blossoms and banked with greenery. Japanese lanterns hung suspended from the ceilings, in the entrance to the house was a large painting of a Chinese priest.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Josephine Stewart, Mrs. Virginia Esterly, and Mrs. Bruce Bogart. Miss Florence Somerville had charge of the dance.

Upperclassmen of Fidelity Hall entertained at a dinner dance Thursday evening, February 2. About fifty couples participated in the affair. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Eyer Brown.

Miss Hulda Thom, of Bend, is a guest at the Chi Omega house this week.

Members of Alpha Sigma chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi, were hostesses at a formal dinner dance at the Eugene hotel, Friday night, February 3. The individual tables were decorated with yellow spring flowers and lighting was furnished by blue candles.

Miss Georgie Davidson had charge, and patrons and patronesses included Mrs. Virginia Esterly, Mrs. Lucy Abrams, Dr. and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reinhart.

The date of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Statter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brockwell Statter of Portland, to Waldon S. Byers, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Byers, of Pendleton, has been announced as March 24, and will take place at Trinity church, in Portland, Dr. A. A. Morrison officiating.

Miss Statter and Mr. Byers are former University of Oregon students, their engagement being announced last spring.

A typical Dutch scene was the idea carried out in the decorations at the Kappa Sigma formal dance, on Saturday evening, at the chapter house. A revolving windmill was placed over the fireplace and large cardboard Dutch boys and girls stood about the rooms. Red, yellow and white potted tulips were in numerous places of the house.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Benefiel, Dr. and Mrs. Del Stannard, Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Wood and Mr. John Hunt. Clare Hartman had charge of the decorations.

Mrs. F. H. Lamb and Miss Clara Lamb, of Hoquiam, Washington spent last week-end with Miss Florence Lamb at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Guests at the Gamma Phi Beta house over the week-end were Catherine Wilcox, Helen Manary, Lee Luders, Mary Stewart and Marian Norman.

Miss Jo-Anne Warwick, '26, who is teaching school at Stevenson, Washington, was a guest at the Delta Delta house last week-end.

Mrs. H. D. Shelton, Mrs. R. D. Horn, Mrs. E. L. Griggs, and Miss Margaret Daigh, patronesses of the Girls' Oregon club, entertained the officers, freshmen, sophomores and juniors of the club at a dinner Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Sheldon, on University street. The table was decorated with pussywillows and daffodils. During the dinner hour, Mrs. Sheldon told the history of the Girls' Oregon club and of its future plans.

Misses Miriam and Mildred Swafford, freshmen in the University, spent last week-end at their home in Oregon City.

An event in which all living organizations will engage is the Dime Crawl, to be held at sorority houses and halls, tomorrow evening from 6:30 to 7:30. Dime Crawls are held once a term and given for the benefit of the Foreign Scholarship fund on the campus, which Women's League sponsors.

Lavonna Andrews, Maryhelen Koupal, Leone Swangel and Edna English were guests last Friday at the Kappa Delta chapter house in Corvallis.

Lockey Stewart, James Leake, '26, and Robert Mautz, '27, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Kappa Sigma house.

Communications

(Continued from page two) Portland, Ore. Dressed in brilliant Oriental costume, Jue comes to the footlights and tells his audience: "I hope you'll like my songs so I won't have to go back to working in a laundry." He's having a wonderful time; has no ambitions to graduate into opera, and plans to spend the whole of next summer vacationing in Oregon. Jue has a five-year contract with Keith's, which provides the Orpheum bill.

physical education at Wisconsin is reported as saying. "Many women's clubs have their bowling organization." Three hundred girls at the university are now earning their physical education requirements by bowling. The alleys are in the basement of Lathrop Hall, women's dormitory. Fifteen university boys are earning part of their college expenses by setting up pins in the alleys.

Exit the hair pin. Enter the bowling pin. (Editor's note: A poor pun. Author's note: Don't I know it?)

Back to the mauve decade when the men wore high starched collars and the women tight-fitting basque dresses.

Lawren's restaurant on State street, patronized by students, has its booths decorated with photographs of sorority and fraternity groups of Spanish war days. Here is the 1896 Kappa chapter; the Tri Deltas of 1898; the Delta Gammas of 1902; everyone in a white blouse. Not a bobbed head in the bunch. My! Everybody's prim! The Chi Psi boys of 1893, and so on. There is a picture of the varsity crew of '97 and the manager wears an enormous high collar. Apparently the coaches went in for moustaches. And the university battalion of '99 had uniforms a bit more attractive than the present-day R. O. T. C. outfits. The officers look very important in their smart blue uniforms, with stripes down the trousers and shining sabers at their sides.

Oregana Money Due Today, Says R. Hubbs

Exact results of the Oregana campaign have not been announced as a number of the representatives have not checked in their money, according to Ronald M. Hubbs, circulation manager.

All money must be turned in today at the Oregana office, between 4 and 6 o'clock, he stated. The circulation staff intends to continue sales until every possible source has been exhausted, but some record of the results this far must be had at once, Hubbs says.

Pledging Announcement

Beta Alpha Psi, national accounting fraternity, announces the pledging of Fred C. West, Carl E. Rodgers, Emerson E. Bolz, J. Fred Johnson.

JEWELRY REPAIRING

Dear friends: Accidents will happen. Every day we see the effects of "jewelry" accidents here at the store. Broken chains, lost ring sets, broken silverware, etc.

If you have any jewelry repairing to do, they certainly know how to do it at Skeie's.

And say, do you know that your old jewelry can be made up into new and clever novelties? They do that here, also. If you have some old jewelry that is out of date and not serving its purpose any more, bring it in and we'll see if we can't fix you up.

Remember this, too, that we do any kind of watch repairing.
