

Seniors Meet Waterloo; Hall Ruled by Frosh

Youngsters Feature Big Party for Former Friendly Heads

From the tall, thin intellectuals to the short, fat, sleek, somnolent, phlegmatic, firefront dozers, they are no longer omnipotent. At 12:01 Thursday morning, all seniors at Friendly Hall became freshmen; freshmen turned seniors; juniors, sophomores, and the sophomores were elevated to juniors.

Without waste of time the class of '31, then seniors, held a mid-night party for the "frosh" of '28. Spats and tubbings with all the trimmings were meted out to the temporary freshmen. Seeming to forget the fact that today would put them back in their position as freshmen, they hazed the fallen seniors with no regard for former social standing. House president, managers, all had to take their share of the work and punishment usually the lot of the freshmen.

The senior on phone duty received plenty of incentive to reach the telephone smartly in the form of a large paddle wielded by the boys of '31.

A prominent junior received a tubbing for offering resistance to the entertainment supplied at the party last night. Several others among the class of '28 and '29 found to their discomfort that the boys of '31 had learned collegiate methods of punishment in a very thorough manner.

The original purpose of the day was to determine just how the underclassmen wanted to be treated. However, the ludicrous situation created has supplied such unusual diversion that there is much sentiment for making it a tradition at Friendly.

Zane Speaks Before Alpha Delta Sigma

Nowland B. Zane of the art department gave members of Alpha Delta Sigma a talk on the poster and its place in advertising at their luncheon at the Anchorage yesterday noon.

"A country's art grows out of its philosophy," Mr. Zane declared. "If the art is not in accord with the philosophy of a country it cannot survive."

Two associate members were elected at the business meeting, Roy J. Bullock, associate professor of the school of business administration, and Joe Davidson, promotional manager of the Oregonian. Mr. Davidson is in Eugene for the newspaper men's conference and will speak at a luncheon of the Eugene Ad Club at noon today.

A.A.U.W. Convention Meets This Week-end

The annual state convention of the A. A. U. W. will be held in Portland, February 10 and 11. The first session will open with a dinner at the Multnomah hotel.

Miss Mozelle Hair is state president. Professor Noble of Reed College will give the first speech on "U. S. in World Politics: Whither?" Several other interesting speakers are scheduled to speak and to lead general discussion groups.

An important matter to be discussed is the raising of $1200 by the state association as a scholarship to an Oregon woman holding a B.A. or B.S. degree who wishes to use it for graduate study in the thorough manner.

"Always The Same" says Pipe-Smoker

Charleston, S. C. February 10, 1927

Larus & Bro. Co., Richmond, Va. Gentlemen:

I've done a lot of pipe smoking. There's hardly a brand or a blend that I haven't tried out at some time or other.

But speaking of smoking tobacco that brings real enjoyment, and never changes, I want to say that there is just one tobacco that gives me real enjoyment in my pipe—Edgeworth.

I have used Edgeworth Ready Rubbed and Plug Slice for over five years, in all climates and under all conditions, and I find it always the same. It is always mellow and moist, and its genuine flavor lasts. There is no bite or parch in Edgeworth, and the quality, whether you buy it in small or large quantities, is always perfect.

Thanks to the manufacturers for their wonderful product, and I hope that Edgeworth can always be obtainable by the undersigned.

up which cover the remains of once thriving farms and cities. The little town of Melville, six miles from the Atchafalaya levee, was covered by eight to fifteen feet of sand and is now being dug out just like an ancient city of Egypt," he continued.

Dunbar told of some bits of humor in the tragic story of the Mississippi flood. For instance, one of his friends had a rice-field which the waters covered. They reseeded at just the right time and left his rice flourishing. Most of the rice fields were ruined, though, as the water stayed too long.

Clarence has been going to school since he was three years old and it is no wonder that his ambition is to go around and see the world a bit. "I don't know what I'm going to do as a life work, but I do know I'm tired of school and want to travel awhile," he said.

Old Shirts Made New

Jim: Say those old shirts are so dirty I'd just as well throw 'em away.

John: No, don't do that. My last ones were just like that and look at them now.

Jim: By golly, they are. Where did you send them for work like that?

John: Just Phone 825 they'll do the rest.
