Holiday To Be Generally Celebrated

The lull in classes caused by Washington's birthday tomorrow, followed by Thursday, which is usually a light day for everyone as far as studying is concerned, will make the entire week a pleasant one socially. The Krazy Kopy Krawl, to be held at the Campa Shoppe tonight, sponsored by members of Alpha Delta Sigma, men's advertising fraternity, will attract a large crowd, while several formal and informal dances are taking place. Members of Phi Kappa Psi are entertaining with their annual breakfast dance tomorrow morning, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Eugene hotel. Tomorrow afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, members of Phi Sigma Kappa will be hosts at a matinee dance at the chapter house, honoring Washington's birthday.

Heads of Houses Have Banquet

A new—and delightful precedent was established on the campus Saturday evening, February 18, when the heads of houses entertained with a formal dinner at the Osburn hotel, honoring President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall. Other guests of honor included Dean Virginia Judy Esterly and Dean Elmer Shirrell. The heads of houses present were Roma Whisnant, Edith Bader, Ruth Bradley, Gladys Grant, Katherine Delarty, Lois Everson, Katherine Inwood, Harriet Adams, Ethel Montgomery, Grace Fleming, Audrey Hendricksen, Emma Belle Woodworth, Lois Beth Seoffern Evelyn Anderson, Katherine Henderson, Betty Easterday, Flossie Radabaugh, Agnes Petzold, Violet Mills, Mary Kirkwood, Berniece Rasor, Diana Deinger, Clifford Powers, Dudley Clarke, Ronald Hubbs, Ned Peterson, Herman Rademacher, Robert Benjamin, Ronald Robinette, Al Fries, Elmer Gant, Joe McKeown, Jack Anstey, Harold Socolofsky, Harold Harden, Carl Dabler and Charles Woodcock.

Seniors Entertain Royalty at Ball

In a true atmosphere of elegance, combining French skill and artistry with modern talent, the annual senior "Bal de l'Elegance", given by the senior class of 1928, Saturday evening, February 18, fittingly crowned the list of achievements of this class and became the prime social success of this year. Black and white carried out the French motif to detail, a huge decorative arch covered one end of the ballroom, where the feature appeared, another arch made a background for the orchestra platform, and around the room black and white walls carried out the dignified formal ballroom effect to perfection. Clusters of various colored lights were suspended from the ceiling, and different colored spot lights flashed intermittently on the dancers. The dance program, following the decorative scheme in a conventional cover design in black and white, listed the menu, the patrons and the patronesses, and the dances. In the sun parlor, adjoining the ballroom, French pastry, daintily colored mints and coffee were served by neatly dressed maids during the evening.

The chapter house of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was beautifully decorated in banks of violets and ferns, last Friday evening, when the Freshmen gave their annual informal grille dance. The dancing rooms were dimly lighted with violet colored spotlights, and at each table, lighted by violet and silver candles, were small corsages for the guests. The court just outside the dancing rooms was arranged like a sitting room with a large floral centerpiece of carnations and daffodils on the table. Kenneth Allen and Miss Madge Normile featured several songs in the latter part of the evening. Patrons and patronesses were Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Sadie Slight, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mohr and Dean Elmer Shirrell.

Omega chapter of Delta Zeta entertained at a formal grille dance Friday night at the Osburn hotel. Immense baskets of pastel colored spring flowers and large palms decorated the rooms. Miss Easterday Craddock had charge. Patrons and patronesses included Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Catherine Yarex, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burden, Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins.

Miss Aimee Sten of St. Helens, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Alpha Chi Omega house, visiting Miss Marion Sten.

Members and pledges of Gamma Zeta chapter, of Sigma Nu, were hosts at a dinner dance, at the Eugene hotel, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The individual tables were attractively decorated with minute baskets of spring flowers, of sweet peas, violets and tulips. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Sprague H. Carter, and Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell. Eta Delta chapter of Chi Psi will give its formal dance at the Eugene hotel, this evening at 9 o'clock. The rooms will be decorated in the fraternity colors, purple and gold, the flowers and lighting conforming to these colors. Mr. Kenton Case has charge of the plans. Patrons and patronesses will be Captain and Mrs. John McEwan, Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell and Mr. and Mrs. Will H. Jewett.

Members of Spurs club entertained at an informal dance Friday night, February 17, at the Eugene Country club. Tulips and carnations were used to decorate the rooms. About twenty-five couples participated in the affair. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. Roy Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl. Verne Dale had charge of the dance. The marriage of Miss Hazel Ingram to Samuel Irving Jagger will be an important event of this evening, at the Multnomah hotel in Portland. Miss Ingram attended the University in 1926 and was a member of Delta Gamma.

The marriage of Mary Elley Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Joseph Ray, and Basil Thomas Williams, was solemnized Saturday morning at nine o'clock at the Church of St. Michaels and All Angels, in Portland. Both Miss Ray and Mr. Williams are former University of Oregon

Finds Tobacco for "Breaking In" a Pipe

Columbus, Ohio March 10, 1927

Larus & Bro. Co. Richmond, Va. Gentlemen:

Two years ago my wife gave me an expensive pipe. I smoked it a great deal for two or three weeks, put it aside, then began smoking it again. This time it was very strong. Veterans told me that it had been smoked too hard for a new pipe and should be put away. The pipe was laid away again. A short time ago I got it out and smoked one of the common brands of tobacco in it. The results were disappointing. I told the druggist of my experience with it. He asked if I had tried Edgeworth. I told him I never had. I followed his suggestion, and I am honest when I say that it has restored the sweetness to the pipe, and has made me wonder. Was it the pipe or the brand of tobacco that caused me to lay it away for the long period of time? As a novice, I prefer Edgeworth. I am going to stick to it, as I feel satisfied that there is none better on the market.

Sincerely yours, Philip C. Shera

students, where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi and he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega.

The Osburn hotel will be the scene this evening of a formal dinner dance at 7:30 o'clock, at which members of Gamma Rho chapter of Delta Tau Delta are entertaining. Patrons and patronesses will be Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Erb. Jerry Plue has charge of the affair.

Paul Ager, '26, of Portland, is visiting at the Phi Sigma Kappa house.

Students spending the week-end at their homes in Portland were the Misses Florence King, George Davidson, Barbara Crowell, Catherine Mahew and Elizabeth Plummer.

Miss Jean Roth and Miss Helen Malarkey, of Portland, were guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house last week-end.

Freshmen of Alpha Chi Omega honored their Eugene alumnae at a bridge luncheon, Saturday afternoon at the chapter house. Covers were placed for 28 and the table was decorated in the George Washington motif, attractively enhanced by red tulips. Miss Zepha Rogers was in charge.

Members of Phi Mu will give their annual formal grille dance at the Eugene hotel this evening. Palms are to be used in decorating, with small baskets of pink rosebuds forming the centerpieces for the tables. Miss Edith Pearson and Jack Reynolds will dance for the feature. Patrons and patronesses are to be Miss Sue Badolett, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. N. McDuff, Dean and Mrs. Elmer Shirrell.

Orville Blair, '27, of Portland, visited at the Delta Tau Delta house Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Helen Connell of Hillsboro, was a guest at the Alpha Phi house last week-end.

The Alpha Chi Omega house will be the scene of a Backward dance, this evening at 9 o'clock. The rooms will be decorated with unique French posters and pussywillows and the program for the night is to be entirely reversed from the usual procedure at a dance. Miss Louise Storla has charge of the plans for the affair and patrons and patronesses are to be Mrs. Anna C. Hart, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bushman.

Freshmen of Alpha Delta Pi will honor their upperclassmen at a costume dance tonight at the chapter house. The decorations are to typical of the "Valley Forge Barracks" with sabres, helmets, flags and old war guns much in evidence. Two large cannons will be situated on either side of the front entrance. Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Packard and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Grege, are to act as patrons and patronesses. Miss Margaret Tucker is chairman of the dance.

Miss Dorothy Compte and Miss Alberta Rives spent last week-end at their homes in Portland.

Miss Harriet Hawkins was a Portland visitor over the week-end.

Unique among the social events preceding Washington's birthday, is to be the S. A. E. upperclass dance in the form of a "Hoboes' Convention." As a novel innovation the bids for the "Convention" were delivered during the dinner hour Monday evening by a freshman attired as a hobo in bright red shirt, patched trousers and wearing the usual hobo's beard.

Misses Genevieve Swedenburg and Genevieve Thompson spent last week-end in Salem, the guests of Miss Flora K. Brown.

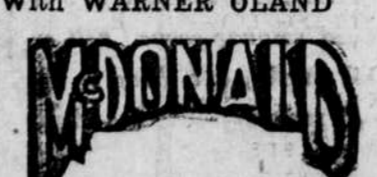

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Ross will honor upperclassmen of Delta Delta Delta at an informal dance this evening at their home on College Crest.
