

Society

By BETTY SCHULTZE

The picnic season has arrived in all its glory and this last week was typical of what the rest of the term's week-ends will resemble. The McKenzie highway, the mill-race, and all the nearby picnic spots for which Eugene is famous, have come into their own, and will undoubtedly dominate the tone of the social activities till school closes.

Aside from the predominance of picnics, several house formals and spring informals were given during the week, and the houses and lawns on the campus presented a festive appearance both afternoon and evenings.

Beta Formal Dance Given Saturday

With the lawn covered with tables and huge colored umbrellas, a rainbow colored fountain splashing in the mill-race, and soft flood lights over all, members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity gave their formal dance, Saturday night. The interior of the chapter house was lighted by candle-light, and the Kollege Knights furnished music for the dancing.

Songs were featured by Frank Rohr and Dave Mason, from a canoe which floated from down the mill-race, and the Campa Shoppe trio, accompanied by Billy O'Bryant, sang. Allen Bracher, Walton Crane and Herbert Levis were in charge of the arrangements.

Patrons and patronesses were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rosson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ober-tueffer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas I. Chapman.

Phi Delta Theta Entertains at Formal

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Church on Fairmount Heights was the scene of the Phi Delta Theta formal, Saturday, May 5. The house, lawn and tennis court were decorated with palms, spring flowers, and numerous lights. Refreshments were served in the tennis court, and sky rockets were displayed between the dances.

Music was furnished by George Weber's orchestra, with features by Kenneth Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Banks, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Church, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Hudson acted as patrons and patronesses for the affair.

Phi Delta Theta held their annual picnic at Robinson's Grove on the Willamette river, Sunday. Out-of-town guests that came down for both the picnic and the dance were Kenneth McKenzie, Percy Bolstead, Allen Kelly, and Mort Frayne of the University of Washington, and Vern Haffenfeldt, William McAllit, Al Thelen and Kenneth Tully of Oregon State College.

A calm, peaceful barn, about ten miles from Eugene, was turned into a festive, collegiate structure last Friday evening when Alpha Omicron Pi sorority entertained at their annual barn dance. A huge rustic lantern, suspended from the rafters, lent an appropriate light for the scene of dancing to music furnished by a four-piece orchestra and the disturbed kine that resided below the dance floor.

Bandannas worn by the party carried the programs on them, and pop and doughnuts were served. As a side entertainment, jumping into the hay loft was indulged in by all. Patrons and patronesses for the dance were, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinhart, and Mrs. Lucy Abrams.

Members of Gamma Phi Beta were hostesses at a formal dance given at their chapter house, Saturday evening. Spring flowers and palms were used in decorating, and a soft lighting effect was produced by candles on the grille tables. In the latter part of the evening several vocal selections were sung by Kenneth Allen, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Josephine Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hudson, and Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hitchcock were the patrons.

Previous to the dance the members entertained their out-of-town guests at dinner at the Anchorage.

Coming as a very complete surprise to her Alpha Xi Delta sorority sisters was the announcement of the betrothal of Miss Lois Everson to Phil Nordling at a dinner at the Phi Lambda chapter house Saturday evening. Tiny cards, bearing the names of the betrothed, were drawn to the place of each guest by tiny pink ribbon streamers from beneath the centerpiece of pink tulips and snapdragons. Tall pink tapers in crystal holders also adorned the table.

Miss Everson, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Everson of Creswell, Oregon, is a senior major in music and is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon. Mr. Nordling, who is in business in Eugene, formerly attended O. S. C.

Alpha Phi chapter of Sigma Kappa held their installation ball at the Eugene hotel, Friday evening, May 4. Guests for the affair included members of Upsilon chapter, Oregon State College, and the presidents of the various fraternities and sororities of the campus.

A feature of the evening was a toe dance by Lucile Larson. Patrons and patronesses included President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Dean and Mrs. Elmer L. Shirrell, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. Jennie Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kingsmill, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lomax, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beattie, Miss Bertha Whillock.

Underclassmen of Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained at a very clever spring informal, Saturday evening. The dancing rooms of their chapter house were decorated with massive paper tulips and earthen jars of spring flowers. Red, blue, and green lights cast dim shadows on the grille tables where the guests were seated. Jack Waldron played several harmonica selections as the feature.

Their patrons and patronesses were, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tugman, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Adams, and Dean and Mrs. Elmer L. Shirrell. Orvil Thompson had charge of the dance.

Thirty-five couples were present at the Alpha Beta Chi sport dance which was given at their chapter house on Saturday, May 5. The ceiling was composed of white, yellow, orange and red streamers, and baskets of Scotch broom were about the rooms.

Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, and Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Fish.

Phi Mu sorority entertained at an informal dance Saturday evening at the Eugene hotel. Forty couples attended, including out-of-town guests and alumnae of the chapter. Amelia Kiplan was chairman for the dance. Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. Elmer L. Shirrell, and Mr. and Mrs. McDuff.

The annual picnic of Alpha Tau Omega was held at Triangle Lake on Sunday. Members of the fraternity and their guests left early in the morning, and the day was spent in swimming, boating, hiking, and dancing.

Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner, and Lieutenant and Mrs. George F. Herbert chaperoned the affair.

The Three Arts Club was decorated with tulips and dogwood, and lighted by candles for their informal dance on Saturday evening. Diana Deininger, Helen Wood and Harriet McLeod were in charge of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. B. Willeox, Miss Kertchen, of Berkeley, California, and Mrs. Mary W. Fairfowl were patrons and patronesses.

The spring informal of Sigma Nu fraternity was given in the form of a grille sport dance on Friday night. Music by Hap Stewart's "Chestnut Kernels," and several "blues" features were on the evening's program.

Palms were used in decoration. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jewett, Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Kerron, and Dr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBuss were the patrons and patronesses.

Grace Fleming and Miriam Shepard, Sigma Kappa, were guests of Upsilon chapter of Sigma Kappa at the spring informal given at the Alderwood County Club in Portland, Saturday evening.

An oriental atmosphere prevailed at the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority, Saturday, May 5, when the members entertained at an informal dance. Chinese lanterns, cherry blossoms, and wisteria decorated both the interior of the house and the lawn. Refreshments were served to the guests out on the lawn, which was representative of a Chinese garden.

Their patrons and patronesses were, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hartham, Mrs. Abbie Z. Marsh, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hudson.

The Craftsman club was the scene of an attractive dance, Saturday night, when Susan Campbell hall entertained with their annual spring informal. Huge baskets of coral tulips and lavender lilies decorated the rooms. Miss Elizabeth Pennock was in charge of decorations.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were, Miss Fannie McCamant, Miss Ernestine Troemel, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hermance, and Mr. Lawrence de Rycke.

Psi Kappa fraternity gave a spring dance at the Anchorage on Friday evening, with red as the decorative color scheme, carried out in red tulips, candles, and red and silver programs.

Captain John J. McEwan and Mr.

and Mrs. Everett Hartham acted as patrons and patronesses.

Ruby Russell and Mildred Lowden, Gamma Nu, visited on the O. S. C. campus over the week-end.

A picnic was enjoyed by members of Phi Mu sorority at Swimmer's Delight, on Sunday. Dorothy Gay was in charge of the day, and about eighty-six attended. Miss Badollett and Mrs. Lang, Kappa Delta house mother, chaperoned the affair.

To-Ko-Lo, men's honorary fraternity, gave their formal dance at Lucille's Tea Room on Friday night. The rooms were exquisitely decorated with spring flowers and colored lighting effects.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ober-tueffer and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Erb were patrons and patronesses for the evening.

OREGON AGGIES BEAT HUSKIES IN CLOSE TILT
OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, May 7—Oregon State jumped into the lead in the northern division Pacific Coast baseball conference by a victory over the Washington nine here today. The final game of the series will be played tomorrow.

R H E
Washington, 4 7 3
Oregon State 5 9 2
Batteries: Washington, Nevins, Davis, McKenzie, O. S. C. Cloys, Bo-stock and Maple.

We Never Stop for Spring

Fellows, we realize that this is a mighty busy season for students. There are so many extra-curricular activities, then at your odd moments there are many recreational stunts you cannot resist.

Every moment of your time is valuable. Don't waste it by carrying your laundry downtown

Call 8-2-5 for immediate laundry taxi service.

New Service Laundry

Dr. Royal J. Gick

Next to First Nat'l Bank, Eugene

Even better than "Tell It To The Marines" and "Slide Kelly-Slide!"

William Haines in WEST POINT

A supporting bill of excellence, including MAX DAVIDSON in "Come the Dawn," Freddy Holt in song slide novelty, Pathe News and Aesop Fables.

—With—
JOAN CRAWFORD

HEILIG

Ever Present PERFECTION

RALPH WALDO EMERSON said of the rose: "It is perfect in every moment of its existence."

And more true of the unchanging gem is this fact of ever-present perfection.

A diamond from our collection may be possessed on terms which work no hardship

"If It Comes From Skele's It Must Be Good"

Time to Order A New Supply of slabwood. The weather is fine and deliveries can be made promptly. If you order now the fellows will have more time to put it in than later in the season. Just call—

452

BOOTH-KELLY LUMBER CO.

Anniversary

WEEK PROGRAM
 One Full Week of Gala Entertainment

MONDAY
TUESDAY
WEDNESDAY

TOLSTOY'S

Flaming Love
Drama of Romance and International Adventures

RESURRECTION

by Count Leo Tolstoy

with

DOLORES DEL RIO

and

ROD LA ROCQUE

The screen's perfect lovers in a glowing drama of a man's reborn love and a woman's redemption to honor and virtue, vividly told upon the screen. Powerful . . . Sensational . . . Beautiful . . . human . . . splendor . . . magnificent . . . A romance that will capture and live forever in your heart.

N. B.—PRICES WILL NOT BE ADVANCED FOR THIS SPECIAL PRESENTATION

McDONALD

Shrine of the Photoplay and Music

ATMOSPHERIC PROLOGUE

and "TRIP THRU THE ORGAN"

by Frank D. C. Alexander

NEWS COMEDY

COME! HELP US CELEBRATE!

May the Ninth marks the anniversary of the advent in Eugene of de luxe entertainment, the birthday of the McDonald. That Eugene appreciated the many modern appointments for comfort and perfection of presentation is evidenced in the patronage the McDonald has enjoyed since that memorable night, three years ago. It is with a feeling of keen delight, that we announce a full week of celebration, May 7 to 12, an "Anniversary Week" during which we will present two of the most colorful programs ever seen on any screen and stage.

Russell Brown