

Hoover Makes Gain; Leads In Emerald Poll

Tonight Is Last Chance For Vote; Ballot Box To Be Closed at 10

Sunday Movies Wanted by Five-sixths of Students

A lot of good Republicans and true rallied to the defense of their party yesterday and put Hoover into a lead of five votes over Al Smith, who led in the Emerald's straw ballot during the first two days. The total votes cast now read: Hoover 101, Smith 96, Thomas 8, and Varney 0.

Campus opinion on the Sunday movie question is not so evenly divided as it is on presidential candidates, since almost five students vote for the measure to every one that votes against it. The total figures so far are: For 165, against 35.

If women intend to show their opinion on the issues named on the Emerald ballot, they will have to do so before 10 p. m. Friday evening, when the ballot box in the main library will be opened and the final count taken. So far only 49 women students have voted, while the more politically minded men have cast 156 ballots. Several of the men's houses have made drives among their members in order to get votes for one candidate or the other.

Interest in the straw ballot is running high off the campus. Several letters have been received by the editor, and newspapers are publishing news of the straw ballot as well as the doings of the campus political organizations.

The Republican state central committee, realizing that many students on the campus are registered in their home counties and will probably not be able to go home and vote November 6, have arranged for one of their representatives, Marion E. Dickey, of Portland, to be on the campus October 13 in order that students not registered in Eugene may apply for the privilege of voting through the mails.

Mr. Dickey will be in the law school on Saturday, October 13, from 9:30 until noon, and from 2:00 to 4:30 in the afternoon. He will supply application blanks for the benefit of those students who can use them and will also forward the blanks to the proper county clerk. Although Mr. Dickey is the representative of the Republican committee, he will be down here to help any student, irrespective of party affiliations, who desires to take advantage of the state absent voter's law.

Social Swimming To Be Held This Term

The social swims which proved so popular last year are to be held weekly again this term. Each Friday evening from seven-thirty to nine o'clock men and women on the campus who like to combine both sport and pleasure are invited to gather for an evening's recreation. Snits will be provided for those who wish them and life guards will be present as suitable chaperones. The pool is located at the north end of the Woman's building and may be entered through the central door at the north side.

Doors To Be Closed For Vespers at 4:30

Vespers, at four-thirty Sunday afternoon, will include several organ selections by John Stark Evans and a group of songs by Mrs. Prudence Clerk.

Rev. Clayton E. Palmer, new pastor of the Congregational church, will read the scriptures.

According to the vesper custom, the doors of the music auditorium will be closed promptly at four-thirty in order that quietness may prevail during the half-hour service.

Class Coffers Empty so Dance Is Called Off

Seniors Select Bob Hynd For Sergeant-at-Arms; Vote 50 Cent Tax Fee

Seniors of Oregon who like to dance will have to call on the other class functions next Friday night if they want to spend the evening in terpsichorean endeavor.

At a meeting of the class held yesterday evening in Guild Theatre it was voted to cancel the fall term dance because of the lack of funds. This dance was to have been held on the eve of the Washington game in Portland when the freshmen, sophomores and juniors are also planning to entertain at different places on the campus.

The seniors also voted to assess fifty cents on the winter term fees to help pay off the debts incurred for the Junior Varsity last year. A fifty-cent tax has already been added to the fall term fees which will be paid in a few days.

Bob Hynd was unanimously elected sergeant-at-arms to fill the vacancy left by Tom Montgomery, who did not return to school this quarter.

Several senior men with mustaches were warned to dispose of them or the class barber, Bernice Rasor, would be called on to remove the growths with a straight-edge. Not a man moved a hair.
