

SOCIETY

By DOROTHY BAKER

With the last of fall pledge dances over and but two more week-ends left for campus social activities, interest in this term's social calendar is beginning to wane. Of course there are the Homecoming festivities this coming week-end, with the annual Homecoming dances, the Journalism Jamboree and the usual round of dinners and affairs given by special groups for alumni members, and then next comes the Thanksgiving week-end. Guild theater is scheduled to hold the interest of many next month, with the Christmas college ball in Portland coming as the climax of the fall term calendar, but that is a month away.

Sunday Night Suppers Plan New Features

The Sunday evening supper groups sponsored by Phi Theta Upsilon for university women were again active last Sunday, and at the same time members of Phi Theta Upsilon entertained a group of about twenty girls at an informal tea in the woman's lounge of the Woman's building.

The literary and poetry group of the organization met for its regular business meeting, following which Helen Evans gave a review of Chapman's "Happy Mountain," which was afterwards discussed by the group. An interesting meeting is promised this group next time when original work of the members will be read and discussed.

The woman in her sphere group met for tea at the Y. W. C. A. Bungalow. A discussion of women's style led into the suggestion of the possibility of a style show to be given by the members at some future date.

The group taking up miscellaneous lines of discussion met in the recreation room of Susan Campbell Hall for tea with a political discussion following.

Eugene members of the A. A. U. W. and members of Delta Gamma sorority were joint hostesses at an informal reception given at the Delta Gamma house for the Moroni Olsen players immediately following the presentation of their play, "Expressing Willie," at the Helling last Thursday evening. The reception especially complimented Miss Janet Young, member of the company, who attended the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Delta Gamma.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Larsen (Adelaide Johnson) were campus visitors last Friday. They left for Denver, Colorado, Monday, and after Christmas will make their home in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Larsen is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta and Mr. Larsen with Phi Delta Theta.

Elizabeth Schub, ex-'26, was a week-end guest at the Alpha Gamma Delta house from Portland.

Unaffiliated Students Guests at Dance

The unaffiliated students of the campus were entertained with an informal dance in the Woman's building last Friday with the Associated Students, the Girls' Oregon club and Phi Theta Upsilon, service honorary for senior and junior women, acting as hosts for the evening.

A reception was held between 8:30 and 9 o'clock, and music for dancing was furnished by the Varsity Vagabonds.

Those invited as patrons and patronees were: President and Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Miss Hazel Prutsman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pallett, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Douglass, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Parsons, Dr. and Mrs.

Reed. Martha Prothero of Portland was a guest for the dance.

Pi Beta Phi gave their annual pledge dance at the chapter house last Friday evening amid decorations of palms, colored lights and white chrysanthemums.

Patrons and patronees included Mrs. F. W. Benson, Miss Hazel Prutsman, Mrs. Anne Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Williams. Miss Edith Bader, '28, was a guest from Portland.

Members of Sigma Kappa entertained at their annual pledge dance at the chapter house last Friday evening amidst decorative red devils, whose effectiveness was heightened by the deep glow of the red lights. Miss Maurine Smith and Miss Lulee Larsen were in charge of the dance.

Those invited to serve as patrons and patronees included Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Roberts, Mrs. Jennie Burrows and Miss Gertrude Hill.

Alpha Eta chapter of Theta Sigma Phi entertained members of Theta chapter, of the university, at an informal tea in Corvallis immediately following the Oregon-O. A. C. game last Saturday. The tea was given in the new Student Memorial building, which was dedicated on the O. A. C. campus that week-end.

Among those attending the tea from Oregon were: Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Mrs. George Turnbull, Mrs. Rudolph Ernst, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Miss Ruth Gregg, Miss Ruth Newton, Mrs. Malcolm Epley, Miss Marion Sten, Miss Mary McLean, Miss Dorothy Baker, Miss Mary Frances Dilday, Miss Elaine Crawford, Miss Elise Schroeder, Miss Bess Duke, Miss Ruth Hansen, Miss Wilma Lester, and Miss Serena Madsen.

Mrs. Louis H. Johnson, Mrs. David R. Davis and Mrs. Robert W. Prescott, patronees for Alpha Xi Delta, were hostesses at an informal tea at Mrs. Johnson's home last Thursday afternoon for senior and sophomore members of the sorority. The tea began a series of informal affairs planned by the patronees for each month.

Miss Katherine Simpson was a guest at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house Saturday and Sunday. She is a member of the Gamma Nu chapter at Corvallis.

Wilson

(Continued from Page One) grew in number and soon had 160 members in the British house of parliament. It is now what the liberal party used to be, and what is known as the opposition in England. In fact it is the second largest party in that country.

Patrons and patronees were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Earl, Mr. and Mrs. David Graham and Mr. L. W. Pittman, Stuart Ball and Folson Tallman, alumnae from Portland, were guests at the dance.

In keeping with the atmosphere of the Oregon-O. A. C. game, Alpha Omicron Pi entertained their pledges with a rally dance Friday night. The chapter house was decorated with pennants, posters and colors of the two schools. Agnes Palmer was in charge.

The list of patrons and patronees included Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Zane, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinhart, and Mrs. Lucy Abrams.

In an atmosphere of Chinese drapes, kimonos, dragons and with small packages of tea as favors, Kappa Alpha Theta entertained their pledges at their annual pledge dance last Friday evening. As a feature Nancy Thielsen sang, and was accompanied at the piano by Marabel Braden; both are from Salem and are not on the campus this year.

Patrons and patronees were Mrs. Grace Russell, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Garland, and Mrs.

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1. To secure every member of the

Laborites Victorious

"At the municipal election, November 1st, in Great Britain, the Labor party gained 226 seats," said the speaker, who also has had the privilege to co-operate with these men in electing members of their party to the house of Parliament.

"All that were lost is 42 which gives a net gain of 184 seats in England. The Tories gained only 21, but lost 148, their net loss being 127. The liberals' loss was 27 seats."

"These figures alone," said Mr. Wilson, "show the tremendous gains of the Labor party among the masses of England."

The principles of his party are:

1