

Homecoming Luncheon at Eleven Today

No One To Be Admitted Unless Having Ticket, Directorate Orders

McArthur Court Selected As Scene of Annual Feed

Eleven o'clock is the time set for the Homecoming luncheon to begin. McArthur court will be the scene of the big feed in view of weather conditions making an outdoor affair inadvisable. Plenty of creamed chicken, fruit salad, potato chips, olives, buns and jam, ice cream and coffee will be ready for the 3500 people expected to attend.

Admission by Ticket
So far so good; but there is a fly in the ointment, so to speak. No one will be admitted to the luncheon without a ticket. The ruling made by the Homecoming directorate will positively be enforced by a crew of men working under the direction of Bob Hynd, assistant general chairman of Homecoming. Students get their luncheon tickets by presenting their student body tickets at the Co-op, while alumni get theirs when they register. All others must pay 50 cents for the luncheon, tickets to be on sale at the door.

Prepared by Caterers
This year for the first time, the luncheon is being prepared by other than Mrs. Edna Datson Davis. Because of the pressure of her duties as head of the university's dining rooms and matron of the new men's dormitory, Mrs. Davis has been unable to supervise the preparation of the luncheon and the contract had to be let to Eugene caterers.

Headed by Luola Benge, the committee in charge of the luncheon is composed of Helen Peters, assistant chairman; Lloyd Sherrill, tables and arrangements; Verdna Isbell, menu; George Barron, music and entertainment; Hugh Miller, clean-up; and Kathryn Langenberg, serving.

afternoon, for this is the first time the Grizzlies and Webfoots have met on the gridiron. The Montana team has not been known for its success since its admittance into the conference. It is a young school with a new coach, Frank Milburn. Milburn has installed a new system of play in the northern school which is just beginning to bring results. Against Oregon, Milburn expects the Grizzlies to play the best football they have shown this year.

Oregon will not present its full strength this afternoon. Three varsity regulars will watch the game from the bench. They are George Stadelman, Ted Pope, and Woodward Archer. Instead of these George Chappell will start at center, and Harry Wood and LaSalle Coles on ends.

Same Backfield Set
The rest of the Webfoot lineup will be the same as the one which started the last three conference games. Austin Colbert, and George Christensen, two of the outstanding tackles in the conference, will be at their customary places in the line. Marshall Shields and Merrill Hagan will start at guards.

The backfield combination is as usual. Charles Williams and George Burnell, halfbacks; John Kitzmiller, quarterback, and Cotter Gould, fullback. Three men in the starting lineup, Hagan, Burnell, and Gould, are playing their last home game for the Webfoots.

Robinson Is Ready

ing lineup, will be rushed into the game early in the first half. Robinson is one of the most consistent ground gainers on the team. It is a curious thing, but he has not made a touchdown so far this season. If he has not scored himself, Robinson has been instrumental in placing the Webfoots in position to ram over a score time after time.

The Montana team which spread itself over Hayward field yesterday afternoon, looked anything but a set up. The northerners are fast, shifty and clever. In appearance they are small, but their team average reaches 180 pounds.

On paper Oregon should win by four or five touchdowns, but dope counts little in a game with a team so keyed-up as Montana. If Oregon lives up to the dope, John Kitzmiller may be leading the conference scorers after the game. At present Kitz ranks fourth, 14 points behind Spud Lewis of Stanford, the leader.

Special Emerald Rate Arranged for Alumni

Tables To Be Stationed in Administration Building

Alumni attending the annual Homecoming on the campus this week-end will be able to secure special prices on mail subscriptions of the Emerald for the remainder of the term at a special table to be placed in the Administration building where the Homecoming visitors are registering.

Wilbur Shannon, circulation manager of the student daily, and Ted Hewitt are conducting the sale of mail subscriptions to alumni in the Administration building today. Salesmen will be on duty throughout the day to take names of those who wish to take advantage of the special offer made by the circulation department of the Emerald.

The price of the Emerald for the remainder of the year to the alumni today is $2. For the winter and spring terms together, alumni will be charged the special price of $1.75. The term subscription costs $1. Emeralds will be mailed anywhere, according to Wilbur Shannon.

"Alumni who plan to keep in touch with the various activities of the campus will find the Emerald to be the logical source for such information as they may desire of campus affairs," it was emphasized yesterday by Ted Hewitt. "We advise all the alumni who desire to have the Emerald sent to them at their residence to take advantage of the special offer being made today."

cession wound up for a rally. Under the direction of "Squeak" Parks, yell king, the Team yell, the Varsity Yell, Three Oregons, the Oskey, and other famed Oregon yells went up from the assembled men of Oregon, over the tops of the buildings and melted away in the fog.

Then, as the closing act, the music of "Mighty Oregon" was struck up by the band, and the three thousand Oregon students sang the song that has sometimes been the dirge of defeat, but more often the chant of victory. And hearing this, the terror-stricken Grizzly, a-trembling all over, betook himself for Montana. He had seen the Oregon Spirit for the first time, and it was too much for him.

Pacific College's Soccer Team Takes 4-0 Drubbing Here

The Oregon soccer team sent Pacific college home defeated yesterday, 4 to 0.

The goal tending of Kershner of Oregon was highly spectacular at times. He saved at least three goals. The outstanding feature of the game was a shot by McGee which traveled from the sideline over one-third of the field of play. Anderson made two goals, the first of which was on a sort of a combination, the ball bouncing off Gotch's shins from Lowry's try from penalty and then to Anderson. The final score was made by Horner as a result of snappy team play. The Oregon players are Kershner, goal; Baker, fullback; Sullivan, fullback; Polcar, halfback; Lowry, halfback; McGee, halfback; Allen, outside right; Alexander, inside right; Anderson, center forward; May, inside left; Horner, outside left; Boggs, Sprague, Knox, and Mobley.
